

PRESENCE OF THE OFFICERS BALKED PLANS OF STRIKERS

Alleged Spy Had a Narrow Escape From Mob Violence.

EXCITEMENT AT WELLSVILLE

Union Mill Workers Tried to Wreak Vengeance on a Vandergrift Man.

WAS SCARED BUT NOT HURT

Ed Bunting And Richard Rumbaugh, for Whom Warrants Are Held By the Officers, Escape From the City. Strikers Are Greatly Encouraged.

The presence of Sheriff Noragon and Deputy Sheriff Bick at the Amalgamated headquarters in Wellsville today balked a contemplated attack on an alleged spy thought to have been sent there by the officials of the steel trust, and who left for Pittsburgh on the noon train after having been frightened half out of his wits.

About a week ago the fellow, who is about 24 years of age and inclined to be rather forward in his manners, registered at the Hotel Metropole as Harry Sproul. He claimed Pittsburgh as his home and said he was an insurance agent. The actions of the young man soon aroused the suspicions of the strikers and though he had been at different times accused of being a spy he managed to evade positive identification until today.

On one occasion Sproul engaged in a "confidential" conversation with Organizer Griffiths and while the young man believed he was "pumping" Mr. Griffiths he was himself undergoing that process and giving out information the strikers desired. Yesterday afternoon the fellow left his hat lying for a moment in front of the hotel and one of the strikers picked it up. On the lining of the hat was printed the young man's name, while underneath appeared the name of the town so much despised by the Amalgamated men—Vandergrift, Pa.

This was sufficient to convince the strikers that Sproul was a spy and since then he has been openly accused by the men at every opportunity. He denied that he was from Vandergrift and also claimed he had never made any effort to do any spying. The strikers were tempted to make an example of the fellow, but refrained from making an attack on him, first wishing to be certain he was rightly accused.

Shortly before noon today one of the members of the Wellsville lodge who has been out of the city until this morning recognized Sproul as being a native of Vandergrift and in short order the strikers began scheming among themselves how to mete out justice. It was decided to induce the fellow to go across the river to the camp, and one of the union men had him almost induced to do so when a threat made at an unguarded moment by another striker caused him to become suspicious and change his mind.

The crowd which formed about the hotel strengthened the young man's fear for his safety and in order to escape he started for the train. The crowd surged forward, but the presence of officers held the men at bay. Sproul boarded the train without difficulty and got out of town.

Word has been received from the Amalgamated headquarters that another spy is to arrive in Wellsville tomorrow, and the strikers are preparing to give him a warm reception.

Mayor Dennis was interviewed this morning. He stated that he had sworn in about 28 men at the mill, but would not make known their names. He also said that others would be sworn in if the officials of the mill so desired, as it had been at their request that the non-union men had been deputized. The mayor stated that the threat of Judge Smith to file information against Patrick O'Connor and Harry Kirkbride, charging them with riot, had not yet been carried out, though he did not deny that it would be done later.

Ed Bunting and Richard Rumbaugh, for whom warrants are out, charging them with assault and battery, were quietly slipped out of the city last night. Rumbaugh was rescued by a gang of strikers from a house on Third street while the police were about to close in on him. It is thought the men are now in Pittsburgh.

About 15 of the Lisbon strikers, who came from that city a few days ago to work for the Ohio Valley Gas company, obtained employment on the sewer line at Wellsville and went to work this morning. They have been assured employment by the gas company as soon as the tools and other necessary equipment can be secured.

William Mackintosh, who has been at work in the mill, quit yesterday.

Continued on 8th Page.

IN HIGH LIFE

WEDDING OF COMMODORE BUSCH AND MISS BOWER.

Ceremony Takes Place Today—Both Are Prominent And Well Known Here.

The wedding of Miss Helen Bower, formerly of Lisbon, now of Alliance, and Commodore George H. Busch, a millionaire society man and yacht owner of New York and Atlantic City, will take place today at the home of the bride.

Miss Bower is the daughter of D. C. Bower, formerly a Lisbon merchant, now in the same business in Alliance. She is a young lady of rare beauty and accomplishments, and is well known in this city. Commodore and Mrs. Busch will live in the east.

Commodore Busch is well known in East Liverpool, having visited this city frequently. He is an intimate friend of the family of Col. John N. Taylor, and is said to have met his bride and fallen in love with her at the Sebring-Taylor wedding.

He accompanied Homer Taylor on his tour around the world a year or two ago.

SHERIFF IS SUED

COMPLICATED CASE ARISING OUT OF A BOND GIVEN HIM.

A Lisbon Team Was Sold With Litigation Pending And Cannot Now Be Found.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—A suit has been filed before Justice J. M. Dickinson, of Lisbon, against Sheriff S. D. Noragon for $45.20 by Alva Richardson, of this town. June 2 Richardson sued S. A. Morgan in Justice Riddle's court for $17.55, and also got an attachment against Morgan's two horses, wagon and harness. Morgan claimed that he had sold the team previous to the suit, but Squire Riddle decided that the sale was not valid and gave Richardson judgment for the full amount.

Morgan appealed to common pleas court, but Justice Riddle's decision was sustained. After the appeal, but before the case had been heard, Sheriff Noragon accepted a bond from Morgan and delivered the team to him. After the common pleas decision the case reverted to the justice's court and the bond held by the sheriff was invalid and he could neither get the team nor enforce the bond. The team cannot now be found by the constable, hence the suit against the sheriff, who, it is claimed, wrongfully accepted the bond from Morgan. The case will be heard tomorrow.

FIVE LIVES LOST

SECOND EXPLOSION AT CLEVELAND WATER CRIB.

A Hero of the Former Explosion Among Those Who Perished.

Cleveland, Aug. 21.—(Special)—A second explosion occurred at the water works crib last night by which five lives were lost and two men had narrow escapes, being blown out of the shaft.

The only name of those lost that is known is James J. Williams, who went to the rescue of his companions with Plummer Jones after the former disaster.

HAY IN CANTON

The Secretary Visits the President to Confer on Affairs of State.

Canton, Aug. 21.—(Special)—Secretary Hay arrived today to confer with President McKinley.

HOOKSTOWN FAIR IN FULL BLAST

No Lack of Attractions For the Numerous Visitors in Attendance.

THIS CITY REPRESENTED

By the Usual Number of Exhibits. Fine Display of Equine Stock And Some Interesting Trials of Speed Are Expected.

The eighteenth annual exhibition of the Mill Creek Valley Fair association, otherwise known as the Hookstown fair, is now in progress. As usual, it is a success.

The show was declared open at 7 o'clock yesterday morning by President H. W. Nelson. To enforce good order there is an efficient police force under direction of D. D. Pugh, assisted by "Doc" Dolby and George McDonald.

A large number of maps and popular recently planted add much to the always beautiful location. The grass has been mown as for a huge lawn; an additional string of stables added; a grand stand to seat 1,000 persons, and a very modern judges' stand—these, together with the new floral hall, indicate effort on the part of the managers to please the public.

Entries and arrivals outnumber last year's. The press estimate of this fair's attendance for 1900 was 10,000 to 12,000.

Friends of this enterprise are elated over this year's horse exhibit. This department is under the management of David McClurg and J. B. Swaney. An exhibit of spring colts by local men form one feature; one of pure white horses bred for horse purposes, another. Seven competitors are here in heavy draft horses; all registered Percherons and English-shires. Five competitors are entered in drivers with rigs. Class C, blooded horses, is well represented; Grossus, a half-brother of Cresceus, and 39 others form a fine feature.

Among good track performers here are Judge Cahill, Flying Simon, Major Wolfe, Kitty Price, Allison Nimms, Shadlin Wilkes, Agle Boy, Racing Reptile, Bashear, Oscar H and Biola.

A number of these horses are entered in the free-for-all trot and pace, and the green race for Wednesday. Thursday the 2:20 pace and 2:38 trot and a colt race occur. Some fast work is expected.

In other stock, and among other exhibitors, Hillock's farm has here some of its finest Jerseys; J. E. Stewart an exhibit of pure bred National Delaine merinos, and C. E. Price some fine Oxford Downs.

The fancy work department in this hall includes an exhibit by Miss Mary Allen, of East Liverpool, with 67 pieces entered, and Miss Ella Peters, of Harshaville, 173 pieces. Others also have numerous articles listed, forming a very creditable and interesting display.

The ticket men are Frank Laughlin and Hugh Leiper. Gatemen are John Laughlin, Elmer Craig, Caspar Hamilton and Robert Reed. You pass these according to custom, and near the entrance a Chinese theater having a genuine opium joint announced, meets your eye. This, the public is assured, is a high-grade moral show. A little further on is an entertainment of trained dogs. Texas Harry makes up a show in shooting. Last there is a wax work array of Passion Play figures.

Fakirs began coming in Saturday and still they come. Not until Thursday, as a rule, is the fair complete and the verdict of success goes forth from all quarters. Then, with 7,000 to 10,000 people present, business augments, friends swarm and all resolve to come again.

Beaver valley towns are expected to furnish a large complement of visitors this season, as was the case last year. East Liverpool tradesmen and people have always been the large factors in this rural outing held under the trees.

Haines' band, of East Liverpool, was an arrival this morning.

The arrivals to take in the yearly carnival of sightseeing include Rev. and Mrs. Atwell, of Shousestown, and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lawrence, of Beaver, are at the home of Mr. Samuel Lawrence.

BARRED OUT OF THE GUARD

Jiggermen's Local Votes Not to Let Its Members Join the Militia.

WILL TRY TO DISCOURAGE

A Meeting Held By Those Who Propose to Join the New Company. Outlook for a Strong Organization Here Considered Good.

The meeting of local union No. 12, N. B. of O. P., last evening was a very important one, since several matters were up for consideration which are of more than usual interest to all working people at this time.

Since the agitation was commenced in this city several weeks ago for the organization of a company to be made a part of the Eighth regiment, O. N. G., it has been the subject of a great deal of unfavorable comment among unionists.

A number of different tradesmen have resolved to bring the matter before their unions, but the jiggermen were the first to take the step toward discouraging the militia movement here. A resolution was unanimously adopted at the meeting of No. 12 last night, which not only prohibits any of its members from connecting themselves with the proposed company, but pledges itself to endeavor to induce others to do the same.

The subject was discussed freely, and it was the opinion of all that a man could not consistently be a member of a trades union and do his duty as a militiaman.

A definite plan was adopted for contributing to the support of the Amalgamated Association, and in the future a certain sum will be paid by each member at the end of every pay.

A large number of the local unions are making arrangements to enter the contest for the prize to be awarded to the union having the largest percentage of members in line on Labor day, and No. 12 will not be far from the front rank when the award is made. At the meeting last evening arrangements were made for a part of their equipment for that day, and this will be added to from time to time until the day arrives.

INITIAL STEPS

TAKEN FOR THE FORMATION OF AN O. N. G. COMPANY.

Meeting Held of Those Interested. The Outlook Considered Good.

About 30 young men assembled in the old armory at city hall last evening for the purpose of taking the first steps toward organizing a company to represent East Liverpool in the Eighth, Ohio National Guard. Besides those present there are 15 names at the command of those who are organizing the company who have signified their intention of becoming members of the new organization.

Those present were told by Lieutenant George O. Anderson of the conditions upon which the company would be admitted to the National Guard, after which others present spoke briefly. All at the meeting were in favor of having the company organized, and individual help was promised from quite a number of men toward making the company a success.

Another meeting of the company will be held on Thursday evening of next week, and at the following meeting five staff officers of the Eighth Ohio will be here to enlist and instruct the men. The prospective soldiers say the outlook is good for having a strong company here.

PECCIE BRADLEY JAILED

Taken to Lisbon to Await Trial on Charges of Burglary.

"Peggie" Bradley, charged with larceny and burglary, was taken to Lisbon this morning by Acting Chief of Police Davidson, where he will await the action of the grand jury. He was bound over yesterday afternoon in the sum of $250 bail.

Young Bradley was given a preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon before Mayor Davidson. The following witnesses were summoned: Monroe Patterson, Lawrence Caywood, Charles Lower, Joe Moore and Junk

GRAND OFFICERS INSTALLED BY THE SONS OF ST. GEORGE

Dealer Joe Boyd. It was mainly upon the testimony of Boyd that Bradley was held for court, as Boyd alleged that he purchased the stolen brass from Bradley.

Although Bradley was searched when he was first placed in jail it is said that very little money was found on him by the police, although he had a considerable amount with him. This money he had concealed in his shirt waist, and the officers failed to make a thorough search of it.

TO GET $70,000,000

BLACKBURN HEIRS CONSIDERING THE PROBLEM TODAY.

Proposition of Sending an Agent to England Now Under Consideration.

The Blackburn association this afternoon is holding a meeting in rooms in the post-office building for the purpose of considering plans for the collection of the vast Blackburn estate, roughly estimated at $70,000,000. This is the first meeting the association has held for several months, the last being at Steubenville.

Since then word has been received from England that the estate could be collected and at little cost, but that the attorneys who desired to be engaged in the work desired a percentage.

The matter of sending a representative of the association to England to collect, or arrange for the collection of the estate was considered.

Among those present from out of town were F. P. Blackburn, Morgantown, Pa.; Attorney William Perry, Cadiz; Mrs. Nettie Morrow Steubenville, Ohio. Others were also present from Lisbon, Wooster, Beaver, Beaver Falls and Pittsburgh.

A SPECIAL TRAIN

Will Bring Labor Day Visitors From Sebring, Alliance And Vicinity.

Arrangements have now been completed for a special train to bring the large crowds from Sebring, Alliance, Sallineville and Irondale to this city on Labor day.

Word was received last evening from Secretary W. S. Crewson, of the Sebring committee, announcing that between 400 and 500 people were expected to attend from there, and that fully double that number would be gathered up at other points along the route.

The working people from the west who expect to come to Liverpool on Labor day will stop off at Wellsville and with the delegation from Liverpool will assist the Wellsville council with their parade. They will then accompany the Wellsville people to this city, where the remainder of the day will be spent.

JUDGE WELLS ROBBED

Pocket Picked By Pan-American Thieves Who Returned His Papers.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—Judge W. G. Wells, of Lisbon, who is attending the exposition at Buffalo, was robbed by a pickpocket in that city. The thieves took all the money from the judge's pocketbook and kindly returned papers found in it by express to this city, where the package arrived yesterday.

A few weeks ago Judge Wells was traveling in the west and at Salt Lake had $11 and valuable papers stolen.

CARS WILL SOON RUN

To Thompson Park—The Trolley Wires Now Being Strung.

Linemen of the East Liverpool Railway company have begun to string the trolley wire for the extension of the road to the new Thompson park. Superintendent Reed stated that the wires would be in position by the last of the week, and it was probable the company would be able to operate cars on the entire extension some time next week.

RELATIONS STRAINED

And Diplomatic Intercourse Between France And Turkey Broken Off.

Constantinople, Aug. 21.—(Special)—All diplomatic relations between France and Turkey were broken off this morning. Trouble over the purchase of Augas is the cause.

This City Represented on New Board by Grand Messenger Williams.

G. L. PERKINS AS PRESIDENT

Resigned the Office and J. T. Leach, of Ft. Wayne, Was Chosen.

BIG OUTING AT ROCK SPRINGS

In Progress Today—Large Delegation From Pittsburgh Present—Appointments Made By the New President. Gifts to Past Presidents.

The afternoon session of the Sons of St. George Grand lodge of Ohio was called to order promptly at 2 o'clock by Grand President Andrew Lawton, yesterday.

A short memorial service was held in honor of the late Grand Treasurer Joseph Rugill, of Akron. Brief addresses eulogizing the deceased were made by J. E. Washer, of Akron; Thomas Booth, of Youngstown; J. T. Leach, of Ft. Wayne, Ind.; T. C. Neal, of East Liverpool; J. G. Clementson, of Cleveland; James R. Angus, of Akron; Fred Stork, of Cleveland; William Butcher, of Akron, and S. W. Smith, of Canton.

The grand lodge officers for the ensuing term were then installed by Past Grand President J. E. Washer, of Akron. The report of the committee on elections showed that George L. Perkins, of Anderson, Ind., had been selected for worthy grand president, but at the last year's session of the grand lodge J. T. Leach, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., who had been elected worthy grand vice president, had been unable to attend, owing to illness, and Mr. Perkins had been selected to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Leach was present at the session yesterday afternoon and Mr. Perkins resigned the office of worthy grand president in his favor and the convention accepted his resignation. The complete list of the officers chosen and installed is as follows:

Past Grand President—Andrew Lawton, Youngstown.
Grand President—J. T. Leach, Ft. Wayne, Ind.
Grand Vice President—S. W. Smith, Canton.
Grand Secretary—Fred Stork, Cleveland.
Grand Treasurer—E. E. Ashby, Cleveland.
Grand Messenger—R. Williams, East Liverpool.
Grand Trustee—Thomas Kendall, Canton.

Chairman of Finance Committee—Andrew Lawton, Youngstown.
Chairman of Law Committee—G. F. Skeel, Cleveland.

Chairman of Appeals and Grievance Committee—R. Kirkley, Rendsville.
Representatives to Supreme Lodge—F. Skeel, Cleveland; Thomas Austin, Cleveland. Alternates, Chris Horton, East Liverpool; Andrew Lawton, Youngstown.

The chairman of each of the above committees is given the power to select the other two members of the respective committees.

The afternoon session adjourned at 6 o'clock.

The session of the convention this morning opened promptly at 9 o'clock and Grand President J. T. Leach announced that he had appointed the following officers:

Grand Assistant Secretary—Henry Thomas, Canton.
Grand Assistant Messenger—R. H. Larner, Elwood, Ind.
Grand Chaplain—T. C. Neal, East Liverpool.
Grand Outside Sentinel—F. Gallimore, East Liverpool.
Grand Inside Sentinel—H. C. Smith, East Liverpool.

The reports of the grand officers were then read, and showed the order to be in a very prosperous condition, financially and numerically.

Judge J. H. Williams, of Philadelphia, on behalf of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, made a neat speech in which he presented Past Grand President Andrew Lawton, of Youngstown, and Grand Secretary Fred Stork, of Cleveland, with beautiful past president's badges of the order. The gentlemen were surprised and responded in a fitting manner.

The balance of the morning session.

Continued on Fifth Page.

PRESENCE OF THE OFFICERS BALKED PLANS OF STRIKERS

Alleged Spy Had a Narrow Escape From Mob Violence.

EXCITEMENT AT WELLSVILLE

Union Mill Workers Tried to Wreak Vengeance on a Vandergrift Man.

WAS SCARED BUT NOT HURT

Ed Bunting and Richard Rumbaugh, for Whom Warrants Are Held By the Officers, Escape From the City. Strikers Are Greatly Encouraged.

The presence of Sheriff Noragon and Deputy Sheriff Bick at the Amalgamated headquarters in Wellsville today balked a contemplated attack on an alleged spy thought to have been sent there by the officials of the steel trust, and who left for Pittsburgh on the noon train after having been frightened half out of his wits.

About a week ago the fellow, who is about 24 years of age and inclined to be rather forward in his manners, registered at the Hotel Metropole as Harry Sproul. He claimed Pittsburgh as his home and said he was an insurance agent. The actions of the young man soon aroused the suspicions of the strikers and though he had been at different times accused of being a spy he managed to evade positive identification until today.

On one occasion Sproul engaged in a "confidential" conversation with Organizer Griffiths and while the young man believed he was "pumping" Mr. Griffiths he was himself undergoing that process and giving out information, the strikers desired. Yesterday afternoon the fellow left his hat lying for a moment in front of the hotel and one of the strikers picked it up. On the lining of the hat was printed the young man's name, while underneath appeared the name of the town so much despised by the Amalgamated men—Vandergrift, Pa.

This was sufficient to convince the strikers that Sproul was a spy and since then he has been openly accused by the men at every opportunity. He denied that he was from Vandergrift and also claimed he had never made any effort to do any spying. The strikers were tempted to make an example of the fellow, but refrained from making an attack on him, first wishing to be certain he was rightly accused.

Shortly before noon today one of the members of the Wellsville lodge who has been out of the city until this morning recognized Sproul as being a native of Vandergrift and in short order the strikers began scheming among themselves how to mete out justice. It was decided to induce the fellow to go across the river to the camp, and one of the union men had him almost induced to do so when a threat made at an unguarded moment by another striker caused him to become suspicious and change his mind.

The crowd which formed about the hotel strengthened the young man's fear for his safety and in order to escape he started for the train. The crowd surged forward, but the presence of officers held the men at bay. Sproul boarded the train without difficulty and got out of town.

Word has been received from the Amalgamated headquarters that another spy is to arrive in Wellsville tomorrow, and the strikers are preparing to give him a warm reception.

Mayor Dennis was interviewed this morning. He stated that he had sworn in about 28 men at the mill, but would not make known their names. He also said that others would be sworn in if the officials of the mill so desired, as it had been at their request that the non-union men had been deputized. The mayor stated that the threat of Judge Smith to file information against Patrick O'Connor and Harry Kirkbride, charging them with riot, had not yet been carried out, though he did not deny that it would be done later.

Ed Bunting and Richard Rumbaugh, for whom warrants are out, charging them with assault and battery, were quietly slipped out of the city last night. Rumbaugh was rescued by a gang of strikers from a house on Third street while the police were about to close in on him. It is thought the men are now in Pittsburgh.

About 15 of the Lisbon strikers, who came from that city a few days ago to work for the Ohio Valley Gas company, obtained employment on the sewer line at Wellsville and went to work this morning. They have been assured employment by the gas company as soon as the tools and other necessary equipment can be secured. William Mackintosh, who has been at work in the mill, quit yesterday.

Continued on 8th Page.

IN HIGH LIFE

WEDDING OF COMMODORE BUSCH AND MISS BOWER.

Ceremony Takes Place Today—Both Are Prominent And Well Known Here.

The wedding of Miss Helen Bower, formerly of Lisbon, now of Alliance, and Commodore George H. Busch, a millionaire society man and yacht owner of New York and Atlantic City, will take place today at the home of the bride.

Miss Bower is the daughter of D. C. Bower, formerly a Lisbon merchant, now in the same business in Alliance. She is a young lady of rare beauty and accomplishments, and is well known in this city. Commodore and Mrs. Busch will live in the east. Commodore Busch is well known in East Liverpool, having visited this city frequently. He is an intimate friend of the family of Col. John N. Taylor, and is said to have met his bride and fallen in love with her at the Sebring-Taylor wedding.

He accompanied Homer Taylor on his tour around the world a year or two ago.

SHERIFF IS SUED

COMPLICATED CASE ARISING OUT OF A BOND GIVEN HIM.

A Lisbon Team Was Sold With Litigation Pending And Cannot Now Be Found.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—A suit has been filed before Justice J. M. Dickinson, of Lisbon, against Sheriff S. D. Noragon for $45.20 by Alva Richardson, of this town. June 2 Richardson sued S. A. Morgan in Justice Riddle's court for $17.55, and also got an attachment against Morgan's two horses, wagon and harness. Morgan claimed that he had sold the team previous to the suit, but Squire Riddle decided that the sale was not valid and gave Richardson judgment for the full amount.

Morgan appealed to common pleas court, but Justice Riddle's decision was sustained. After the appeal, but before the case had been heard, Sheriff Noragon accepted a bond from Morgan and delivered the team to him. After the common pleas decision the case reverted to the justice's court and the bond held by the sheriff was invalid and he could neither get the team nor enforce the bond. The team cannot now be found by the constable, hence the suit against the sheriff, who, it is claimed, wrongfully accepted the bond from Morgan. The case will be heard tomorrow.

FIVE LIVES LOST

SECOND EXPLOSION AT CLEVELAND WATER CRIB.

A Hero of the Former Explosion Among Those Who Perished.

Cleveland, Aug. 21.—(Special)—A second explosion occurred at the water works crib last night by which five lives were lost and two men had narrow escapes, being blown out of the shaft.

The only name of those lost that is known is James J. Williams, who went to the rescue of his companions with Plummer Jones after the former disaster.

HAY IN CANTON

The Secretary Visits the President to Confer on Affairs of State.

Canton, Aug. 21.—(Special)—Secretary Hay arrived today to confer with President McKinley.

HOOKSTOWN FAIR IN FULL BLAST

No Lack of Attractions For the Numerous Visitors in Attendance.

THIS CITY REPRESENTED

By the Usual Number of Exhibits. Fine Display of Equine Stock And Some Interesting Trials of Speed Are Expected.

The eighteenth annual exhibition of the Mill Creek Valley Fair association, otherwise known as the Hookstown fair, is now in progress. As usual, it is a success.

The show was declared open at 7 o'clock yesterday morning by President H. W. Nelson. To enforce good order there is an efficient police force under direction of D. D. Pugh, assisted by "Doc" Dolby and George McDonald.

A large number of maples and poplars recently planted add much to the always beautiful location. The grass has been mown as for a huge lawn; an additional string of stables added; a grand stand to seat 1,000 persons, and a very modern judges' stand—these, together with the new floral hall, indicate effort on the part of the managers to please the public.

Entries and arrivals outnumber last year's. The press estimate of this fair's attendance for 1900 was 10,000 to 12,000.

Friends of this enterprise are elated over this year's horse exhibit. This department is under the management of David McClurg and J. B. Swaney. An exhibit of spring colts by local men form one feature; one of pure white horses bred for hearse purposes, another. Seven competitors are here in heavy draft horses; all registered Percherons and English-shires. Five competitors are entered in drivers with rigs. Class C, blooded horses, is well represented; Grossius, a half-brother of Cresceus, and 39 others form a fine feature.

Among good track performers here are Judge Cahill, Flying Simon, Major Wolfe, Kitty Price, Allison Nimms, Shadlin Wilkes, Agle Boy, Racing Reptile, Bashear, Oscar H and Biola.

A number of these horses are entered in the free-for-all trot and pace, and the green race for Wednesday. Thursday the 2:20 pace and 2:35 trot and a colt race occur. Some fast work is expected.

In other stock, and among other exhibitors, Hillock's farm has here some of its finest Jerseys; J. E. Stewart an exhibit of pure bred National Delaine merinos, and C. E. Price some fine Oxford Downs.

Floral hall is occupied by several enterprising firms of East Liverpool.

The fancy work department in this hall includes an exhibit by Miss Mary Allen, of East Liverpool, with 67 pieces entered, and Miss Ella Peters, of Harshville, 173 pieces. Others also have numerous articles listed, forming a very creditable and interesting display.

The ticket men are Frank Laughlin and Hugh Leiper. Gate men are John Laughlin, Elmer Craig, Caspar Hamilton and Robert Reed. You pass these according to custom, and near the entrance a Chinese theater having a genuine opium joint announced, meets your eye. This, the public is assured, is a high-grade moral show. A little further on is an entertainment of trained dogs. Texas Harry makes up a show in shooting. Last there is a wax work array of Passion Play figures.

Fakirs began coming in Saturday and still they come. Not until Thursday, as a rule, is the fair complete and the verdict of success goes forth from all quarters. Then, with 7,000 to 10,000 people present, business arguments, friends swarm and all resolve to come again.

Beaver valley towns are expected to furnish a large complement of visitors this season, as was the case last year. East Liverpool tradesmen and people have always been the large factors in this rural outing held under the trees.

Haines' band, of East Liverpool, was an arrival this morning.

The arrivals to take in the yearly carnival of sightseeing include Rev. and Mrs. Atwell, of Shousetown, and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lawrence, of Beaver, are at the home of Mr. Samuel Lawrence.

BARRED OUT OF THE GUARD

Jiggermen's Local Votes Not to Let Its Members Join the Militia.

WILL TRY TO DISCOURAGE

A Meeting Held By Those Who Propose to Join the New Company. Outlook for a Strong Organization Here Considered Good.

The meeting of local union No. 12, N. B. of O. P., last evening was a very important one, since several matters were up for consideration which are of more than usual interest to all working people at this time.

Since the agitation was commenced in this city several weeks ago for the organization of a company to be made a part of the Eighth regiment, O. N. G., it has been the subject of a great deal of unfavorable comment among unionists.

A number of different tradesmen have resolved to bring the matter before their unions, but the jiggermen were the first to take the step toward discouraging the militia movement here. A resolution was unanimously adopted at the meeting of No. 12 last night, which not only prohibits any of its members from connecting themselves with the proposed company, but pledges itself to endeavor to induce others to do the same.

The subject was discussed freely, and it was the opinion of all that a man could not consistently be a member of a trades union and do his duty as a militiaman.

A definite plan was adopted for contributing to the support of the Amalgamated Association, and in the future a certain sum will be paid by each member at the end of every pay.

A large number of the local unions are making arrangements to enter the contest for the prize to be awarded to the union having the largest percentage of members in line on Labor day, and No. 12 will not be far from the front rank when the award is made. At the meeting last evening arrangements were made for a part of their equipment for that day, and this will be added to from time to time until the day arrives.

INITIAL STEPS

TAKEN FOR THE FORMATION OF AN O. N. G. COMPANY.

Meeting Held of Those Interested. The Outlook Considered Good.

About 30 young men assembled in the old armory at city hall last evening for the purpose of taking the first steps toward organizing a company to represent East Liverpool in the Eighth Ohio National Guard. Besides those present there are 15 names at the command of those who are organizing the company who have signed their intention of becoming members of the new organization.

Those present were told by Lieutenant George O. Anderson of the conditions upon which the company would be admitted to the National Guard, after which others present spoke briefly. All at the meeting were in favor of having the company organized, and individual help was promised from quite a number of men toward making the company a success.

Another meeting of the company will be held on Thursday evening of next week, and at the following meeting five staff officers of the Eighth Ohio will be here to enlist and instruct the men. The prospective soldiers say the outlook is good for having a strong company here.

PECCIE BRADLEY JAILED

Taken to Lisbon to Await Trial on Charges of Burglary.

"Peggie" Bradley, charged with larceny and burglary, was taken to Lisbon this morning by Acting Chief of Police Davidson, where he will await the action of the grand jury. He was bound over yesterday afternoon in the sum of $250 bail.

Young Bradley was given a preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon before Mayor Davidson. The following witnesses were summoned: Monroe Patterson, Lawrence Caywood, Charles Lower, Joe Moore and Junk

GRAND OFFICERS INSTALLED BY THE SONS OF ST. GEORGE

Dealer Joe Boyd. It was mainly upon the testimony of Boyd that Bradley was held for court, as Boyd alleged that he purchased the stolen brass from Bradley.

Although Bradley was searched when he was first placed in jail it is said that very little money was found on him by the police, although he had a considerable amount with him. This money he had concealed in his shirt waist, and the officers failed to make a thorough search of it.

TO GET $70,000,000

BLACKBURN HEIRS CONSIDERING THE PROBLEM TODAY.

Proposition of Sending an Agent to England Now Under Consideration.

The Blackburn association this afternoon is holding a meeting in rooms in the post-office building for the purpose of considering plans for the collection of the vast Blackburn estate, roughly estimated at $70,000,000. This is the first meeting the association has held for several months, the last being at Steubenville.

Since then word has been received from England that the estate could be collected and at little cost, but that the attorneys who desired to be engaged in the work desired a percentage.

The matter of sending a representative of the association to England to collect, or arrange for the collection of the estate was considered.

Among those present from out of town were F. P. Blackburn, Morganza, Pa.; Attorney William Perry, Cadiz; Mrs. Nettie Morrow Steubenville, Ohio. Others were also present from Lisbon, Wooster, Beaver, Beaver Falls and Pittsburgh.

A SPECIAL TRAIN

Will Bring Labor Day Visitors From Sebring, Alliance And Vicinity.

Arrangements have now been completed for a special train to bring the large crowds from Sebring, Alliance, Salineville and Ironton to this city on Labor day.

Word was received last evening from Secretary W. S. Crewson, of the Sebring committee, announcing that between 400 and 500 people were expected to attend from there, and that fully double that number would be gathered up at other points along the route.

The working people from the west who expect to come to Liverpool on Labor day will stop off at Wellsville and with the delegation from Liverpool will assist the Wellsville council with their parade. They will then accompany the Wellsville people to this city, where the remainder of the day will be spent.

JUDGE WELLS ROBBED

Pocket Picked By Pan-American Thieves Who Returned His Papers.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—Judge W. G. Wells, of Lisbon, who is attending the exposition at Buffalo, was robbed by a pickpocket in that city. The thieves took all the money from the judge's pocketbook and kindly returned papers found in it by express to this city, where the package arrived yesterday.

A few weeks ago Judge Wells was traveling in the west and at Salt Lake had $11 and valuable papers stolen.

CARS WILL SOON RUN

To Thompson Park—The Trolley Wires Now Being Strung.

Linemen of the East Liverpool Railway company have begun to string the trolley wire for the extension of the road to the new Thompson park. Superintendent Reed stated that the wires would be in position by the last of the week, and it was probable the company would be able to operate cars on the entire extension some time next week.

RELATIONS STRAINED

And Diplomatic Interchange Between France And Turkey Broken Off.

Constantinople, Aug. 21.—(Special)—All diplomatic relations between France and Turkey were broken off this morning. Trouble over the purchase of quays is the cause.

This City Represented on New Board by Grand Messenger Williams.

G. L. PERKINS AS PRESIDENT

Resigned the Office and J. T. Leach, of Ft. Wayne, Was Chosen.

BIG OUTING AT ROCK SPRINGS

In Progress Today—Large Delegation From Pittsburgh Present—Appointments Made By the New President. Gifts to Past Presidents.

The afternoon session of the Sons of St. George Grand lodge of Ohio was called to order promptly at 2 o'clock by Grand President Andrew Lawton, yesterday.

A short memorial service was held in honor of the late Grand Treasurer Joseph Rugill, of Akron. Brief addresses eulogizing the deceased were made by J. E. Washer, of Akron; Thomas Booth, of Youngstown; J. T. Leach, of Ft. Wayne, Ind.; T. C. Neal, of East Liverpool; J. G. Clementson, of Cleveland; James R. Angus, of Akron; Fred Stork, of Cleveland; William Butcher, of Akron, and S. W. Smith, of Canton.

The grand lodge officers for the ensuing term were then installed by Past Grand President J. E. Washer, of Akron. The report of the committee on elections showed that George L. Perkins, of Anderson, Ind., had been selected for worthy grand president, but at the last year's session of the grand lodge J. T. Leach, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., who had been elected worthy grand vice president, had been unable to attend, owing to illness, and Mr. Perkins had been selected to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Leach was present at the session yesterday afternoon and Mr. Perkins resigned the office of worthy grand president in his favor and the convention accepted his resignation. The complete list of the officers chosen and installed is as follows:

Past Grand President—Andrew Lawton, Youngstown.

Grand President—J. T. Leach, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Grand Vice President—S. W. Smith, Canton.

Grand Secretary—Fred Stork, Cleveland.

Grand Treasurer—E. E. Ashby, Cleveland.

Grand Messenger—R. Williams, East Liverpool.

Grand Trustee—Thomas Kendall, Canton.

Chairman of Finance Committee—Andrew Lawton, Youngstown.

Chairman of Law Committee—G. F. Skeel, Cleveland.

Chairman of Appeals and Grievance Committee—R. Kirkley, Rendsville.

Representatives to Supreme Lodge—F. Skeel, Cleveland; Thomas Austin, Cleveland; Alternates, Chris Horton, East Liverpool; Andrew Lawton, Youngstown.

The chairman of each of the above committees is given the power to select the other two members of the respective committees.

The afternoon session adjourned at 6 o'clock.

The session of the convention this morning opened promptly at 9 o'clock and Grand President J. T. Leach announced that he had appointed the following officers:

Grand Assistant Secretary—Henry Thomas, Canton.

Grand Assistant Messenger—R. H. Lerner, Elwood, Ind.

Grand Chaplain—T. C. Neal, East Liverpool.

Grand Outside Sentinel—F. Gallimore, East Liverpool.

Grand Inside Sentinel—H. C. Smith, East Liverpool.

The reports of the grand officers were then read, and showed the order to be in a very prosperous condition, financially and numerically.

Judge J. H. Williams, of Philadelphia, on behalf of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, made a neat speech in which he presented Past Grand President Andrew Lawton, of Youngstown, and Grand Secretary Fred Stork, of Cleveland, with beautiful past president's badges of the order. The gentlemen were surprised and responded in a fitting manner.

The balance of the morning session.

Continued on Fifth Page.

EAST END

STREET PAVING

East End Residents Want More Improvements in That Line.

Councilman R. J. Marshall is of the opinion that several streets in the East End should be paved and before next year he may bring this matter before council. This morning the councilman made the following statement:

"It would please me very much to have Mulberry street paved, and I know that other property owners would also like to have the thoroughfares improved. After this street is paved it would not be out of the question to have Pennsylvania avenue paved from the old school house to the new bridge at Dry Run. It would take about a year to do the work. Then we should grade the road to the state line. By so doing we would have a road extending from the west end of East Liverpool almost to Smith's Ferry that would be a credit to the county and city."

AN OLD RESIDENT

Martin Elliott Celebrates the Beginning of His Sixty-Sixth Year.

Martin Elliott celebrated his sixty-sixth birthday anniversary yesterday. Last evening he went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hayes, on Erie street, where Mr. Hayes was observing his thirty-eighth birthday.

Mr. Elliott was born in 1836, and has been a resident of this section of the state for years. He was born in Pennsylvania, and when a young man came to Ohio, settling in Columbiana county. He is now one of the oldest residents of the East End district.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

E. A. Searight is visiting friends at Hookstown.

William Smith has moved into his new residence on St. George street.

Mike Kerr, of Virginia avenue, will "take in" the races at Hookstown tomorrow.

Miss Nellie Carman has returned from Fairview to her home in the East End.

The Columbiana County Telephone company this morning commenced the stringing of a number of new wires on Mulberry street.

The choir of the Second M. E. church last evening gave a lawn fete on the lawn surrounding the church. The affair was well attended.

Earl Carman, of East End, left this morning for Pittsburg, where he has taken a position as stenographer. He has recovered from his recent illness and returned from the country to the East End a few days ago.

TRI-STATE HAPPENINGS

Fire at Parkersburg, W. Va., damaged the city pumping station, and shut down the pumps for many hours.

A cloudburst at Cumberland, Md., destroyed much property and endangered the lives of several persons.

Ground was broken for the new Monessen brick, tile and terra cotta works at East Charleston, Pa.

John Faulkner, aged 45 years, was discovered dead at Alverton, Pa., having been run over there by cars.

The residence of William Gilmore, in Irwin township, near Franklin, Pa., was struck by lightning and burned.

Lawrence county, Pa., prohibitionists elected J. M. Hamilton county chairman and J. S. DuShane secretary.

Moses Bennington, aged 16, shot and killed himself near Parkersburg, W. Va., while trying to frighten a flock of sheep with a gun.

Mrs. James Boyer, of Middletown, Md., took medicine to reduce her weight. Its action could not be stopped, and she continued to fall away until death ensued.

A heavy rain storm at Butler damaged many residences, blocked railroad tracks and compelled the suspension of work at several industrial plants.

Battalion Chief S. A. Wright, of the Cleveland fire department, died from an attack of heart disease brought on by his being partly overcome by smoke at a fire.

The court ousted the West Washington, Pa., school board, which has been deadlocked for two months over the election of a principal and teachers. A new board was appointed.

A Floral Inscription.

At one time I was pastor of a village where there was a German undertaker who was always anxious to please. Because of his zeal in this direction and his habit of so often getting things backward he was the butt of a good many jokes and furnished others many a hearty laugh. One day a customer of his asked him to telegraph the florist in a nearby city to send a floral design representing "Gates Ajar." He hurried to the phone and, calling up the florist, said he wished a floral design. The florist asked what kind. He was puzzled, but not defeated, and after some delay said: "Oh, yes; now I got him! Heaven wide open; that's what they want!"—Homiletic Review.

ELEMENTS' POWER

TERRIFIED AND SHOCKED A WHOLE PICNIC PARTY.

One Young Lady Rendered Unconscious—Miss Bess Gamble, of This City, Dazed.

Steubenville, Aug. 21.—During a picnic party given by the G. G. L. club, of this city, at Altamont park Monday evening a party of 30 persons were all more or less shocked by lightning. During a scene of terror flashes of fire were seen about the room, followed by heavy peals of thunder, thoroughly frightening the crowd. The cracking noise only added terror and finally the lights went out. A moment later they came on, giving relief to the frightened crowd. Hardly had the lights been turned on the second time until a sharp flash of lightning struck the ground wire and ran into the dining room. Children who had gone to the basement for safety gave vent to their frightened feelings by screaming. At the same time Miss Mae Murphy, who was sitting near the lower end of the table, uttered a feeble cry and fell back unconscious.

Near her sat Miss Bess Gamble, her guest from East Liverpool, and she, too, was shocked, but not rendered unconscious. Miss Murphy was placed upon the floor, her hands and feet rubbed and ice applied to her head, but without any apparent effect. Miss Gamble was unable to use her feet, which seemed paralyzed, and a dozen members of the crowd received severe shocks that made it impossible for them to be of any service to those more seriously injured.

The lights were out, the rain, thunder and lightning continued, which with the cries of children made a weird scene, the flashes of lightning being the only means by which objects were distinguished in the basement. The water continued to pour from the ceiling in streams, flooding the tables and drenching the occupants, until the more seriously injured were carried to the stage of the casino, while those severely shocked but able to walk were assisted to places of comfort.

Miss Murphy is confined to her bed. Miss Gamble had nearly recovered yesterday afternoon.

WEST POINT

West Point, Aug. 21.—Mrs. Jesse Albright, of East Liverpool, has been visiting friends here for the last few days.

Horace Martin and sister Ida spent a few days with Bethel friends last week.

Arch Campbell has returned home from the west after several months' stay.

Mr. Campbell, of Youngstown, passed through here on his way to Steubenville. He was a former resident here.

Miss Grace Lowrie, of Wellsville, is visiting at the home of Charles Bough.

Robert Wallace and family, of Allegheny, visited friends and relatives here last week.

Mr. Donaldson of Scroggsfield, is canvassing this vicinity this week, selling views.

J. Y. Williams was a West Point visitor yesterday.

Cream Lane school house is being repaired.

Miss Miller, of Johnstown, is spending a few days with friends here.

Tom Huston and wife spent Sunday with relatives here.

O. F. McCurdy has received the appointment of postmaster at Campus. Sanford Fisher was in this town yesterday on business.

Misses Pearl Swan and Helen Andrews, Wellsville, spent Sunday with friends here.

Miss Nash, of Salem, is the guest of Stewart Todd this week.

Miss Eva McCormick has returned to her work in Allegheny after six weeks' stay with friends here.

The board of education of school district No. 2 is about to elect teachers for the coming winter.

Owing to rain the farmers' picnic at Township Line was poorly attended, but all are now preparing to attend the "harvest home" at Shelton's next Saturday.

Rev. Mr. Graham, of Scroggsfield, preached in an interesting manner to West Beaver folk last Sunday and Rev. Charles Swan to Madison people. Both congregations are at present without pastors.

Frank Perry and wife, of East Liverpool, worshiped at Madison church Sunday.

Mrs. Wells Rayl was here last week.

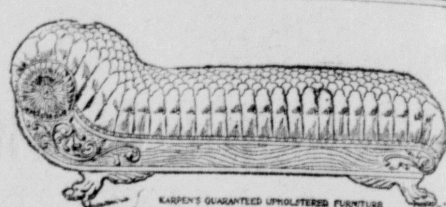

Elma Scroggs is quite ill with stomach trouble.

Toronto Trolley Line Begun.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—Active work on the new street railway from this city to Steubenville began here today. Contractor T. J. Stringer says he thinks cars will be running to Steubenville by December 1.

All New Styles

We have just received another lot of those Steel Constructed Couches that never break down or lose their bottoms.

We will trust you for the money.

ASK LEWIS BROS. ABOUT IT.

THE FOREIGN CYCLERS

Speed Disburers From Abroad and Their Good Work.

JENKINS, GASCOYNE, GROGNET.

How These Men Size Up With Their American Competitors For Championship Honors—Increase of European Money Chasers.

American cyclists have commanding leads in the various class championships now being fought for on outdoor and indoor tracks throughout the country, but they have not been having an easy task. Foreign riders that have invaded the country in large numbers are giving them a good "run for their money" and incidentally have captured a goodly portion of prizes and money.

The aptness with which European athletes took to cycle racing and the

THOMAS JEFFERSON GASCOYNE.

wonderful ability shown in matches against our own experts, trained in the land where the sport originated, have long been a subject for comment. The career of Jimmy Michael, Johnny Nelson and of other foreign crackjacks is a matter of international record, and it now appears as if other men will achieve like fame in the United States. Among the more recent addition to the ranks of transatlantic racing cyclists engaged in the merry chase for American lucer are Sydney Jenkins, England's quarter and five mile champion; Thomas Jefferson Gascoyne of England, Lucien Grognet of France and Edouard Taylore of France, who has been seen before on this side.

Sydney Jenkins, the noted English cyclist, is 27 years old and has followed the cycle racing game for the past nine years. Rather undersized in build, yet as determined as the proverbial bulldog, Jenkins has more than once proved his ability to score over bigger and apparently stronger riders. A fighter from the start to the finish, he refuses to get tired no matter how long the journey, while his ability to jump with a big gear, thereby getting away from the field, is considered extraordinary. As a slow race followed by a jump is the popular thing on the Parisian tracks the little representative of England is a great favorite at the tracks of the French capital.

Thomas Jefferson Gascoyne was born at Chesterfield, England, 24 years ago and has followed the racing path since 1893. He is the father of one child, and a wife of two years is in old England anxiously awaiting the result of his invasion on this side of the water.

At unpaced work Gascoyne possesses more than ordinary speed and has the exceptional honor of never having been beaten in a pursuit race. At the Crystal Palace track the English rider negotiated an unpaced mile in 2m. 5 2-5s, while he is the holder of the unpaced flying start quarter mile record of 25 2-5 seconds. Almost all the notable English, French and Italian riders have had to follow Gascoyne across the tape at the finish of races. Even Jacquelin, the noted Parisian, could only score over John Bull's representative three times in six races. What might be considered unusual for an unpaced rider is the fact that Gascoyne uses only a 94 gear in his work. Together with Sydney Jenkins he holds the two mile tandem championship of Great Britain.

A giant in build, Lucien Grognet, the Parisian athlete, would have made an excellent French soldier. He elected otherwise, however, and left France in the spring more to escape the army service than anything else, as he had just reached his twenty-first year and was eligible. He was wanted, in fact, as one of the defenders of France.

Tom Linton, the fellow countryman of Jimmy Michael, whose performances at times have been brilliant, was not in good condition this season, and he was compelled to go back to Wales. Linton is a speedy rider when in form, and his failure to do himself justice was regretted by his many admirers.

THE SMART WOMAN.

Her Secret Lies Not In Clothes, but In Carriage.

Good carriage is essential to style. No matter what a woman wears, if she does not carry herself alertly and gracefully her appearance is slipshod, but let her learn to stand, walk and breathe properly, and the simplest costume has an air of richness and smartness. There is no skirt made that will appear stylish on the woman who stands with the abdomen protruding, and the smartest shirt waists become a mockery over the hollow chest. These, then, are two of the most common faults in the carriage of the average woman, both the result of ignorance or carelessness, which can only be overcome by regular systematic exercise. To learn to walk and to stand correctly are duties every woman owes to herself, and they should form a part of every girl's early training, for a careless habit once formed is hard to break. Stand well and walk well, and the rest will follow, says The New Idea Woman's Magazine, which discourses of the "smart" girl as follows:

The "smart" girl takes herself seriously, as though she were a poet, and starts out with the determination to perfect herself, body and clothes.

Here, then, is her secret. She knows how to stand correctly, and she has found out that no woman who poises her body properly at the waist line can ever appear commonplace, no matter how simple her attire.

The minute a woman stands lightly on her feet, with knees straight, chest well out, stomach flat, shoulders drawn down and the body, from waist up, tilting ever so slightly forward, she has acquired at once a certain smartness of effect that no amount of beauty or fine clothes could give. A woman simply can't stand correctly and look slovenly. The "smart" girl's never shouldered or hollow chested, and, by standing properly, she breathes properly. Every full, deep breath she draws strengthens the muscles of her sides and abdomen. She is bound not to grow into a fat, ungainly woman, who can never catch her breath or a train, for a proper poise of the body means good digestion and good health.

It is probably going too far to say that a girl sets about being "smart" in order to be healthy, but it is absolutely true that she is quite likely to grow stronger because of her correct way of carrying her body.

How many women sink into a little heap the minute they sit down—shoulders drooping, chest sunken, the whole weight of the body thrown on the end of the spine. The "smart" girl sits in the same erect, alert way that she stands, and if she wishes to rest she leans back against her shoulders and not the middle of her back. In bending, whether at a desk or over a dishpan or at a dinner table, she bends from her waist, not from her shoulders, and she not only looks well, but avoids fatigue and the actual injuries that come from any strain or misplaced muscles.

Make a Banana Peel Itself.

A trick which works on a simple principle is to make a banana peel itself. To do this all that is wanted is a bottle, a ripe banana and a bit of paper wet with alcohol. Light the paper and drop it into this bottle. When the air in the bottle is well heated, set the banana on end on top and let it do the rest itself. As the air on the inside cools off and contracts the outside pressure pushes the banana down into the bottle until it has drawn itself out of its

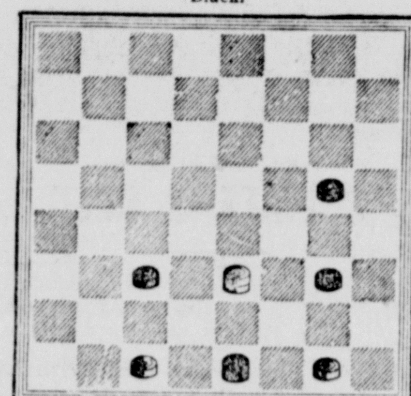

Wrestling is having another boom, but thus far only among the wrestlers themselves, the pugilistic performers having dropped from sight.

Tom Jenkins, the western claimant of championship honors in the heavy-weight class, has been challenged by four different aspirants for honors or money. Ernest Roebber, the old time wrestler, whom Jenkins easily defeated when they last met, wants to wrestle Jenkins for a wager of $2,500 or any part of that sum at Greco-Roman style. This is Roebber's best game.

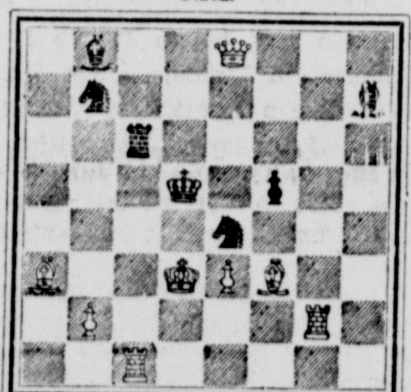

James McWeeney, the Notre Dame wrestler, who believes he can beat Jenkins, has also challenged the latter to a bout. Hjalma Lundine, who is a Swede in spite of his Syrianlike first name, has sent a challenge to Jenkins. Lundine recently defeated Tom Sharkey at wrestling, and the followers of wrestling in Worcester, Mass., will bet on Lundine.

CHECKERS AND CHESS.

Checker Problem No. 646.
Black.

White.
Black to play and win.
Chess Problem No. 646.
Black.

White.
White to play and mate in three moves.
SOLUTIONS.

Checker problem No. 645:
White.
1. 32 to 28
2. 8 to 4
3. 19 to 16
4. 10 to 7
5. 9 to 13
6. 13 to 23, and wins
Chess problem No. 645:
White.
1. Q x R4 ch
2. Kt to B6 mate

Feed Cocoon.

For each cupful allow one teaspoonful of cocoa and one teaspoonful of sugar. Mix and reduce to a paste with a little boiling water or milk. If wanted rather rich, use all milk, otherwise take equal quantities of milk and water. Stir the hot liquid gradually into the paste, strain into a saucepan and bring to the boiling point, then set aside to cool. Pour into a bottle and set close to the ice for several hours before serving. If desired frapped, put it in a can and surround with pounded ice and salt, stirring occasionally until it is as thick as mush. Serve in small cups with or without a little whipped cream.

Wanted to Forget.

Tommy—Paw, what relashun is my gran'ma to you?
Father—She's my mother-in-law, young man. Now don't remind me of her again while she is here.—Ohio State Journal.

VISIT WINONA LAKE.

An Attractive Summer Haven for Recreation, Entertainment.

Winona Lake, Ind., on the Pennsylvania Lines, is an attractive summer haven for persons who desire to combine devotion, entertainment and instruction with rest and recreation. This resort is the site of Winona Assembly and Summer School, and is annually visited by many persons who are strengthened in mind by the excellent facilities for educational work, and invigorated in body by the health-giving influences for which Winona Lake is famous. The season of 1901 will open May 15th. Commencing on that date excursion tickets with fifteen-day limit will be on sale via Pennsylvania Lines. They may be obtained during May, June, July and August. The sale of season excursion tickets will also begin May 15th and continue daily until September 14th. Excursion tickets will be good returning until September 17th. Full information about the attractions at "Beautiful Winona," its Assembly and Summer School, etc., will be cheerfully furnished all who address Mr. Sol. C. Dickey, Secretary, Winona Lake, Ind. Inquiries about excursion rates, time of trains, etc., should be addressed to Passenger and Ticket Agents of the Pennsylvania Lines, or to F. VAN DUSEN, Chief Assistant General Passenger Agent, New York.

ICE CREAM Wholesale and retail.
Get the Best.
Watch for the wagon every evening...
J. B. ROWE,
Washington St.

HOWARD H. BEAN, M. D. EYE, EAR, NOSE and THROAT.
SPECIALIST.
Cataracts removed, eyes straightened, deafness and catarrh in all forms successfully treated. Expert in fitting and adjusting SPECTACLES and EYE GLASSES. Corner Sixth Street and Diamond, EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

Now is the Time

to join the Potter's Building and Saving Co., and get the

March Dividend.

Money to Loan on first Mortgage. No delay and low rates of interest. Office corner of Fifth and Washington Street.

ABRAHAM BURLINGAME

Wucherer's Addition,

Up-to-date Carpet Cleaning, latest improved machinery. Will take up, clean and relay carpet at reasonable rates.

THOS. F. STARKEY Plumbing Co.,

131 Sheridan Ave.,

Opened for business on MONDAY, April 15. Estimate furnished on all kinds of Plumbing Work, Gas or Steam Fittings. Satisfaction and reasonable prices guaranteed. Public Patronage Solicited.

W. H. KINSEY, Manager.

BURNS &amp; McQUILKIN, LIVERY AND UNDERTAKING.

262 West Market Street. Both Phones 10

Fall Term

—BEGINS—
September 3, 1901.

Penmanship, Actual Business, Bookkeeping, Short-hand and Typewriting successfully taught at the Ohio Valley Business College,

East Liverpool, - Ohio.

Devine's Stag IS THE PLACE.

125 and 127 Second Street. Next to the C. & P. R. R. Station.

The Coffee we serve has made this Restaurant famous.

FINE STEAKS A SPECIALTY.

AN EASTERN TRIP

On Excursion Tickets over Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets to New York may be obtained at principal ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Lines, good going and returning over the Pennsylvania Lines—or going via Pennsylvania Lines and returning via the other direct lines from New York, including the routes via Buffalo with privilege of stopping over at that point to take in the Pan-American Exposition and Niagara Falls, or returning via Washington, D. C., with stop-over at that point. Full information will be furnished in reply to inquiries addressed to Ticket Agents of the Pennsylvania Lines. 13-m-w-f-td

Knights Templar Excursions to Louisville via Penna. Lines.

August 24th to 28th inclusive, excursion tickets to Louisville, Ky., account Triennial Conclave, Knights Templar, will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines; valid returning until Sept. 2d, with privilege to extend until Sept. 10th. For further information see Ticket

EAST END

STREET PAVING

East End Residents Want More Improvements in That Line.

Councilman R. J. Marshall is of the opinion that several streets in the East End should be paved and before next year he may bring this matter before council. This morning the councilman made the following statement:

"It would please me very much to have Mulberry street paved, and I know that other property owners would also like to have the thoroughfares improved. After this street is paved it would not be out of the question to have Pennsylvania avenue paved from the old school house to the new bridge at Dry Run. It would take about a year to do the work. Then we should grade the road to the state line. By so doing we would have a road extending from the west end of East Liverpool almost to Smith's Ferry that would be a credit to the county and city."

AN OLD RESIDENT

Martin Elliott Celebrates the Beginning of His Sixty-Sixth Year.

Martin Elliott celebrated his sixty-sixth birthday anniversary yesterday. Last evening he went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hayes, on Erie street, where Mr. Hayes was observing his thirty-eighth birthday.

Mr. Elliott was born in 1836, and has been a resident of this section of the state for years. He was born in Pennsylvania, and when a young man came to Ohio, settling in Columbiana county. He is now one of the oldest residents of the East End district.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

E. A. Searight is visiting friends at Hookstown.

William Smith has moved into his new residence on St. George street.

Mike Kerr, of Virginia avenue, will "take in" the races at Hookstown tomorrow.

Miss Nellie Carman has returned from Fairview to her home in the East End.

The Columbiana County Telephone company this morning commenced the stringing of a number of new wires on Mulberry street.

The choir of the Second M. E. church last evening gave a lawn fete on the lawn surrounding the church. The affair was well attended.

Earl Carman, of East End, left this morning for Pittsburg, where he has taken a position as stenographer. He has recovered from his recent illness and returned from the country to the East End a few days ago.

TRI-STATE HAPPENINGS

Fire at Parkersburg, W. Va., damaged the city pumping station, and shut down the pumps for many hours.

A cloudburst at Cumberland, Md., destroyed much property and endangered the lives of several persons.

Ground was broken for the new Monessen brick, tile and terra cotta works at East Charleroi, Pa.

John Faulkner, aged 45 years, was discovered dead at Alverton, Pa., having been run over there by cars.

The residence of William Gilmore, in Irwin township, near Franklin, Pa., was struck by lightning and burned. Lawrence county, Pa., prohibitionists elected J. M. Hamilton county chairman and J. S. DuShane secretary.

Moses Bennington, aged 16, shot and killed himself near Parkersburg, W. Va., while trying to frighten a flock of sheep with a gun.

Mrs. James Boyer, of Middletown, Md., took medicine to reduce her weight. Its action could not be stopped, and she continued to fall away until death ensued.

A heavy rain storm at Butler damaged many residences, blocked railroad tracks and compelled the suspension of work at several industrial plants.

Battalion Chief S. A. Wright, of the Cleveland fire department, died from an attack of heart disease brought on by his being partly overcome by smoke at a fire.

The court ousted the West Washington, Pa., school board, which has been deadlocked for two months over the election of a principal and teachers. A new board was appointed.

A Floral Inscription.

At one time I was pastor of a village where there was a German undertaker who was always anxious to please. Because of his zeal in this direction and his habit of so often getting things backward he was the butt of a good many jokes and furnished others many a hearty laugh. One day a customer of his asked him to telegraph the florist in a nearby city to send a floral design representing "Gates Ajar." He hurried to the phone and, calling up the florist, said he wished a floral design. The florist asked what kind. He was puzzled, not defeated, and after some delay said: "Oh, yes; now I got him! Heaven wide open; that's what they want!"—Homiletic Review.

The News Review for the news.

ELEMENTS' POWER

TERRIFIED AND SHOCKED A WHOLE PICNIC PARTY.

One Young Lady Rendered Unconscious—Miss Bess Gamble, of This City, Dazed.

Steubenville, Aug. 21.—During a picnic party given by the G. G. L. club, of this city, at Altamont park Monday evening a party of 30 persons were all more or less shocked by lightning. During a scene of terror flashes of fire were seen about the room, followed by heavy peals of thunder, thoroughly frightening the crowd. The cracking noise only added terror and finally the lights went out. A moment later they came on, giving relief to the frightened crowd. Hardly had the lights been turned on the second time until a sharp flash of lightning struck the ground wire and ran into the dining room. Children who had gone to the basement for safety gave vent to their frightened feelings by screaming. At the same time Miss Mae Murphy, who was sitting near the lower end of the table, uttered a feeble cry and fell back unconscious.

Near her sat Miss Bess Gamble, her guest from East Liverpool, and she, too, was shocked, but not rendered unconscious. Miss Murphy was placed upon the floor, her hands and feet rubbed and ice applied to her head, but without any apparent effect. Miss Gamble was unable to use her feet, which seemed paralyzed, and a dozen members of the crowd received severe shocks that made it impossible for them to be of any service to those more seriously injured.

The lights were out, the rain, thunder and lightning continued, which with the cries of children made a weird scene, the flashes of lightning being the only means by which objects were distinguished in the basement. The water continued to pour from the ceiling in streams, flooding the tables and drenching the occupants, until the more seriously injured were carried to the stage of the casino, while those severely shocked but able to walk were assisted to places of comfort.

Miss Murphy is confined to her bed. Miss Gamble had nearly recovered yesterday afternoon.

WEST POINT

West Point, Aug. 21.—Mrs. Jesse Albright, of East Liverpool, has been visiting friends here for the last few days.

Horace Martin and sister Ida spent a few days with Bethel friends last week.

Arch Campbell has returned home from the west after several months' stay.

Mr. Campbell, of Youngstown, passed through here on his way to Steubenville. He was a former resident here.

Miss Grace Lowrie, of Wellsville, is visiting at the home of Charles Bough.

Robert Wallace and family, of Allegheny, visited friends and relatives here last week.

Mr. Donaldson of Scroggsfield, is canvassing this vicinity this week, selling views.

J. Y. Williams was a West Point visitor yesterday.

Cream Lane school house is being repaired.

Miss Miller, of Johnstown, is spending a few days with friends here.

Tom Huston and wife spent Sunday with relatives here.

O. F. McCurdy has received the appointment of postmaster at Campus. Sanford Fisher was in this town yesterday on business.

Misses Pearl Swan and Helen Andrews, Wellsville, spent Sunday with friends here.

Miss Nash, of Salem, is the guest of Stewart Todd this week.

Miss Eva McCormick has returned to her work in Allegheny after six weeks' stay with friends here.

The board of education of school district No. 2 is about to elect teachers for the coming winter.

Owing to rain the farmers' picnic at Township Line was poorly attended, but all are now preparing to attend the "harvest home" at Shelton's next Saturday.

Rev. Mr. Graham, of Scroggsfield, preached in an interesting manner to West Beaver folk last Sunday and Rev. Charles Swan to Madison people. Both congregations are at present without pastors.

Frank Perry and wife, of East Liverpool, worshipped at Madison church Sunday.

Mrs. Wells Rayl was here last week.

Elma Scroggs is quite ill with stomach trouble.

Toronto Trolley Line Begun.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—Active work on the new street railway from this city to Steubenville began here today. Contractor T. J. Stringer says he thinks cars will be running to Steubenville by December 1.

HARPEN GUARANTEED COUCH

We have just received another lot of those Steel Constructed Couches that never break down or lose their bottoms.

We will trust you for the money.

ASK LEWIS BROS. ABOUT IT.

THE FOREIGN CYCLERS

Speed Disbursers From Abroad and Their Good Work.

JENKINS, GASCOYNE, GROGNET.

How These Men Size Up With Their American Competitors For Championship Honors—Increase of European Money Chasers.

American cyclists have commanding leads in the various class championships now being fought for on outdoor and indoor tracks throughout the country, but they have not been having an easy task. Foreign riders that have invaded the country in large numbers are giving them a good "run for their money" and incidentally have captured a goodly portion of prizes and money.

The aptness with which European athletes took to cycle racing and the

THOMAS JEFFERSON GASCOYNE.

wonderful ability shown in matches against our own experts, trained in the land where the sport originated, have long been a subject for comment. The career of Jimmy Michael, Johnny Nelson and of other foreign crackjacks is a matter of international record, and it now appears as if other men will achieve like fame in the United States.

Among the more recent addition to the ranks of transatlantic racing cyclists engaged in the merry chase for American lucer are Sydney Jenkins, England's quarter and five mile champion; Thomas Jefferson Gascoyne of England, Lucien Grognet of France and Edouard Taylore of France, who has been seen before on this side.

Sydney Jenkins, the noted English cyclist, is 27 years old and has followed the cycle racing game for the past nine years. Rather undersized in build, yet as determined as the proverbial bulldog, Jenkins has more than once proved his ability to score over bigger and apparently stronger riders. A fighter from the start to the finish, he refuses to get tired no matter how long the journey, while his ability to jump with a big gear, thereby getting away from the field, is considered extraordinary.

As a slow race followed by a jump is the popular thing on the Parisian tracks the little representative of England is a great favorite at the tracks of the French capital. Thomas Jefferson Gascoyne was born at Chesterfield, England, 24 years ago and has followed the racing path since 1893. He is the father of one child, and a wife of two years is in old England anxiously awaiting the result of his invasion on this side of the water.

At unpaced work Gascoyne possesses more than ordinary speed and has the exceptional honor of never having been beaten in a pursuit race. At the Crystal Palace track the English rider negotiated an unpaced mile in 2m. 5 2-5s., while he is the holder of the unpaced flying start quarter mile record of 25 2-5 seconds. Almost all the notable English, French and Italian riders have had to follow Gascoyne across the tape at the finish of races. Even Jacquelin, the noted Parisian, could only score over John Bull's representative three times in six races. What might be considered unusual for an unpaced rider is the fact that Gascoyne uses only a 94 gear in his work. Together with Sydney Jenkins he holds the two mile tandem championship of Great Britain.

A giant in build, Lucien Grognet, the Parisian athlete, would have made an excellent French soldier. He elected otherwise, however, and left France in the spring more to escape the army service than anything else, as he had just reached his twenty-first year and was eligible. He was wanted, in fact, as one of the defenders of France.

Tom Linton, the fellow countryman of Jimmy Michael, whose performances at times have been brilliant, was not in good condition this season, and he was compelled to go back to Wales. Linton is a speedy rider when in form, and his failure to do himself justice was regretted by his many admirers.

THE SMART WOMAN.

Her Secret Lies Not in Clothes, but in Carriage.

Good carriage is essential to style. No matter what a woman wears, if she does not carry herself alertly and gracefully her appearance is slipshod, but let her learn to stand, walk and breathe properly, and the simplest costume has an air of richness and smartness. There is no skirt made that will appear stylish on the woman who stands with the abdomen protruding, and the smartest shirt waists become a mockery over the hollow chest. These, then, are two of the most common faults in the carriage of the average woman, both the result of ignorance or carelessness, which can only be overcome by regular systematic exercise. To learn to walk and to stand correctly are duties every woman owes to herself, and they should form a part of every girl's early training, for a careless habit once formed is hard to break. Stand well and walk well, and the rest will follow, says The New Idea Woman's Magazine, which discourses of the "smart" girl as follows:

The "smart" girl takes herself seriously, as though she were a poet, and starts out with the determination to perfect herself, body and clothes.

Here, then, is her secret. She knows how to stand correctly, and she has found out that no woman who poises her body properly at the waist line can ever appear commonplace, no matter how simple her attire.

The minute a woman stands lightly on her feet, with knees straight, chest well out, stomach flat, shoulders drawn down and the body, from waist up, tilting ever so slightly forward, she has acquired at once a certain smartness of effect that no amount of beauty or fine clothes could give. A woman simply can't stand correctly and look slovenly. The "smart" girl is never round shouldered or hollow chested, and, by standing properly, she breathes properly. Every full, deep breath she draws strengthens the muscles of her sides and abdomen. She is bound not to grow into a fat, ungainly woman, who can never catch her breath or a train, for a proper poise of the body means good digestion and good health.

It is probably going too far to say that a girl sets about being "smart" in order to be healthy, but it is absolutely true that she is quite likely to grow stronger because of her correct way of carrying her body.

How many women sink into a little heap the minute they sit down—shoulders drooping, chest sunken, the whole weight of the body thrown on the end of the spine. The "smart" girl sits in the same erect, alert way that she stands, and if she wishes to rest she leans back against her shoulders and not the middle of her back. In bending, whether at a desk or over a dishpan or at a dinner table, she bends from her waist, not from her shoulders, and she not only looks well, but avoids fatigue and the actual injuries that come from any strain or misplaced muscles.

Make a Banana Peel Itself.

A trick which works on a simple principle is to make a banana peel itself. To do this all that is wanted is a bottle, a ripe banana and a bit of paper wet with alcohol. Light the paper and drop it into this bottle. When the air in the bottle is well heated, set the banana on end on top and let it do the rest itself. As the air on the inside cools off and contracts the outside pressure pushes the banana down into the bottle until it has drawn itself out of its skin.

Wanted to Forget. Tommy—Paw, what relashun is my gran'ma to you? Father—She's my mother-in-law, young man. Now don't remind me of her again while she is here.—Ohio State Journal.

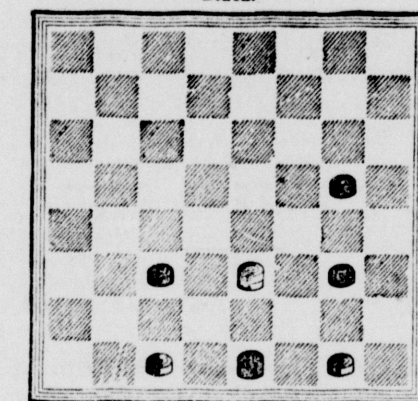

Wrestling is having another boom, but thus far only among the wrestlers themselves, the pugilistic performers having dropped from sight.

Tom Jenkins, the western claimant of championship honors in the heavy-weight class, has been challenged by four different aspirants for honors or money. Ernest Roebber, the old time wrestler, whom Jenkins easily defeated when they last met, wants to wrestle Jenkins for a wager of $2,500 or any part of that sum at Greco-Roman style. This is Roebber's best game.

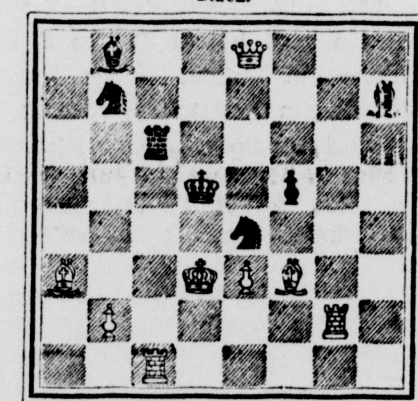

James McWeeney, the Notre Dame wrestler, who believes he can beat Jenkins, has also challenged the latter to a bout. Hjalma Lundine, who is a Swede in spite of his Syrianlike first name, has sent a challenge to Jenkins. Lundine recently defeated Tom Sharkey at wrestling, and the followers of wrestling in Worcester, Mass., will bet on Lundine.

CHECKERS AND CHESS.

Checker Problem No. 646. Black.

White. Black to play and win. Chess Problem No. 646. Black.

White to play and mate in three moves.

Checker problem No. 645:

White. 1. 32 to 28 2. 8 to 4 3. 19 to 16 4. 10 to 7 5. 9 to 13 6. 13 to 29, and wins

Chess problem No. 645:

White. 1. Q x Kt ch 2. Kt to B6 mate

Black. 1. R x Q

Feed Cocoon.

For each cupful allow one teaspoonful of cocoa and one teaspoonful of sugar. Mix and reduce to a paste with a little boiling water or milk. If wanted rather rich, use all milk, otherwise take equal quantities of milk and water. Stir the hot liquid gradually into the paste, strain into a saucepan and bring to the boiling point, then set close to cool. Pour into a bottle and set close to the ice for several hours before serving. If desired frapped, put it in a can and surround with pounded ice and salt, stirring occasionally until it is as thick as mush. Serve in small cups with or without a little whipped cream.

Wanted to Forget.

Tommy—Paw, what relashun is my gran'ma to you? Father—She's my mother-in-law, young man. Now don't remind me of her again while she is here.—Ohio State Journal.

VISIT WINONA LAKE.

An Attractive Summer Haven for Rest, Recreation, Entertainment.

Winona Lake, Ind., on the Pennsylvania Lines, is an attractive summer haven for persons who desire to combine devotion, entertainment and instruction with rest and recreation. This resort is the site of Winona Assembly and Summer School, and is annually visited by many persons who are strengthened in mind by the excellent facilities for educational work, and invigorated in body by the health-giving influences for which Winona Lake is famous. The season of 1901 will open May 15th. Commencing on that date excursion tickets with fifteen-day limit will be on sale via Pennsylvania Lines. They may be obtained during May, June, July and August. The sale of season excursion tickets will also begin May 15th and continue daily until September 14th. Excursion tickets will be good returning until September 17th. Full information about the attractions at "Beautiful Winona," its Assembly and Summer School, etc., will be cheerfully furnished at all who address Mr. Sol. C. Dickey, Secretary, Winona Lake, Ind. Inquiries about excursion rates, time of trains, etc., should be addressed to Passenger and Ticket Agents of the Pennsylvania Lines, or to F. VAN DREAN, Chief Assistant General Passenger Agent, Erie, Pa.

HARPEN GUARANTEED UNBREAKABLE FURNITURE

ICE CREAM Wholesale and retail. Get the Best. Watch for the wagon every evening... J. B. ROWE, Washington St.

HOWARD H. BEAN, M. D. EYE, EAR, NOSE and THROAT. SPECIALIST. Cataracts removed, eyes straightened, deafness and catarrh in all forms successfully treated. Expert in fitting and adjusting SPECTACLES and EYE GLASSES. Corner Sixth Street and Diamond, EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

Now is the Time to join the Potter's Building and Saving Co., and get the March Dividend. Money to Loan on first Mortgage. No delay and low rates of interest. Office corner of Fifth and Washington Street.

ABRAHAM BURLINGAME Wucherer's Addition.

Up-to-date Carpet Cleaning, latest improved machinery. Will take up, clean and relay carpet at reasonable rates.

THOS. F. STARKEY Plumbing Co., 131 Sheridan Ave.,

Opened for business on MONDAY, April 15. Estimate furnished on all kinds of Plumbing Work, Gas or Steam Fittings. Satisfaction and reasonable prices guaranteed. Public Patronage Solicited.

W. H. KINSEY, Manager.

BURNS & McQUILKIN, LIVERY AND UNDERTAKING.

262 West Market Street. Both Phones 10

Fall Term—BEGINS—September 3, 1901. Penmanship, Actual Business, Bookkeeping, Short-hand and Typewriting successfully taught at the Ohio Valley Business College, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Devine's Stag IS THE PLACE. 125 and 127 Second Street. Next to the C. & P. R. R. Station.

The Coffee we serve has made this Restaurant famous. FINE STEAKS A SPECIALTY.

AN EASTERN TRIP On Excursion Tickets over Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets to New York may be obtained at principal ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Lines, good going and returning over the Pennsylvania Lines—or going via Pennsylvania Lines and returning via the other direct lines from New York, including the routes via Buffalo with privilege of stopping over at that point to take in the Pan-American Exposition and Niagara Falls, or returning via Washington, D. C., with stop-over at that point. Full information will be furnished in reply to inquiries addressed to Ticket Agents of the Pennsylvania Lines. 15-in-w-f-d

Knights Templar Excursions to Louisville via Penna Lines.

August 24th to 28th inclusive, excursion tickets to Louisville, Ky., account Triennial Conclave, Knights Templar, will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines; valid returning until Sept. 24, with privilege to extend until Sept. 18th. For further information see Ticket Agent.

REBUKED BY KNOX

Tells Anti-Trust Leaguers It Is Not His Place to Take Sides In

PROPOSED PRIVATE LITIGATION.

Slaps at Them For Giving Letter to Press—Anyway, He Has Not Information They Request—Reply Polite—Chairman Martin Answers.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Attorney General Knox sent the following letter to the joint committee of the American Anti-Trust League and District Assembly 66, Knights of Labor, in reply to one from the committee requesting information from Mr. Knox regarding the United States Steel corporation:

Contents of Knox's Letter.

Washington, Aug. 20. Mr. H. B. Martin, Chairman Joint Committee of American Anti-Trust League, etc. Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of Aug. 19, 1901, in which you request me to obtain for you certain information with reference to certain alleged agreements or understandings made between the constituent companies and individuals who organized the United States Steel corporation. You ask me to afford you all the information that "I may possess or can obtain." And you specifically refer to an alleged "trust or syndicate agreement" which you state the president of the United States Steel corporation, Mr. C. M. Schwab, "refused to furnish" to the United States industrial commission, when on the witness stand before that body," and you further state that your request for information is to be understood as covering any "other contracts of a similar kind with which you are acquainted or which you can obtain for us."

You also state that your request for information is "founded upon information and belief that at the time this contract, or these contracts, was or were made, that I was 'in some way officially connected with the Carnegie company,' and you, therefore, assume that the information which you request must be in my 'possession or conveniently at hand.'" I am, therefore, requested to give you the substance, or, if possible, copy thereof. Primarily, permit me to say that your request is founded upon an erroneous assumption. I do not know who the individuals are who organized the United States Steel corporation. If they are the persons usually named in the newspapers as the promoters of that organization, with the single exception of Mr. C. M. Schwab, I do not know, never saw, and was never in any way connected with any of them. I never heard of any agreement between them, and the constituent members of the steel corporation.

Neither at the time of the formation of the United States Steel corporation, nor at any time, was I officially connected with the Carnegie Steel company. I was formerly one of its legal advisors in the conduct of its manufacturing business, but was never consulted with reference to the formation of the United States Steel company nor in relation to the sale of that company of the shares of stock held by the stockholders of the Carnegie company. I have never seen the papers or agreements to which you refer, nor have I been informed of their contents. I have no knowledge whatever of their existence, terms or scope. I am thus specific, as I desire to cover both the spirit and the letter of your inquiry.

Has No Access to Agreement.

I may say, moreover, that I have no access to the agreement or papers to which you refer. I know nothing of the one to which you specially refer, and do not even know that such an agreement is in existence. The information which you request, therefore, is not in my possession or "conveniently at hand," as you assume, and it is, therefore, impossible for me to comply with any of the requests set forth in your letter. All this information you could at any time have acquired through the usual method of direct personal inquiry, thereby avoiding the doubtful propriety of addressing me through the medium of an open letter, which you can currently deliver to the press.

Whether, if such papers were accessible to me, it would be my duty to obtain them and furnish them for use in legal proceedings to which you are a party, and the nature of which you do not explain, is a question which I do not care at this time to discuss.

If I may regard the letter as addressed to me officially, I will say:

If this department is under obligations to furnish information to prospective litigants in undeclosed proceedings, its responsibilities and labors are necessarily greater than they have ever been imagined from the time of its formation. Indeed, as there are generally two parties to every controversy, it would be difficult to discharge such a duty to both parties in view of conflicting interests. This department was not called into being to furnish information to private litigants. Its duty and its object is to enforce the federal statutes as interpreted by the courts wherever there is probable cause for believing that they have been violated.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) C. M. KNOX,
Attorney General.

Reply by Chairman Martin.

In reply to Attorney General Knox, issued last night, Chairman Martin, of the joint Anti-Trust League and Knights of Labor committee, says: "Does the attorney general desire to put himself in a position before the people of the United States of saying that if the papers containing the incriminating evidence of the violations of the law of the United States, which he is sworn to enforce and punish violators of, were accessible to him, it is a question whether he would furnish them for use in legal proceedings, instituted by citizens for the purpose of punishing violators of the law? And yet the attorney general intimates to us that there is a question whether, if he possessed these incriminating documents, he would use them himself or permit any one else to use them to secure the conviction of the great trust criminals, who are violating the federal statute against freedom of competition in the business world and driving competitors into bankruptcy, wiping cities off the map, crushing labor organizations with an iron hand, and instituting a reign of terror in the iron and steel industry which threatens to involve the country in a civil war."

"We will give him an opportunity now to reassure the people as to his desire and intention to enforce the law against trusts. Will Attorney General Knox offer a reward for the production of the incriminating evidence against the trusts for which we asked, and which he says he does not possess. Will he announce tomorrow that the department of justice of the United States will pay a substantial reward to any person or persons who will produce evidence that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person or corporation guilty of violating the federal statute against trusts?"

"Let him do this and institute vigorous proceedings against trust law-breakers, and the people will no longer have doubts as to his faithfulness to his oath of office. And he will no longer be the target for criticism, innuendo and invective on the part of the press, because of the fact that while the trusts ride rough shod over the people, the attorney general, who is the sole officer under the federal law, vested with authority to prosecute them, refuses to take any action."

NEGROES CREMATED.

ONE IN TEXAS AND THE OTHER IN MISSOURI.

Another Lynched in Latter State. Most Negroes Driven From Pierce City, Mo.

Dallas, Tex., Aug. 21.—A dispatch received here last night from Whitesboro, Texas, says the negro, Alfred Wilder, charged with the murder of Mrs. Caldwell, the wife of a Grayson county farmer, at her home on Saturday last, was captured by a mob and burned at Nelson's ranch, two and a half miles east of Red Ranch. Pierce City, Mo., Aug. 21.—This town of nearly 3,000 people has been in the hands of an armed mob of whites, who attempted to drive every negro from its precincts. In addition to the lynching of William Godley, accused of the wanton murder of Miss Gazelle Wild, and the shooting to death of his grandfather, French Godley, the mob cremated Peter Hampton, an aged negro, in his home, set the torch to the houses of five blacks, and with the aid of state militia rifles, stolen from the local company's arsenal, drove dozens of negroes from town. The excitement died down, the mob gradually dispersing, more from lack of negroes upon whom to wreak their hatred than from any other cause. Many of the negroes who fled the city were hiding in the surrounding woods, while others had gone greater distances in seeking safety.

Every negro left the town except a few railway porters known to be respectable, but these must also leave. The citizens of Pierce City say that as negroes have committed several crimes in the last 10 years none shall live there in the future, the same feeling already existing at Monett.

THE JAPS WERE VERY CORDIAL.

Admiral Rodgers Speaks of Their Kindness in a Report.

Washington, Aug. 21.—In a report of the unveiling of the statue commemorating the landing of Commodore Perry at Kurihama, Japan, Admiral Rodgers says in part:

On July 12 I was received in audience, together with Captains Mackenzie, Sperry, Commander Swift and my personal staff, by the emperor and by the empress. After the audience we were by direction of the emperor shown through the palace. This, I am informed, is an unusual honor, as is also the granting of an audience to a foreigner during the summer months. On the same day I also called on the princes of the royal family.

Shortly before 11 o'clock on July 14 the officers of the Japanese ships landed, followed by the American officers, and shortly afterward by a battalion and band of bluejackets from the Japanese fleet. About 500 invited guests landed from the chartered steamer Hakul Maru. At the request of Baron Kaneko, the chairman of the committee, I pulled the line that held the covering of the monument, thus exposing it to view; the battalion then presented arms, the New York fired a national salute, with the Japanese flag at the fore, and the Hatsuse fired a similar salute with the American flag at the fore.

The oldest American residents here say that there have never been before such expressions of sentiment and good will.

REQUEST FOR WITNESSES.

Hackett May Send Letter as to Interview to Howison.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The acting secretary of the navy, Mr. Hackett, had on his desk Tuesday the letter from Admiral Schley's counsel relative to a reported interview by Admiral Howison, one of the members of the court of inquiry. Beyond admitting that the letter had been received Mr. Hackett would not discuss it in any phase. It is the general expectation, however, that the letter will be forwarded to Admiral Howison, with a request for a reply. Captain Parker, one of Admiral Schley's counsel, held a brief conference with Mr. Hackett during the morning.

A formal request for a list of witnesses to be summoned by the judge advocate was made by Admiral Schley's counsel. The request will be complied with as soon as practicable.

GOMPERS HAD NOT RETURNED.

Supposed Tube Works Lodge Voted to Strike.

Washington, Aug. 21.—President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, has not yet returned from Pennsylvania, where he has been for several days, and the only information at the headquarters of the Federation concerning the strike of the Federation men at the Pennsylvania Tube works is contained in a telegram from Organizer Schwartz, saying the men were going to strike.

Under the organization of the American Federation of Labor the president has no power to order a lodge to strike. The lodge itself must take a vote on the question, and it is presumed that that has been done at the tube works.

Iowa Sailed For Panama.

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—The battleship Iowa sailed for Panama.

ALMOST A RIOT.

Foreigners Made a Demonstration at Pennsylvania Tube Works.

OFFICIALS WERE THREATENED.

Angry Mob Brandished Clubs In Front of the Company's Mill Office at Pittsburgh—Duquesne Mill May Be Closed Down, Due to Overstocking.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 21.—A riot was narrowly averted in front of the Pennsylvania Tube works in Second avenue last night. Foreign laborers, armed with clubs, who were rendered idle by the strike, made a demonstration in front of the mill entrance, menacing the mill officials and defying the police.

The Duquesne mill of the Carnegie company may close down without the necessity of a strike, owing to the overstocking of tin plate bars.

United States Steel corporation officials report gains in the number of non-union men in all of the plants now being operated.

Secretary Joseph Bishop, of the Ohio board of arbitration, has returned to Pittsburgh, and visited the Amalgamated headquarters yesterday. Count Luxberg, of the German consulate in New York, visited Amalgamated headquarters for information regarding the steel strike.

The Pennsylvania and Continental Tube works are completely closed by the strike, the last turn of men refusing to return to work yesterday morning.

ADMIT COMPANY GAINED.

Strikers Say It Will Be Different Other Points Than Cleveland.

Cleveland, Aug. 21.—District Manager Banfield, of the American Tin Plate company, said that 11 more men were at work in the Crescent tin plate works than on Monday, and that as a result three mills were being operated three turns. He added that six mills would undoubtedly be running three turns per day within a week.

The union men admit the company is gaining some here, but say it will be different at other points. They declare the company has about all the men it can get.

Strikers Must Not Loiter.

Monessen, Aug. 21.—Lattie McMahon, who was arrested for trespassing near the steel hoop mill property, was fined $10 and costs by Burgess Rinehart, Burgess Rinehart yesterday handed President David Henderson, of the Amalgamated lodge, a copy of an ordinance which prohibits any crowd from loitering around the streets near corners and empowers the authorities to arrest all who assemble in groups. The burgess said he would enforce the law strictly and would tolerate no congregating of the strikers.

WARRANTS FOR POLICEMAN.

Officers Arraigned and Held on Bail by Justice Jerome in New York.

New York, Aug. 21.—As a result of the judicial inquiry being carried on by District Attorney Philbin, Justice Jerome and the officers of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, into the conduct of the police department, warrants were issued for the arrest of Wardman Glennon, Wardman Dwyer and Sergeant Shields. All these are connected with the West of Thirtieth street, or "tenderloin," police station, and Shields was acting captain while Captain Flood was on his vacation this summer.

The warrants charge neglect of duty. Glennon and Dwyer were served with warrants. Sergeant Shields, hearing that a warrant had been issued for his arrest, surrendered himself to Justice Jerome, the warrants having been signed by that magistrate. Sergeant Shields told the reporter that he had done his duty as a police officer and that if a warrant was out for his arrest it was an outrage.

The three police officers were quickly arraigned by Justice Jerome, who held Glennon in the sum of $3,000 and the others in $2,000 each, security being at once furnished.

Thursday next was set for the preliminary examination.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Convenes at Harrisburg Today—J. O. Brown, of Pittsburgh, to Be Temporary Chairman.

Harrisburg, Aug. 21.—The Republican state convention convenes here today. City Chairman Joseph O. Brown, of Pittsburgh, will be temporary chairman. Senator William Flinn was offered the honor, but declined it. David H. Lane, of Philadelphia, will be permanent chairman.

The platform will commend the administrations of President McKinley and Governor Stone, endorse the official acts of United States Senators Quay and Penrose and commend the last legislature in so far as it redeemed party pledges.

General Frank Reader, of Easton, will be re-elected chairman of the state executive committee. Neither Senators Quay and Penrose, both of whom are on vacation, will attend the convention.

AT LEAST 35 PERISHED

IN RIVER DISASTER.

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 21.—At least 35 lives are known to have been lost when the river steamer City of Colcorda turned turtle in a wind storm while the boat was being worked into the landing at Crowells, six miles from Paducah. There were 60 persons aboard. Of these 36 are reported missing, not including several colored deckhands, whose names are unobtainable.

GUMMING OF STAMPS

HOW THIS WORK IS CARRIED ON IN WASHINGTON.

It Has Been Brought Down to an Exact Science in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing—Complicated Machinery Is Used.

Just as you see your car coming you happen to think of that unstamped letter you have been carrying around in your pocket for a week, and you sprint into a drug store, buy a stamp and try to lick it on as you rush out. It doesn't stick, however, has not been properly gummed, and as your car goes by you stand on the corner using words not found in Webster's and threatening to go down to Washington and punch somebody's head.

This, of course, is not a common occurrence, but it sometimes happens, and when it does you mustn't be too hard on the government. If there is one thing above another that the United States has tried to bring down to an exact science, it is the gumming of adhesive stamps.

Uncle Sam's postage stamps are made at the bureau of engraving and printing in Washington, and the process of gumming them is carried on in a well lighted room, 80 by 50 feet, made especially for this purpose. The stamps, after being printed, reach this room in sheets of 400 each. Women operators feed the sheets on an endless chain belt that passes under a glass gumming roller automatically coated with the exact proportion of mucilage to be received by the sheet. The endless chain belt then carries them into a covered drying box 50 feet long containing coils of steam pipes. They emerge from the other end after a journey of about one minute perfectly dry and all ready to be counted, tested and packed for shipment.

A most interesting part of this work are the precautions taken to insure uniformity in the gumming. When the workmen report for duty in the morning, they receive a series of blanks, which must be filled out during the day as the work progresses. A careful account of every ounce of gum and of every sheet of stamps given to them is kept. As scientific calculations and exhaustive experiments have determined that it takes exactly 26 pounds of liquid gum to cover 1,000 sheets of stamps, these are given the workman at a time, and it is an impossibility to neglect any sheet or dispose of the gum except to spread it with absolute uniformity.

The little vats which hang over the rollers contain delicate instruments,

STAMPS READY FOR GUMMING.

[National bureau of printing and engraving.] and a graduating scale indicates at any moment just how much gum has been used. To tell if each sheet is receiving its exact proportion of gum the foreman has only to compare the figures on the graduating scale with the strict record kept of the number of sheets gummed.

Mr. Fred J. Crocker is the expert head in charge of this division of the bureau of engraving and printing and has a scientific knowledge of this work that requires such accuracy in preparing stamps for the public. He has made a special study of handling gum for eight years and is one of the best known experts in this line in the United States.

The greatest problem to the operators in the gumming room is the moisture in the atmosphere. It is necessary to keep the room at a temperature of 80 degrees. The temperature and humidity are taken every hour and recorded on a blackboard made for that purpose.

Experiments have shown that the Mississippi valley is the worst part of the United States to furnish with stamps owing to the humidity prevailing there at all seasons. Stamps that will give satisfaction there are suitable for any part of the country.

The gum used on Uncle Sam's postage stamps is purely vegetable, and the stamp licker need not have the slightest hesitancy in applying his moistened tongue to it. The gum is derived from dextrin, a product secured in the process of making starch, and samples sent in are subjected to many tests. The qualities which the government seeks for in the gum are adhesiveness, luster, absence of grit, flexibility, resistance to humidity and color.

Increasing Its Spaciousness.

"Here's another letter from that new tenant," said the secretary.

"What's he want now?" inquired the proprietor of the Highbury apartment house.

"Says he's got to have more room in his flat. Says it'll help some if you'll let him scrape the paper off the walls."

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

Akron is plagued with winged ants. Moses Spaulding died at Ellsworth in his ninetieth year.

Hiram Sutliff, an aged resident of Hartford, O., was found dead in his chair. He was 88.

William Ray, aged 20, while felling timber in the woods in Washington county, Pa., was killed.

Joseph Harbison, a Youngstown painter, was bitten by a horse which was thought to have rabies.

The third family reunion of the Sturgeon family will be held at Morado park on Thursday, August 22.

Nightwatchman R. A. Colton, of Barborton, was beaten and kicked almost to death in a dark hallway.

The Hicksite Friends yearly meeting will be held in their meeting house at Salem, commencing August 25.

The Sharon Steel company is said to be contemplating the erection of a 20-mill plant and two additional blast furnaces.

James Whitmer was killed by a train and Harry Dixon had a narrow escape. They were struck in a buggy at a crossing at New Galilee, Pa.

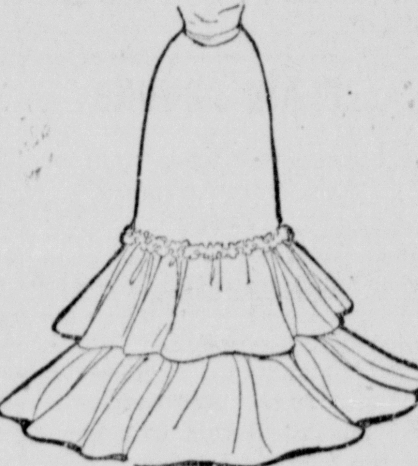

Flossie, the 7-year-old daughter of William Hamlin, of Alliance, is in a critical condition from injuries received by being struck by a bicycle, which was being rapidly ridden by Thomas Richards, Jr.

Bugs and Bugs.

The wholesale slaughter of the invaluable little ladybugs, under the impression that they are buffalo bugs, moves me to try to describe the latter so plainly that no one who reads this need make the mistake again, says a Good Housekeeping correspondent. The buffalo bug in the beetle stage is about an eighth of an inch long, much smaller and flatter than its innocent cousin. It is covered with minute black and white scales, giving it the mottled look of old fashioned chinchilla worsted, and has a narrow stripe of red down the middle of the back only. It likes the light, so you will often find it on the window casings, but in the summer it will leave the house for the garden. The tiny, shining, black carpet beetle is a little longer and narrower than the buffalo bug and an easy prey on account of its color.

Skirt For Summer Gowns.

Flounces, big and little, are becoming universal for muslins, veilings, foulards and other thin materials. The model is a particularly good one, well fitting round the hips down to the shaped volante, which can be either cut in one with the upper part and left loose or put on separately under the ruching. The under flounce is cut separately and attached to the foundation.

Pineapple Frappe.

Peel, eye and shred or grate one good sized fresh pineapple. Make a sirup with one and a half cupsful of sugar and one pint of water, boil for five minutes and cool. Add the juice of three lemons, the prepared pineapple and one quart of water. Pour into the freezer and freeze to a mush. Serve in small glasses.

Modern Man's Great Appetite.

Custom seems to have decreed that three "square" meals a day should be the allowance for the citizen of the United States and Canada, and it was looked upon as being as fixed as the laws of the Medes and Persians, but an up town restaurant man states that a great number of New Yorkers are no longer satisfied with the regulation three meals a day. Four meals are now asked for, breakfast, lunch, dinner and supper. The last is no doubt superfluous for those who can and do make three hearty meals out of the others, but there must be many who will learn with pleasure that it is no longer incumbent upon them to go "superfluous to their bed." The idea that indigestion may be caused by the introduction of the fourth meal is absurd.—Scottish American.

A Severe Attack of Diarrhoea Cured.

People are fast learning that there is but one remedy that can always be relied upon to cure diarrhoea. In speaking of the remedy E. F. Glover, a merchant of Evergreen, Va., says: "Last summer one of my customers, who was a fireman on the Norfolk & Western railway, had so severe an attack of diarrhoea that he had to leave his work. He had employed several physicians and got no relief. I sold him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and a day or two after he reported to me that he was entirely cured. I have no hesitation in guaranteeing this remedy, and I have never yet had a bottle returned." For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, druggist.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

Ever on the Alert—Alive to Every Form of Oppression—Kept on Edge. Burdened Beyond Endurance. Nerves Give Out.

The machinery of a mill that grinds day and night has to shut down now and then for repairs. It is the same way with your nerves. Overwork, close application, our ways of living, bring about nerve waste that sets up symptoms of various kinds. It may be failing strength—weakness—languor—headache—sleeplessness, etc.—whatever it is nerve force is lacking and the means of restoring rests with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. A great many people in East Liverpool vouch for this. Among them is Mr. James Peppin, of 302 Third street, East Liverpool, O., who says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets, are a fine nerve tonic. As a result of hard work I was generally debilitated—nervous and could not sleep. I needed rebuilding and found in the Nerve Pills the medicine needed. They have the power to steady and strengthen the nerves—give restful sleep and general vigor to the system at large."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

MAKE KNOWN YOUR WANTS

Inform the public of what you have For Sale, For Rent or For Exchange; what you have Lost or Found. The Cheapest and Best Way is to place a small ad. in the Favorite Home Newspaper.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW

Real Estate Offices, Drug Stores and News Stands throughout the city will supply you with cards on which to write your ad. Pay 25c for a card, write it and mail it, and

YOU WILL GET WHAT YOU WANT

Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Tim In Effect May 26, 1901. From East Liverpool. Cleveland and Pittsburgh Division.

EASTBOUND.		WESTBOUND.
No.	Time	No.	Time
292	8:55 a. m.	291	12:20 a. m.
340	6:51 a. m.	335	7:05 a. m.
339	11:21 a. m.	309	9:06 a. m.
330	3:05 p. m.	308	2:50 p. m.
316	5:40 p. m.	329	6:23 p. m.
304	7:30 p. m.	301	9:06 p. m.
302	8:25 p. m.	303	6:48 p. m.

From Chester. Pittsburgh (Pan Handle) Division.

EASTBOUND.		WESTBOUND.
No.	Time	No.	Time
250	5:52 a. m.	251	6:07 a. m.
252	8:40 a. m.	253	11:36 a. m.
254	2:27 p. m.	255	2:45 p. m.

*Runs Daily. †Daily, except Sunday.

Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 301 and 302 and Parlor Cars on Nos. 303 and 304. Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects at Rockwell with the Erie. Intermediate stations: Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashland and intermediate stations. No. 340 for Erie, Ashland and intermediate stations. No. 360 for Youngstown, Niles, Jamestown, Erie and intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 338 connect at Bayard for New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch.

For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains, apply to ADAM HILL, Passenger and Ticket Agent, East Liverpool, Ohio.

$10 Round Trip—Via Pennsylvania Lines—16 Days Limit.

On June 20th, July 5th, 18th, August 1st, 5th, 20th and September 12th, $10. Round trip tickets will be sold from East Liverpool to Atlantic City, Cape May and other prominent Seaside Resorts, good returning sixteen days including date of purchase. Trains leave 3:56 a. m., 11:21 a. m., 3:06 p. m., and 5:40 p. m., central time at Pittsburgh Union Station, with trains hauling Pullman Sleeping Cars through to Atlantic City without change. For particulars address Adam Hill, Ticket Agent, East Liverpool.

w-th-a-317

"BEST LIKED WHEN BEST KNOWN" WHAT?

The D. & C., The Coast Line to Mackinac

Spend your outing on the Great Lakes visiting Picturesque Mackinac, the hub of the inland seas, where cool breezes blow and black bass bite. Send 2c for illustrated pamphlet. Address A. A. SCHANTZ, G. P. A., DETROIT, MICH.

ONE CENT PER MILE.

To Cleveland via Penna Lines.

September 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th, for the National Entertainment G. A. R. Low fare is for the benefit of all persons who may desire to attend the first reunion held in the Twentieth Century by this grand organization, as well as for anybody who may desire to make a trip to Cleveland at cheap rates. The return limit on all excursion tickets for the occasion will include September 15th, with privilege to extend to October 8th. Ticket Agents of Pennsylvania Lines will answer inquiries on the subject. See the nearest one. ADAM HILL, Ticket Agent, 50-cent-if East Liverpool, O.

REBUKED BY KNOX.

Tells Anti-Trust Leaguers It Is Not His Place to Take Sides In

PROPOSED PRIVATE LITIGATION.

Slaps at Them For Giving Letter to Press—Anyway, He Has Not Information They Request—Reply Polite—Chairman Martin Answers.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Attorney General Knox sent the following letter to the joint committee of the American Anti-Trust League and District Assembly 66, Knights of Labor, in reply to one from the committee requesting information from Mr. Knox regarding the United States Steel corporation:

Contents of Knox's Letter.

Washington, Aug. 20. Mr. H. B. Martin, Chairman, Joint Committee of American Anti-Trust League, etc. Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of Aug. 19, 1901, in which you request me to obtain for you certain information with reference to certain alleged agreement or agreements made between the constituent companies and individuals who organized the United States Steel corporation. You ask me to afford you all the information that "I may possess or can obtain." And you specifically refer to an alleged "trust or syndicate agreement" which you state the president of the United States Steel corporation, Mr. C. M. Schwab, "refused to furnish to the United States industrial commission, when on the witness stand before that body," and you further state that your request for information is to be understood as covering any "other contracts of a similar kind with which you are acquainted or which you can obtain for us."

You also state that your request for information is "founded upon information and belief that at this time the contracts of this corporation were or were made, that was 'in some way officially connected with the Carnegie company,'" and you, therefore, assume that the information which you request must be in my "possession or conveniently at hand." I am, therefore, requested to give you the substance, or, if possible, copy thereof. Primarily, permit me to say that your request is founded upon an erroneous assumption. I do not know who the individuals are who organized the United States Steel corporation. If they are the persons usually named in the newspapers as the promoters of that organization, with the single exception of Mr. C. M. Schwab, I do not know, never saw, and was never in any way connected with any of them. I never heard of any agreement between them, and the constituent members of the steel corporation.

Neither at the time of the formation of the United States Steel corporation, nor at any time, was I officially connected with the Carnegie Steel company. I was formerly one of its legal advisers in the conduct of its manufacturing business, but was never consulted with reference to the formation of the United States Steel company nor in relation to the sale of that company of the shares of stock held by the stockholders of the Carnegie company. I have never seen the papers or agreements to which you refer, nor have I been informed of their contents. I have no knowledge whatever of their existence, terms or scope. I am thus specific, as I desire to cover both the spirit and the letter of your inquiry.

Has No Access to Agreement.

I may say, moreover, that I have no access to the agreement or papers to which you refer. I know nothing of the one to which you specifically refer, and do not even know that such an agreement is in existence. The information which you request, therefore, is not in my possession or "conveniently at hand," as you assume, and it is, therefore, impossible for me to comply with any of the requests set forth in your letter. All this information you could at any time have acquired through the usual method of direct personal inquiry, thereby avoiding the doubtful propriety of addressing me through the medium of an open letter, which you are currently delivered to the press.

Whether, if such papers were accessible to me, it would be my duty to obtain them and furnish them for use in legal proceedings to which you are a party, and the nature of which you do not explain, is a question which I do not care at this time to discuss.

If I may regard the letter as addressed to me officially I will say:

If this department is under obligations to furnish information to prospective litigants in undisclosed proceedings, its responsibilities and labors are necessarily greater than they have ever been imagined from the time of its formation. Indeed, as there are generally two parties to every controversy, it would be difficult to discharge such alleged duty to both parties in view of conflicting interests. This department was not called into being to furnish information to private litigants. Its duty and its object is to enforce the federal statute which is interpreted by the courts wherever there is probable cause for believing that they have been violated.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) P. C. KNOX,
Attorney General.

Reply by Chairman Martin.

In reply to Attorney General Knox, issued last night, Chairman Martin, of the joint Anti-Trust League and Knights of Labor committee, says: "Does the attorney general desire to put himself in a position before the people of the United States of saying that if the papers containing the incriminating evidence of the violations of the law of the United States, which he is sworn to enforce and punish violators of, were accessible to him, it is a question whether he would furnish them for use in legal proceedings, instituted by citizens for the purpose of punishing violators of the law? And yet the attorney general intimates to us that there is a question whether, if he possessed these incriminating documents, he would use them himself or permit any one else to use them to secure the conviction of the great trust criminals, who are violating the federal statute against freedom of competition in the business world and driving competitors into bankruptcy, wiping cities off the map, crushing labor organizations with an iron hand, and instituting a reign of terror in the iron and steel industry which threatens to involve the country in a civil war."

"We will give him an opportunity now to reassure the people as to his desire and intention to enforce the law against trusts. Will Attorney General Knox offer a reward for the production of the incriminating evidence against the trusts for which we asked, and which he says he does not possess. Will he announce tomorrow that the department of justice of the United States will pay a substantial reward to any person or persons who will produce evidence that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person or corporation guilty of violating the federal statute against trusts?"

"Let him do this and institute vigorous proceedings against trust law-breakers, and the people will no longer have doubts as to his faithfulness to his oath of office. And he will no longer be the target for criticism, innuendo and invective on the part of the press, because of the fact that while the trusts ride rough shod over the people, the attorney general, who is the sole officer under the federal law, vested with authority to prosecute them, refuses to take any action."

NEGROES CREMATED.

ONE IN TEXAS AND THE OTHER IN MISSOURI.

Another Lynched in Latter State. Most Negroes Driven From Pierce City, Mo.

Dallas, Tex., Aug. 21.—A dispatch received here last night from Whitesboro, Texas, says the negro, Alfred Wilder, charged with the murder of Mrs. Caldwell, the wife of a Grayson county farmer, at her home on Saturday last, was captured by a mob and burned at Nelson's ranch, two and a half miles east of Red Ranch.

Pierce City, Mo., Aug. 21.—This town of nearly 3,000 people has been in the hands of an armed mob of whites, who attempted to drive every negro from its precincts. In addition to the lynching of William Godley, accused of the wanton murder of Miss Gazelle Wild, and the shooting to death of his grandfather, French Godley, the mob cremated Peter Hampton, an aged negro, in his home, set the torch to the houses of five blacks, and with the aid of state militia rifles, stolen from the local company's arsenal, drove dozens of negroes from town. The excitement died down, the mob gradually dispersing, more from lack of negroes upon whom to wreak their hatred than from any other cause. Many of the negroes who fled the city were hiding in the surrounding woods, while others had gone greater distances in seeking safety.

Every negro left the town except a few railway porters known to be respectable, but these must also leave. The citizens of Pierce City say that as negroes have committed several crimes in the last 10 years none shall live there in the future, the same feeling already existing at Monett.

THE JAPS WERE VERY CORDIAL.

Admiral Rodgers Speaks of Their Kindness in a Report.

Washington, Aug. 21.—In a report of the unveiling of the statue commemorating the landing of Commodore Perry at Kurihama, Japan, Admiral Rodgers says in part:

On July 12 I was received in audience, together with Captains Mackenzie, Sperry, Commander Swift and my personal staff, by the emperor and by the empress. After the audience we were by direction of the emperor shown through the palace. This, I am informed, is an unusual honor, as is also the granting of an audience to a foreigner during the summer months. On the same day I also called on the prince of the royal family.

Shortly before 11 o'clock on July 14 the officers of the Japanese ships landed, followed by the American officers, and shortly afterward by a battalion and band of marines from the Japanese fleet. About 200 invited guests landed from the chartered steamer Hakata Maru. At the request of Baron Kaneko, the chairman of the committee, I put the line that held the covering of the monument, thus exposing it to view; the battalion then presented arms, the New York fired a national salute, with the Japanese flag at the fore, and the Halseus fired a similar salute with the American flag at the fore. The oldest American residents here say that there have never been before such expressions of sentiment and good will.

REQUEST FOR WITNESSES.

Hackett May Send Letter as to Interview to Howison.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The acting secretary of the navy, Mr. Hackett, had on his desk Tuesday the letter from Admiral Schley's counsel relative to a reported interview by Admiral Howison, one of the members of the court of inquiry. Beyond admitting that the letter had been received Mr. Hackett would not discuss it in any phase. It is the general expectation, however, that the letter will be forwarded to Admiral Howison, with a request for a reply. Captain Parker, one of Admiral Schley's counsel, held a brief conference with Mr. Hackett during the morning.

A formal request for a list of witnesses to be summoned by the judge advocate was made by Admiral Schley's counsel. The request will be complied with as soon as practicable.

GOMPERS HAD NOT RETURNED.

Supposed Tube Works Lodge Voted to Strike.

Washington, Aug. 21.—President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, has not yet returned from Pennsylvania, where he has been for several days, and the only information at the headquarters of the Federation concerning the strike of the Federation men at the Pennsylvania Tube works is contained in a telegram from Organizer Schwartz, saying the men were going to strike.

Under the organization of the American Federation of Labor the president has no power to order a lodge to strike. The lodge itself must take a vote on the question, and it is presumed that that has been done at the tube works.

Iowa Sailed For Panama.

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—The battleship Iowa sailed for Panama.

ALMOST A RIOT.

Foreigners Made a Demonstration at Pennsylvania Tube Works.

OFFICIALS WERE THREATENED.

Angry Mob Brandished Clubs In Front of the Company's Mill Office at Pittsburgh—Duquesne Mill May Be Closed Down, Due to Overstocking.

Pittsburg, Aug. 21.—A riot was narrowly averted in front of the Pennsylvania Tube works in Second avenue last night. Foreign laborers, armed with clubs, who were rendered idle by the strike, made a demonstration in front of the mill entrance, menacing the mill officials and defying the police.

The Duquesne mill of the Carnegie company may close down without the necessity of a strike, owing to the overstocking of tin plate bars.

United States Steel corporation officials report gains in the number of non-union men in all of the plants now being operated.

Secretary Joseph Bishop, of the Ohio board of arbitration, has returned to Pittsburgh, and visited the Amalgamated headquarters yesterday. Count Luxberg, of the German consulate in New York, visited Amalgamated headquarters for information regarding the steel strike.

The Pennsylvania and Continental Tube works are completely closed by the strike, the last turn of men refusing to return to work yesterday morning.

ADMIT COMPANY GAINED.

Strikers Say It Will Be Different Other Points Than Cleveland.

Cleveland, Aug. 21.—District Manager Banfield, of the American Tin Plate company, said that 11 more men were at work in the Crescent tin plate works than on Monday, and that as a result three mills were being operated three turns. He added that six mills would undoubtedly be running three turns per day within a week.

The union men admit the company is gaining some here, but say it will be different at other points. They declare the company has about all the men it can get.

Strikers Must Not Loiter.

Monessen, Aug. 21.—Lathie McMahon, who was arrested for trespassing near the steel hoop mill property, was fined $10 and costs by Burgess Rinehart, Burgess Rinehart yesterday handed President David Henderson, of the Amalgamated lodge, a copy of an ordinance which prohibits any crowd from loitering around the streets near corners and empowers the authorities to arrest all who assemble in groups. The burgess said he would enforce the law strictly and would tolerate no congregating of the strikers.

WARRANTS FOR POLICEMAN.

Officers Arraigned and Held on Bail by Justice Jerome in New York.

New York, Aug. 21.—As a result of the judicial inquiry being carried on by District Attorney Philbin, Justice Jerome and the officers of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, into the conduct of the police department, warrants were issued for the arrest of Wardman Glennon, Wardman Dwyer and Sergeant Shields. All these are connected with the West Thirtieth street, or "tenderloin," police station, and Shields was acting captain while Captain Flood was on his vacation this summer.

The warrants charge neglect of duty. Glennon and Dwyer were served with warrants. Sergeant Shields, hearing that a warrant had been issued for his arrest, surrendered himself to Justice Jerome, the warrants having been signed by that magistrate. Sergeant Shields told the reporter that he had done his duty as a police officer and that if a warrant was out for his arrest it was an outrage.

The three police officers were quickly arraigned by Justice Jerome, who held Glennon in the sum of $3,000 and the others in $2,000 each, security being at once furnished.

Thursday next was set for the preliminary examination.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Convenes at Harrisburg Today—J. O. Brown, of Pittsburgh, to Be Temporary Chairman.

Harrisburg, Aug. 21.—The Republican state convention convenes here today. City Chairman Joseph O. Brown, of Pittsburgh, will be temporary chairman. Senator William Flinn was offered the honor, but declined it. David H. Lane, of Philadelphia, will be permanent chairman.

The platform will commend the administrations of President McKinley and Governor Stone, endorse the official acts of United States Senators Quay and Penrose and commend the last legislature in so far as it redeemed party pledges.

General Frank Reeder, of Easton, will be re-elected chairman of the state executive committee. Neither Senators Quay and Penrose, both of whom are on vacation, will attend the convention.

AT LEAST 35 PERISHED

IN RIVER DISASTER.

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 21.—At least 35 lives are known to have been lost when the river steamer City of Colconda turned turtle in a wind storm while the boat was being worked into the landing at Crowells, six miles from Paducah. There were 60 persons aboard. Of these 36 are reported missing, not including several colored deckhands, whose names are unobtainable.

CUMMING OF STAMPS

HOW THIS WORK IS CARRIED ON IN WASHINGTON.

It Has Been Brought Down to an Exact Science in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing—Complicated Machinery Is Used.

Just as you see your car coming you happen to think of that unstamped letter you have been carrying around in your pocket for a week, and you sprint into a drug store, buy a stamp and try to lick it on as you rush out. It doesn't stick, however, has not been properly gummed, and as your car goes by you stand on the corner using words not found in Webster's and threatening to go down to Washington and punch somebody's head.

This, of course, is not a common occurrence, but it sometimes happens, and when it does you mustn't be too hard on the government. If there is one thing above another that the United States has tried to bring down to an exact science, it is the gumming of adhesive stamps.

Uncle Sam's postage stamps are made at the bureau of engraving and printing in Washington, and the process of gumming them is carried on in a well lighted room, 80 by 50 feet, made especially for this purpose. The stamps, after being printed, reach this room in sheets of 400 each. Women operators feed the sheets on an endless chain belt that passes under a glass gumming roller automatically coated with the exact proportion of mucilage to be received by the sheet. The endless chain belt then carries them into a covered drying box 50 feet long containing coils of steam pipes. They emerge from the other end after a journey of about one minute perfectly dry and all ready to be counted, tested and packed for shipment.

A most interesting part of this work are the precautions taken to insure uniformity in the gumming. When the workmen report for duty in the morning, they receive a series of blanks, which must be filled out during the day as the work progresses. A careful account of every ounce of gum and of every sheet of stamps given to them is kept. As scientific calculations and exhaustive experiments have determined that it takes exactly 26 pounds of liquid gum to cover 1,000 sheets of stamps, these are given the workman at a time, and it is an impossibility to neglect any sheet or dispose of the gum except to spread it with absolute uniformity.

The little vats which hang over the rollers contain delicate instruments,

STAMPS READY FOR GUMMING.

[National bureau of printing and engraving.] and a graduating scale indicates at any moment just how much gum has been used. To tell if each sheet is receiving its exact proportion of gum the foreman has only to compare the figures on the graduating scale with the strict record kept of the number of sheets gummed.

Mr. Fred J. Crocker is the expert head in charge of this division of the bureau of engraving and printing and has a scientific knowledge of this work that requires such accuracy in preparing stamps for the public. He has made a special study of handling gum for eight years and is one of the best known experts in this line in the United States.

The greatest problem to the operators in the gumming room is the moisture in the atmosphere. It is necessary to keep the room at a temperature of 80 degrees. The temperature and humidity are taken every hour and recorded on a blackboard made for that purpose.

Experiments have shown that the Mississippi valley is the worst part of the United States to furnish with stamps owing to the humidity prevailing there at all seasons. Stamps that will give satisfaction there are suitable for any part of the country.

The gum used on Uncle Sam's postage stamps is purely vegetable, and the stamp sticker need not have the slightest hesitancy in applying his moistened tongue to it. The gum is derived from dextrin, a product secured in the process of making starch, and samples sent in are subjected to many tests. The qualities which the government seeks for in the gum are adhesiveness, luster, absence of grit, flexibility, resistance to humidity and color.

Increasing Its Spaciousness.

"Here's another letter from that new tenant," said the secretary.

"What's he want now?" inquired the proprietor of the Highpup apartment house.

"Says he's got to have more room in his flat. Says it'll help some if you'll let him scrape the paper off the walls."

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

Akron is plagued with winged ants.

Moses Spaulding died at Ellsworth in his ninetyeth year.

Hiram Sutliff, an aged resident of Hartford, O., was found dead in his chair. He was 88.

William Ray, aged 20, while felling timber in the woods in Washington county, Pa., was killed.

Joseph Harbison, a Youngstown painter, was bitten by a horse which was thought to have rabies.

The third family reunion of the Sturgeon family will be held at Morado park on Thursday, August 22.

Nightwatchman R. A. Colton, of Barberton, was beaten and kicked almost to death in a dark hallway.

The Hicksite Friends yearly meeting will be held in their meeting house at Salem, commencing August 25.

The Sharon Steel company is said to be contemplating the erection of a 20-mill plant and two additional blast furnaces.

James Whitmer was killed by a train and Harry Dixon had a narrow escape. They were struck in a buggy at a crossing at New Galilee, Pa.

Flossie, the 7-year-old daughter of William Hamlin, of Alliance, is in a critical condition from injuries received by being struck by a bicycle, which was being rapidly ridden by Thomas Richards, Jr.

Bugs and Bugs.

The wholesale slaughter of the invaluable little ladybugs, under the impression that they are buffalo bugs, moves me to try to describe the latter so plainly that no one who reads this need make the mistake again, says a Good Housekeeping correspondent. The buffalo bug in the beetle stage is about an eighth of an inch long, much smaller and flatter than its innocent cousin. It is covered with minute black and white scales, giving it the mottled look of old fashioned chinchilla worsted, and has a narrow stripe of red down the middle of the back only. It likes the light, so you will often find it on the window casings, but in the summer it will leave the house for the garden. The tiny, shining, black carpet beetle is a little longer and narrower than the buffalo bug and an easy prey on account of its color.

Skirt For Summer Gowns.

Flounces, big and little, are becoming universal for muslins, velvings, foulards and other thin materials. The model is a particularly good one, well fitting round the hips down to the shaped volante, which can be either cut in one with the upper part and left loose or put on separately under the rucking. The under flounce is cut separately and attached to the foundation.

FLOUNCED SKIRT FOR THIN MATERIALS.

Pineapple Frappe.

Peel, eye and shred or grate one good sized fresh pineapple. Make a sirup with one and a half cupsful of sugar and one pint of water, boil for five minutes and cool. Add the juice of three lemons, the prepared pineapple and one quart of water. Pour into the freezer and freeze to a mush. Serve in small glasses.

Modern Man's Great Appetite.

Custom seems to have decreed that three "square" meals a day should be the allowance for the citizen of the United States and Canada, and it was looked upon as being as fixed as the laws of the Medes and Persians, but an up town restaurant man states that a great number of New Yorkers are no longer satisfied with the regulation three meals a day. Four meals are now asked for, breakfast, lunch, dinner and supper. The last is no doubt superfluous for those who can and do make three hearty meals out of the others, but there must be many who will learn with pleasure that it is no longer incumbent upon them to go "superfluous to their bed." The idea that indigestion may be caused by the introduction of the fourth meal is absurd.—Scottish American.

A Severe Attack of Diarrhoea Cured.

People are fast learning that there is but one remedy that can always be relied upon to cure diarrhoea. In speaking of the remedy E. F. Glover, a merchant of Evergreen, Va., says: "Last summer one of my customers, who was a fireman on the Norfolk & Western railway, had so severe an attack of diarrhoea that he had to leave his work. He had employed several physicians and got no relief. I sold him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and a day or two after he reported to me that he was entirely cured. I have no hesitation in guaranteeing this remedy, and I have never yet had a bottle returned." For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, druggist.

WATCH DOGS

Ever on the Alert—Alive to Every Form of Oppression—Kept on Edge. Burdened Beyond Endurance. Nerves Give Out.

The machinery of a mill that grinds day and night has to shut down now and then for repairs. It is the same way with your nerves. Overwork, close application, our ways of living, bring about nerve waste that sets up symptoms of various kinds. It may be failing strength—weakness—languor—headache—sleeplessness, etc.—whatever it is nerve force is lacking and the means of restoring rests with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. A great many people in East Liverpool vouch for this. Among them is Mr. James Peppin, of 302 Third street, East Liverpool, O., who says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets, are a fine nerve tonic. As a result of hard work I was generally debilitated—nervous and could not sleep. I needed rebuilding and found in the Nerve Pills the medicine needed. They have the power to steady and strengthen the nerves—give restful sleep and general vigor to the system at large."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

MAKE KNOWN YOUR WANTS

INFORM the public of what you have for Sale, For Rent or For Exchange; what you have Lost or Found. The Cheapest and Best Way is to place a small ad. in the Favorite Home Newspaper.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW

Real Estate Offices, Drug Stores and News Stands throughout the city will supply you with cards on which to write your ad. Pay 25c for a card, write it and mail it, and

YOU WILL GET WHAT YOU WANT

Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Tim In Effect May 26, 1901. From East Liverpool. Cleveland and Pittsburgh Division.

EASTBOUND.		WESTBOUND.
No.	Time.	No.	Time.
302	8:56 a. m.	301	12:30 a. m.
340	6:51 a. m.	339	7:05 a. m.
326	11:21 a. m.	309	9:06 a. m.
330	3:06 p. m.	323	2:50 p. m.
336	5:40 p. m.	322	6:23 p. m.
304	7:30 p. m.	331	9:06 a. m.
302	5:25 p. m.	333	6:48 p. m.

From Chester. Pittsburgh (Pan Handle) Division.

EASTBOUND.		WESTBOUND.
No.	Time.	No.	Time.
320	5:52 a. m.	351	6:07 a. m.
322	8:40 a. m.	353	11:35 a. m.
354	2:37 p. m.	325	2:45 p. m.

Runs Daily. Daily, except Sunday.

Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 301 and 302 and Parlor Cars on Nos. 339 and 340 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 339 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashabula and Intermediate stations; No. 340 for Erie, Ashabula and Intermediate stations; No. 301 for Youngstown, Niles, Jamestown, Erie and Intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 338 connect at Bayard to New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch.

For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains, apply to ADAM HILL, Passenger and Ticket Agent, East Liverpool, Ohio.

#10 Round Trip—Via Pennsylvania Lines—16 Days Limit.

On June 20th, July 5th, 18th, August 1st, 5th, 20th and September 12th, $10. Round trip tickets will be sold from East Liverpool to Atlantic City, Cape May and other prominent Seaside Resorts, good returning sixteen days including date of purchase. Trains leave 3:56 a. m., 11:21 a. m., 3:06 p. m., and 5:40 p. m., central time at Pittsburgh Union Station with trains hauling Pullman Sleeping Cars through to Atlantic City without change. For particulars address Adam Hill, Ticket Agent, East Liverpool, Ohio. w-th-8-317

"BEST LIKED WHEN BEST KNOWN" WHAT?

The D. & C., The Coast Line to Mackinac

Spend your outing on the Great Lakes visiting Picturesque Mackinac, the hub of the inland seas, where cool breezes blow and black bass bite. Send 2c for illustrated pamphlet. Address

A. A. SCHANTZ, G. P. A., DETROIT, MICH.

ONE CENT PER MILE.

To Cleveland via Penna. Lines.

September 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th, for the National Encampment G. A. R. Low fare is for the benefit of all persons who may desire to attend the first reunion held in the Twentieth Century by this grand organization, as well as for anybody who may desire to make a trip to Cleveland at cheap rates. The return limit on all excursion tickets for the occasion will include September 15th, with privilege to extend to October 8th. Ticket Agents of Pennsylvania Lines will answer inquiries on the subject. See the nearest one. ADAM HILL, Ticket Agent, East Liverpool, O. See ad if

The News Review

Published Daily Except Sunday by
THE EAST LIVERPOOL PUBLISHING COMPANY
LOUIS H. BRUSH, Manager.
The News Review, Daily, established 1884.
By mail, one year, $5.00; six months, $3.00;
three months, $1.75; by carrier, $5.00; ten
cents per week.
The Saturday Review, Weekly, established
1879. By mail, one year, $1.00 in advance six months, 50 cents; three months, 25
cents.
Official Papers of the city of East Liverpool
and Columbiana County.

OFFICE 196 WASHINGTON STREET.
Bell Telephone.
Business Office.....No. 122
Editorial Room.....No. 122
Columbiana County Telephone.
Business Office.....No. 12
Editorial Room.....No. 34

Sworn circulation, August 1, 1901,
ONE THOUSAND SEVEN HUN-DRED AND SEVENTY-FIVE copies
daily.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 21, 1901.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR STATE OFFICERS:
Governor—GEORGE K. NASH.
Lieutenant Governor—CARL NIPPERT.
Judge of Supreme Court—JAMES L. PRICE.
Attorney General—JOHN M. SHEETS.
Clerk of Supreme Court—LAWSON E. EM-
ERSON.
State Treasurer—ISAAC B. CAMERON.
Member Board of Public Works—W. G.
JOHNSON.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT.
Common Pleas Judge—H. W. HARTER.
State Senator—FRANK B. ARCHER.
State Senator—CHARLES C. CONNELL.
Representative—SAMUEL BUELL.
Representative—D. W. CRIST.
Sheriff—SAMUEL D. NORAGON.
Auditor—J. F. ADAMS.
Treasurer—W. A. THOMPSON.
Commissioner—EDEN REEDER.
Infirmary Director—G. W. ARMSTRONG.

SUBSCRIBERS WHO ARE GOING AWAY FOR THE SUMMER MONTHS
CAN HAVE THE EVENING NEWS
REVIEW SENT TO THEM BY NO-TIFYING THIS OFFICE OF THEIR
OUT-OF-TOWN ADDRESS, EITHER
BY TELEPHONE OR POSTAL CARD,
FOR 10 CENTS A WEEK CHANGE
OF ADDRESS MAY BE MADE AS OF-
TEN AS DESIRED. WHEN A CHANGE IS ORDERED BOTH THE
OLD AS WELL AS THE NEW AD-DRESS SHOULD BE GIVEN.

HOOKSTOWN IS HAPPY.

Hookstown is happy. Far from the madding crowd, her idyllic serenity
and her soporific shades are seldom disturbed by any noise louder than
the peeping of frogs, the chirping of crickets or the crowing of chanticleers. But now, as happens each approaching autumn, the blare of the brass band, the shouts of the tent
showman, the voice of the fakir and crowds and excitement hold sway in the village, and its streets—if they were not so deeply grass-grown—would echo to the tread of moving thousands.

Hookstown now gets her name in the papers and for three days is a part of the busy, bustling, pleasure-seeking world. The great annual fair is on, and the inhabitants of the town
are drinking deep of the only draught
of dissipation they allow themselves
during the whole year. Next week, Hookstown will sink into its customary somnolent condition; but this week will furnish abundant material
for it to talk about and think about—
in its waking hours—for the next twelve months.

There are those who tell us that the country fair is out of date, has lost its popularity and is no longer
able to gain patronage or success.
Those who talk this way have never seen Hookstown or formed the acquaintance of its fair management.
There the annual agricultural exhibition flourishes and is in its pristine glory. Hookstown may be unworldly in some things and not as skilled in conducting great enterprises as New York or Chicago, but her people can manage a fair to perfection. Age cannot wither nor custom stale the infinite variety of the arts they employ
to please when they turn amusement caterers. Long may they and
the town's one great institution thrive!

TRUSTS IN EUROPE.

Prof. J. W. Jenks, of the United States industrial commission, has been collecting data regarding the operation of trusts in Europe. His report furnishes convincing proof that the Democratic dictum that "the tariff
is the mother of trusts" does not hold good either abroad or at home. Vast combinations of capital live and thrive
in free-trade England, as they have done for years, and their number is being augmented constantly. European governments have the trusts so controlled that their people do not fear them. There is no inclination to pass laws to kill combinations. But laws to regulate their conduct have
been enacted and the trusts are under such close official scrutiny that their power for harm is reduced to a minimum. Prof. Jenks' report will furnish many important points which congress should carefully consider when it attempts further legislation

on the subject.

BRYAN'S LATEST TURN-DOWN.

Out in Omaha William J. Bryan was invited to speak at a Democratic blow-out to occur September 7. After he had accepted, he was asked to sign
an invitation to David B. Hill to be present. This he refused to do. It was then resolved to invite Hill, any-
way. If he comes Bryan will probably stay away. The action of his former friends and supporters in the former stronghold of his greatness in ignoring the wishes of the great Nebraskan and flattering his political rival must be particularly galling to the twice defeated presidential aspirant.
But it is pretty strong evidence that William J. has lost his grip.

By wireless telegraphy or by special wire, Josiah Carnow, of Omaha, has received a message that, in newspaper parlance, is a scoop. It tells Josiah
that the world is coming to an end
September 13. After that date Josiah will wish he had not made known the contents of the message.

An Indiana street railway tried the experiment of hiring women as conductors. The result is thus summed up: "It soon happened that patronage fell away until a car contained only one passenger, and he was talking to the conductor."

More lynchings and burnings in the south. Pitchfork Tillman is probably happy over the results that follow his preaching of the gospel of anarchy
and disobedience of all law, human and divine.

Some Democrats are suggesting
Grover Cleveland for a third term.
The matter is not likely to advance
beyond the suggestion stage.

OBITUARY.

Hugh McDiarmid.
Wellsburg, W. Va., Aug. 21.—Hugh
McDiarmid, professor of Bible study
at Hiram college, Hiram, O., and ex-
president of Bethany college, is dead, aged 55. He leaves a wife and five children.

PLAIN DRUNKS

The Offenses for Which Jail Prisons Were Arraigned
Today.

Business in the court of Mayor Davidson continues brisk. George Brown,
well known, was found overcome last night. Officer Dawson had him carted off to jail and this morning Brown was fined $5.00. Not having a sufficient amount of coin with him he is still the guest of the city.

S. Smith, who carries with him a bundle of old umbrellas and a small grip, claiming to be an umbrella mender, was another victim gathered in by Officer Dawson. Of course he had no money and as his chances for raising a fine were slim he was drummed out of town. He went away
vowing never to come here again.

"A. Banker" was the name upon a police slip filled out by Detective
Woods last evening. "A. Banker"
was drunk, and wandered into the Diamond Hardware store, accidentally broke a show case glass. He was able to put up security for his appearance
today.

Michael Sullivan was gathered in this morning by Officer Woods, but as he was too drunk at the time of the hearings, he was allowed to rest
until this afternoon.

Mrs. Rachel Walker was allowed to depart in peace from the city hall jail
yesterday afternoon. Her husband came around and paid her fine, $5.00.

TWO MORE WELLS

To Be Put Down Near the Big Gasser
at Petersburg, Mahoning County.

Lisbon, Aug. 21. — (Special)—The Indian Branch Oil and Gas company has decided to put down two more
wells in its territory, instead of one,
as first intended.

The gasser which came in recently is gaining in pressure every day, and now shows 180 pounds, the gauge's
limit.

The new wells will be located 22
miles from Lisbon, near Petersburg,
Mahoning county. D. M. Mathewson,
a stockholder of this city, returned
last night from the field highly pleased with the prospects.

Announcement. TO THE VOTERS OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY:

I take this opportunity of informing you that I am a candidate for the Legislature, to be voted for at the November election. If you are in favor of liberal laws and honest legislation, with charity towards all and antimosity to none, I sincerely solicit your vote.
J. C. WALSH,
East Liverpool, O.
26 tf

Try a News Review want ad.

GLEANINGS
of
the Day
—In and about the—Local POTTERIES.

The work of placing in position a new saucer jigger at the William Brunt pottery was completed yesterday afternoon and Ed Roberts took charge of the jigger this morning.
This is the third new jigger to be erected at that plant in the past five months, and more ware is now being turned out than ever before in the history of the plant.

James Blazer has resigned his position as jiggerman at the Salem China company plant, Salem, and has returned to this city. He has accepted a similar place at Laughlin No. 2.

For the past two weeks the jiggermen at the Brunt pottery have only been working about half time on account of the firm being unable to secure kilnhands.

The glost girls at the American
China company's plant, Toronto, are working overtime to keep up with the orders coming in.

Joseph Andrews has resigned his position as cup jiggerman at Brunt's and has taken a saucer jigger at the same plant.

John Demmerling has accepted a position with the Salem China company, Salem.

Frank Jackson has accepted a position in the packing shed at Brunt's.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS

Those Which Await an Owner at the Postoffice in This City.

List of letters remaining in the postoffice at East Liverpool, O., for the week ending August 20, 1901:

Gentlemen's List—Armstrong & Co.,
J. Barber, John Boyd, F. E. Brown,
Walter Burrows, J. M. Carr, Davidson
Cochran, Garfield Cunningham, J. H.
Evans, Will T. Freeman, Chas. Gegg-
le (2), John Grum, A. W. Haverly, Seymour Heckathorn, James Heyden-
rick, Harry Huston, Mr. Kirkwood,
Willis Larkins, James G. Wilson, Sig.
Bichenstuhl, Wm. Louns, Al Martin,
W. C. McClelland, Dr. W. M. Miller,
J. E. Newman, Chas. Penney, J. W.
Rose, Mr. Sailing, Scott Schireley,
B. F. Stevenson, W. G. Taylor, Tem-
pest, Brockman & Co., Ira Thompson,
Albert Thompson, George Thompson,
H. B. Todd, Rob't Webber.

Ladies' List—Mrs. Sam Burkette,
Miss Helen Buchagen, Mrs. Ora Duncan, Miss Em Edwards, Miss Dell Fin-
negan, Miss Rachel Griffin, Miss L.
Harker, Miss Birdie Johnston, Mrs.
Fannie Leigh, Minnie Marshall, Miss
Nettie McCullough, Mrs. Grace Morgan, Mrs. Ella Mohn, Mrs. Louise Pratt, Mrs. Elizabeth Roth, Miss Kate
Snider.

REAL ESTATE SALES

Transfers Recorded Include One to the Crockery City Brewery
for $3,800.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—Real estate transfers have been recorded
as follows:

Riverview Land company to Chas.
C. Gipner, lot 4920 in Grandview addition to East Liverpool; $95.
A. G. Chaffin and wife to Barbara Demmerling, lot in Liverpool township; $175.
William Mercer and wife to Mary
E. Gamble, lot 30, East Liverpool;
$600.

Sarah A. Hamill to the Crockery
City Brewing and Ice company, part of lots 746 and 747; $5,800.

NON-UNION STOGIES

Said to Have Been Foisted on the Wellsville Dealers As Union Made.

A. L. Byers, a representative of the Pittsburg cigar makers' union, was in Wellsville yesterday in the interest of the organization. He claims that an East Liverpool stogie maker, who was recently discharged from the union, has been selling his goods in Wellsville and wrongfully using the union label. The dealers have all been notified of the matter.

Notice.
All ground layers, gilders and liners are requested to meet in Knights of Columbus hall, Foutts' building,
corner Fifth and Market streets, August 22 at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of organizing. By order of 56-r COMMITTEE.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

John Manor is visiting at Alliance.
Miss D. Hayes is visiting at Alliance.

Mrs. John Ecker is visiting at Allegheny.

J. F. McGarry is spending a few days in Pittsburg.

Miss Anna McLaughlin has returned from a visit at Pittsburg.

William Colley was a Salineville
business visitor yesterday.

Mrs. J. J. Rose has returned from a visit of two weeks at Avalon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. King have returned from a visit at Bellaire.

Mrs. Charles Pilgrim has left for a visit with her parents at Akron.

Henry Brunt left yesterday afternoon for a visit at Detroit and Mackinac.

Miss Martha C. Porter has left for a visit at Cleveland, Detroit and Milwaukee.

William Hannum has returned to his home at Salineville, after a visit in the city.

Miss May Adams has returned to Salineville after a visit with her mother here.

Miss Josephine Crook, of Lisbon, is in the city, the guest of Miss Agnes Burford, Fourth street.

Mrs. Sarah Campbell and two children left this morning for a visit with relatives at Bellaire.

George Ashbaugh and daughter
Ada, of Pleasant Heights, have gone
to Buffalo for a two weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Geer, of Allegheny, are guests at the home of Mr.
and Mrs. A. W. Scott, of Walnut street.

Thomas Wyllie has returned from Pittsburg, where he has been employed by the Western Union Telegraph company.

Eli Lewis has returned to his home
at Hartford, W. Va., after a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Campbell,
Sheridan avenue.

Mrs. Charles Jennings left this morning for Alliance, where she this afternoon attended the wedding of her sister, Miss Tobin.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Weaver and children have returned to their home in Alliance, after a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H.
Weaver, Oak street.

Arthur Campbell, who has been acting as baggage agent at Mingo Junction for the past two weeks, returned to the city yesterday afternoon. He resumed his duties at the local passenger station this morning.

Dr. Hunter, of Noble county, O., is spending a few days in the city, the guest of Justice J. N. Rose. He is here for the purpose of securing a location. Dr. Hunter is the son of Dr.
Hunter, the famous preacher and poet.

NATIONAL GAMES YESTERDAY.

Brooklyn, 4; Philadelphia, 1—First game.

Brooklyn, 3; Philadelphia, 2—Second game.

New York, 3; Boston, 0—11 innings.

Pittsburg, 14; St. Louis, 2.
Chicago-Cincinnati, rain.

National Standing.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburg	57	36	.613
Philadelphia	52	42	.576
Brooklyn	56	44	.560
St. Louis	56	46	.549
Boston	47	51	.480
Cincinnati	40	55	.421
New York	39	54	.419
Chicago	39	63	.382

American Games Yesterday.

Boston, 6; Milwaukee, 0.

Cleveland, 7; Philadelphia, 3.

Detroit, 5; Baltimore, 2.

Chicago, 9; Washington, 3.

American Standing.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Chicago	61	39	.610
Boston	59	40	.596
Baltimore	54	41	.568
Detroit	53	47	.539
Philadelphia	50	49	.505
Cleveland	41	54	.432
Washington	40	55	.421
Milwaukee	35	67	.343

Western Games Saturday.

Wheeling, 3; Grand Rapids, 9.

Fort Wayne, 9; Muncie, 2.

Toledo, 1; Dayton, 3.

Western Standing.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Toledo	59	43	.578
Grand Rapids	60	47	.561
Dayton	54	47	.535
Fort Wayne	59	52	.532
Muncie	53	56	.486
Wheeling	49	52	.485
Marion	46	58	.442
Columbus	42	66	.389

Schwab Not to Resign.

New York, Aug. 21.—From an authoritative source the Associated Press is enabled to deny the report that Charles M. Schwab is to resign
the presidency of the United States
Steel corporation.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS.

THE regular examination of teachers will be held at the Fourth street school
building,
Tuesday, Aug. 27th,
commencing at eight
o'clock, a. m.
By order of
BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

Clearance Sale

—OF—

BENDHEIM'S

What it Means.

It means that you can buy men's $3.50, $4 and $5 tan shoes
at $2.90

This includes the famous Walk-Over Shoes.

It means that you can buy little gents' $1.25 tan, spring
heel Shoes at 85c

It means that you can buy women's $3.50 and $4 Vici Kid and Patent Leather Shoes with extension soles at $2.30

It means that you can buy children's $1.50 lace and button
Shoes at 98c.

It means that you can buy men's $3.50 Patent Leather
Shoes at $2.90

It means that you can buy men's tan Walk-Over Oxford
Ties at $2.50

It means that you can buy children's 75c and 85c tan Shoes
at 50c

It means that you can buy women's $2.50 Patent Leather
Shoes at $1.98

It means that you can buy women's $3.50 Ideal Patent Kid
Shoes at $2.69

Bendheim's

Eye Doctor's Examination Free!

The Children's Eyes—
Neglect your own if you will,
delay and suffer if you please,
but DON'T neglect the eyes of the little ones. Don't open
the way for a life of eye misery. Money no longer a bar—
you may have the examination, the advice of a graduate physician with long experience, and superior skill as an Eye Specialist, and not one penny to pay. Come any day.
Oldest House in the city.
Optician. Quick Repairing.

J. M. McKINNEY.

Avoid Trouble

By purchasing your Perfumes, Tooth Brushes and Toilet Goods of CRAIG, who refunds your money on any and all
goods misrepresented.
Have you tried the new perfume "THELMA."
CHAS. F. CRAIG, Druggist, Cor. 5th and Market.

Diamonds. Diamonds. Diamonds.

W E now have a large assortment of—fine
brilliant—White, perfect Diamonds from the smallest to quite large sizes.

Call and Examine Our line. We are willing to show them at any time to any one.

G. R. Pattison,

Jeweler & Optician.
Diamond. East Liverpool, O. Both Phones.

ICE ICE ICE

Have the best, let us serve you with Union Manufactured Ice.

Prompt attention to all orders.

The Crockery City Brewing Co.

The News Review

Published Daily Except Sunday by
THE EAST LIVERPOOL PUBLISHING COMPANY

LOUIS H. BRUSH, Manager.

The News Review, Daily, established 1854
By mail, one year, $5.00; six months, $3.00;
three months, $1.75; by carrier, $5.00; ten
cents per week.

The Saturday Review, Weekly, established
1879. By mail, one year, $1.00 in advance six months, 50 cents; three months, 25
cents.

Official Papers of the city of East Liverpool
and Columbiana County.

OFFICE 196 WASHINGTON STREET.

Call Telephone.

Business Office.....No. 122
Editorial Room.....No. 122

Columbiana County Telephone.

Business Office.....No. 122
Editorial Room.....No. 122

Sworn circulation, August 1, 1901,
ONE THOUSAND SEVEN HUN-DRED AND SEVENTY-FIVE copies
daily.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 21, 1901.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR STATE OFFICERS:
Governor—GEORGE K. NASH.
Lieutenant Governor—CARL NIPPERT.
Judge of Supreme Court—JAMES L. PRICE.
Attorney General—JOHN M. SHEETS.
Clerk of Supreme Court—LAWSON E. EM-
ERSON.
State Treasurer—ISAAC B. CAMERON.
Member Board of Public Works—W. G.
JOHNSON.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT.
Common Pleas Judge—H. W. HARTER.
State Senator—FRANK B. ARCHER.
State Senator—CHARLES C. CONNELL.
Representative—SAMUEL BUELL.
Representative—D. W. CRIST.
Sheriff—SAMUEL D. NORAGON.
Auditor—J. F. ADAMS.
Treasurer—W. A. THOMPSON.
Commissioner—EDEN REEDER.
Infirmary Director—G. W. ARMSTRONG.

SUBSCRIBERS WHO ARE GOING
AWAY FOR THE SUMMER MONTHS
CAN HAVE THE EVENING NEWS
REVIEW SENT TO THEM BY NO-TIFYING THIS OFFICE OF THEIR
OUT-OF-TOWN ADDRESS, EITHER
BY TELEPHONE OR POSTAL CARD,
FOR 10 CENTS A WEEK CHANGE
OF ADDRESS MAY BE MADE AS OF-
TEN AS DESIRED. WHEN A
CHANGE IS ORDERED BOTH THE
OLD AS WELL AS THE NEW AD-DRESS SHOULD BE GIVEN.

HOOKSTOWN IS HAPPY.

Hookstown is happy. Far from the
madding crowd, her idyllic serenity
and her soporific shades are seldom disturbed by any noise louder than
the peeping of frogs, the chirping of crickets or the crowing of chanticleers.
But now, as happens each approaching autumn, the blare of the
brass band, the shouts of the tent
showman, the voice of the fakir and
crowds and excitement hold sway in
the village, and its streets—if they were not so deeply grass-grown—would echo to the tread of moving thousands.

Hookstown now gets her name in the papers and for three days is a part of the busy, bustling, pleasure-
seeking world. The great annual fair
is on, and the inhabitants of the town
are drinking deep of the only draught
of dissipation they allow themselves
during the whole year. Next week,
Hookstown will sink into its customary somnolent condition; but this
week will furnish abundant material
for it to talk about and think about—
in its waking hours—for the next
twelve months.

There are those who tell us that the country fair is out of date, has
lost its popularity and is no longer
able to gain patronage or success.
Those who talk this way have never seen Hookstown or formed the acquaintance of its fair management.
There the annual agricultural exhibition flourishes and is in its pristine
glory. Hookstown may be unworldly
in some things and not as skilled in conducting great enterprises as New York or Chicago, but her people can manage a fair to perfection. Age cannot wither nor custom stale the infinite variety of the arts they employ
to please when they turn amusement caterers. Long may they and
the town's one great institution thrive!

TRUSTS IN EUROPE.

Prof. J. W. Jenks, of the United States industrial commission, has been collecting data regarding the operation of trusts in Europe. His report furnishes convincing proof that
the Democratic dictum that "the tariff
is the mother of trusts" does not hold good either abroad or at home. Vast combinations of capital live and thrive
in free-trade England, as they have done for years, and their number is being augmented constantly. European governments have the trusts so controlled that their people do not fear them. There is no inclination to pass laws to kill combinations. But laws to regulate their conduct have
been enacted and the trusts are under such close official scrutiny that
their power for harm is reduced to a minimum. Prof. Jenks' report will furnish many important points which congress should carefully consider

when it attempts further legislation
on the subject.

BRYAN'S LATEST TURN-DOWN.

Out in Omaha William J. Bryan was invited to speak at a Democratic blow-out to occur September 7. After he had accepted, he was asked to sign
an invitation to David B. Hill to be present. This he refused to do. It was then resolved to invite Hill, any-
way. If he comes Bryan will probably stay away. The action of his former friends and supporters in the former stronghold of his greatness in ignoring the wishes of the great Nebraskan and flattering his political rival must be particularly galling to the twice defeated presidential aspirant.
But it is pretty strong evidence
that William J. has lost his grip.

By wireless telegraphy or by special wire, Josiah Carnow, of Omaha, has received a message that, in newspaper
parlance, is a scoop. It tells Josiah
that the world is coming to an end
September 13. After that date Josiah will wish he had not made known the
contents of the message.

An Indiana street railway tried the
experiment of hiring women as conductors. The result is thus summed up: "It soon happened that patronage fell away until a car contained
only one passenger, and he was talking to the conductor."

More lynchings and burnings in the south. Pitchfork Tillman is probably happy over the results that follow his
preaching of the gospel of anarchy
and disobedience of all law, human
and divine.

Some Democrats are suggesting
Grover Cleveland for a third term.
The matter is not likely to advance
beyond the suggestion stage.

OBITUARY.

Hugh McDiarmid.

Wellsburg, W. Va., Aug. 21.—Hugh
McDiarmid, professor of Bible study
at Hiram college, Hiram, O., and ex-
president of Bethany college, is dead,
aged 55. He leaves a wife and five children.

PLAIN DRUNKS

The Offenses for Which Jail Prisoners Were Arraigned
Today.

Business in the court of Mayor Davidson continues brisk. George Brown,
well known, was found overcome last night. Officer Dawson had him carted
off to jail and this morning Brown
was fined $5.60. Not having a sufficient amount of coin with him he is still the guest of the city.

S. Smith, who carries with him a bundle of old umbrellas and a small
grip, claiming to be an umbrella
mender, was another victim gathered in by Officer Dawson. Of course he had no money and as his chances for raising a fine were slim he was drummed out of town. He went away
vowing never to come here again.

"A. Banker" was the name upon a police slip filled out by Detective
Woods last evening. "A. Banker"
was drunk, and wandered into the Diamond Hardware store, accidentally broke a show case glass. He was able to put up security for his appearance
today.

Michael Sullivan was gathered in
this morning by Officer Woods, but
as he was too drunk at the time of
the hearings, he was allowed to rest
until this afternoon.

Mrs. Rachel Walker was allowed to depart in peace from the city hall jail
yesterday afternoon. Her husband came around and paid her fine, $5.60.

TWO MORE WELLS

To Be Put Down Near the Big Gasser
at Petersburg, Mahoning County.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—The Indian Branch Oil and Gas company
has decided to put down two more
wells in its territory, instead of one,
as first intended.

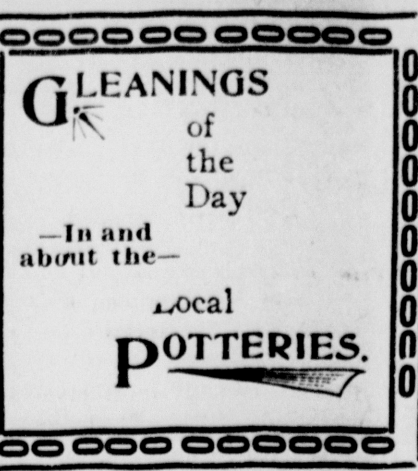

The gasser which came in recently
is gaining in pressure every day, and now shows 180 pounds, the gauge's
limit.

The new wells will be located 22
miles from Lisbon, near Petersburg,
Mahoning county. D. M. Mathewson,
a stockholder of this city, returned
last night from the field highly pleased with the prospects.

Announcement.

TO THE VOTERS OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY:
I take this opportunity of informing
you that I am a candidate for the Legislature, to be voted for at the November election. If you are in favor of liberal laws and honest legislation, with charity towards all and antimosity to none, I sincerely solicit your vote.
J. C. WALSH,
East Liverpool, O.

Try a News Review want ad.

The work of placing in position a
new saucer jigger at the William Brunt pottery was completed yesterday afternoon and Ed Roberts took charge of the jigger this morning.
This is the third new jigger to be erected at that plant in the past five months, and more ware is now being turned out than ever before in the history of the plant.

James Blazer has resigned his position as jiggerman at the Salem China
company plant, Salem, and has returned to this city. He has accepted a similar place at Laughlin No. 2.

For the past two weeks the jigger-
men at the Brunt pottery have only
been working about half time on account of the firm being unable to secure kilnhands.

The glost girls at the American
China company's plant, Toronto, are working overtime to keep up with the
orders coming in.

Joseph Andrews has resigned his position as cup jiggerman at Brunts
and has taken a saucer jigger at the
same plant.

John Demmerling has accepted a position with the Salem China company, Salem.

Frank Jackson has accepted a position in the packing shed at Brunts.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS

Those Which Await an Owner at the Postoffice in This City.

List of letters remaining in the postoffice at East Liverpool, O., for the
week ending August 20, 1901:

Gentlemen's List—Armstrong & Co.,
J. Barber, John Boyd, F. E. Brown,
Walter Burrows, J. M. Carr, Davidson
Cochran, Garfield Cunningham, J. H.
Evans, Will T. Freeman, Chas. Geg-line (2), John Grum, A. W. Haverly, Seymour Heckathorn, James Heyden-
rick, Harry Huston, Mr. Kirkwood,
Willis Larkins, James G. Wilson, Sig.
Bichenstuhl, Wm. Lounns, Al Martin,
W. C. McClelland, Dr. W. M. Miller,
J. E. Newman, Chas. Penney, J. W.
Rose, Mr. Sailing, Scott Schireley,
B. F. Stevenson, W. G. Taylor, Tem-
pest, Brockman & Co., Ira Thompson,
Albert Thompson, George Thompson,
H. B. Todd, Rob't Webber.

Ladies' List—Mrs. Sam Burkette,
Miss Helen Buchagen, Mrs. Ora Dun-
can, Miss Em Edwards, Miss Dell Fin-
negan, Miss Rachel Griffin, Miss L.
Harker, Miss Birdie Johnston, Mrs.
Fannie Leigh, Minnie Marshall, Miss
Nettie McCullough, Mrs. Grace Morgan, Mrs. Ella Mohn, Mrs. Louise
Pratt, Mrs. Elizabeth Roth, Miss Kate
Snider.

REAL ESTATE SALES

Transfers Recorded Include One to
the Crockery City Brewery
for $3,800.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—Real estate transfers have been recorded
as follows:

Riverview Land company to Chas.
C. Gipner, lot 4920 in Grandview addition to East Liverpool; $95.

A. G. Chaffin and wife to Barbara Demmerling, lot in Liverpool township; $175.

William Mercer and wife to Mary
E. Gamble, lot 30, East Liverpool;
$600.

Sarah A. Hamill to the Crockery
City Brewing and Ice company, part
of lots 746 and 747; $5,800.

NON-UNION STOGIES

Said to Have Been Foisted on the Wellsville Dealers As Union Made.

A. L. Byers, a representative of the Pittsburg cigar makers' union, was
in Wellsville yesterday in the interest of the organization. He claims that an East Liverpool stogie maker, who
was recently discharged from the union, has been selling his goods in Wellsville and wrongfully using the union label. The dealers have all been notified of the matter.

Notice.

All ground layers, gilders and liners are requested to meet in Knights
of Columbus hall, Foutts building,
corner Fifth and Market streets, August 22 at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose
of organizing. By order of
COMMITTEE.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

John Manor is visiting at Alliance.
Miss D. Hayes is visiting at Alliance.

Mrs. John Ecker is visiting at Allegheny.

J. F. McGarry is spending a few days in Pittsburgh.

Miss Anna McLaughlin has returned from a visit at Pittsburgh.

William Colley was a Salineville
business visitor yesterday.

Mrs. J. J. Rose has returned from a visit of two weeks at Avalon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. King have returned from a visit at Bellaire.

Mrs. Charles Pilgrim has left for a visit with her parents at Akron.

Henry Brunt left yesterday afternoon for a visit at Detroit and Macki-
nac.

Miss Martha C. Porter has left for a visit at Cleveland, Detroit and Milwaukee.

William Hannum has returned to his home at Salineville, after a visit
in the city.

Miss May Adams has returned to Salineville after a visit with her mother here.

Miss Josephine Crook, of Lisbon, is in the city, the guest of Miss Agnes Burford, Fourth street.

Mrs. Sarah Campbell and two children left this morning for a visit
with relatives at Bellaire.

George Ashbaugh and daughter
Ada, of Pleasant Heights, have gone
to Buffalo for a two weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Geer, of Allegheny, are guests at the home of Mr.
and Mrs. A. W. Scott, of Walnut street.

Thomas Wyllie has returned from Pittsburg, where he has been employed by the Western Union Telegraph company.

Eli Lewis has returned to his home
at Hartford, W. Va., after a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Campbell,
Sheridan avenue.

Mrs. Charles Jennings left this morning for Alliance, where she this afternoon attended the wedding of her sister, Miss Tobin.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Weaver and children have returned to their home in Alliance, after a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H.
Weaver, Oak street.

Arthur Campbell, who has been acting as baggage agent at Mingo Junction for the past two weeks, returned to the city yesterday afternoon. He resumed his duties at the local passenger station this morning.

Dr. Hunter, of Noble county, O., is spending a few days in the city, the guest of Justice J. N. Rose. He is here for the purpose of securing a
location. Dr. Hunter is the son of Dr.
Hunter, the famous preacher and poet.

NATIONAL GAMES YESTERDAY.

Brooklyn, 4; Philadelphia, 1—First
game.
Brooklyn, 3; Philadelphia, 2—Second game.
New York, 3; Boston, 0—11 innings.
Pittsburg, 14; St. Louis, 2.
Chicago-Cincinnati, rain.

National Standing.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburg	57	36	.613
Philadelphia	52	42	.576
Brooklyn	56	44	.560
St. Louis	56	46	.549
Boston	47	51	.480
Cincinnati	40	55	.421
New York	39	54	.419
Chicago	39	63	.382

American Games Yesterday.

Boston, 6; Milwaukee, 0.
Cleveland, 7; Philadelphia, 3.
Detroit, 5; Baltimore, 2.
Chicago, 9; Washington, 3.

American Standing.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Chicago	61	39	.610
Boston	59	40	.596
Baltimore	54	41	.568
Detroit	53	47	.539
Philadelphia	50	49	.505
Cleveland	41	54	.432
Washington	40	55	.421
Milwaukee	35	67	.343

Western Games Saturday.

Wheeling, 3; Grand Rapids, 9.
Fort Wayne, 9; Muncie, 2.
Toledo, 1; Dayton, 3.

Western Standing.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Toledo	59	43	.578
Grand Rapids	60	47	.561
Dayton	54	47	.535
Fort Wayne	59	52	.532
Muncie	53	56	.486
Wheeling	49	52	.485
Marion	46	58	.442
Columbus	42	66	.389

Schwab Not to Resign.

New York, Aug. 21.—From an authoritative source the Associated Press is enabled to deny the report
that Charles M. Schwab is to resign
the presidency of the United States
Steel corporation.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS.

THE regular examination of teachers will be held at the Fourth street school
building,
Tuesday, Aug. 27th,
commencing at eight
o'clock, a. m.
By order of
BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

Clearance Sale

—OF—

BENDHEIM'S

What it Means.

It means that you can buy men's $3.50, $4 and $5 tan shoes
at $12.90 at Bendheim's

This includes the famous Walk-Over Shoes.
It means that you can buy little gents' $1.25 tan, spring heel Shoes at 85c at Bendheim's

It means that you can buy women's $3.50 and $4 Vici Kid and Patent Leather Shoes with extension soles at $2.90 at Bendheim's

It means that you can buy children's $1.50 lace and button
Shoes at 98c. at Bendheim's

It means that you can buy men's $3.50 Patent Leather
Shoes at $2.90 at Bendheim's

It means that you can buy men's tan Walk-Over Oxford
Ties at $2.50 at Bendheim's

It means that you can buy children's 75c and 85c tan Shoes
at 50c at Bendheim's

It means that you can buy women's $2.50 Patent Leather
Shoes at $1.98 at Bendheim's

It means that you can buy women's $3.50 Ideal Patent Kid
Shoes at $2.69 at Bendheim's

Bendheim's

Eye Doctor's Examination Free!

The Children's Eyes—
Neglect your own if you will,
delay and suffer if you please,
but DON'T neglect the eyes
of the little ones. Don't open
the way for a life of eye misery. Money no longer a bar—

you may have the examination, the advice of a graduate physician
with long experience, and superior skill as an Eye Specialist, and not one penny to pay. Come any day.

Oldest House in the City. J. M. McKINNEY.
Optician. Quick Repairing.

Avoid Trouble

By purchasing
your Perfumes, Tooth Brushes and Toilet Goods of CRAIG, who refunds your money on any and all
goods misrepresented.
Have you tried the new perfume "THELMA."
CHAS. F. CRAIG, Druggist, Cor. 5th and Market.

Diamonds. Diamonds. Diamonds.

WE now have a large assortment of—fine
brilliant—White, perfect Diamonds from
the smallest to quite large sizes.

Call and Examine

Our line. We are willing to show them at any time to any one.

G. R. Pattison,

Jeweler & Optician.

Diamond. East Liverpool, O. Both Phones.

ICE ICE ICE

Have the best, let us serve you with Union Manufactured Ice.
Prompt attention to all orders.

The Crockery City Brewing Co.

OPENING GUN OF CAMPAIGN

Will Be Fired by Republicans at Delaware on Saturday, Sept. 21.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Held a Meeting Yesterday And Received Encouraging Reports—Party Leaders Certain of Victory in the State.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, Aug. 21.—At the meeting of the Republican executive committee yesterday afternoon Delaware was selected as the place for the opening meeting of the campaign and Saturday, September 21, as the date. Present at the meeting were Chairman Dick, Secretary Malloy, Treasurer Burdell and many members. Governor Nash, Judge J. B. Price, nominee for supreme judge, and Hon. I. B. Cameron, candidate for state treasurer, were in attendance. Letters were received from Republicans at Elyria, Findlay and Fostoria, each asking for the meeting. After an exchange of views it was decided to recognize the claim of Delaware.

Hon. Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati, was, by an unanimous vote, added to the membership of the state executive committee, and the following committee on finance, selected from the executive committee, was appointed: W. F. Burdell, of Columbus; Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland; Charles W. Hogg, of Cadiz, and John H. Fitch, of Youngstown. Mr. Hogg is an ex-senator, having at one time represented the Twentieth-Twenty-second joint district, composed of Columbiana, Jefferson, Belmont and Harrison counties. Chairman Dick reported the progress made to date in the work of organization, the report showing that organizations have been received from 61 of the 88 counties. Out of 33 senators to be elected, the Republicans have made 20 nominations. There will be 110 representatives elected and 75 Republican candidates have been nominated.

The list of names submitted by Chairman Dick for chiefs of the various departments were approved. It presents a strong personnel. The work of organization will be under Chairman Dick and Secretary Malloy, assisted by W. E. Marsh, of Akron, chief headquarters clerk. Senator S. L. Patterson, of Pike county, a member of the committee, was made chairman of the speakers' bureau and given authority to select his own assistants. Jere A. Brown, of Cleveland, also a member of the committee, will be at the head of the colored bureau. Jesse H. Weirick, of Columbus, was appointed cashier, while Col. W. L. Curry, of Columbus, will have charge of the soldiers' bureau. Walter E. Hysell will be chief of the document and shipping department. The chairmanship of the literary bureau has been tendered to Editor S. S. Knabenshue, of the Toledo Blade, who filled this position acceptably a year ago, but he has not given the committee an answer.

The Republicans of Ohio are certain of success this fall. The outlook was never more promising. Nowadays to insure victory an organization is an absolute necessity, and the report of Chairman Dick shows that nothing is being left undone in this particular by the party managers throughout the state. The Republicans will present a solid front—one which will be invincible. The Democrats have nothing tangible upon which to base hopes for success. It does seem that Chairman Daugherty, of the Democratic executive committee, is entering into his campaign work in a half-hearted fashion. The Democracy is torn by inward dissension. Tom Johnson, of Cleveland, has little love for Kilbourne, and John R. McLean does not care the snap of his finger whether he wins or loses the governorship. The indifferent attitude of these leaders forces the conviction that their followers will be lukewarm in their support of the Democratic candidate.

GEORGE T. BLAKE.

Stealing Pears the Charge.

A charge of stealing pears from an orchard owned by Henry Heverly has been filed against Charles Daley in Justice McLean's court. The case was to have been heard this afternoon.

GRAND OFFICERS INSTALLED

(Continued from First Page.)

sion was devoted to discussing amendments to the supreme constitution. This work was not finished when the noon adjournment occurred and will be taken up again Thursday morning.

At the session tomorrow morning nomination of officers will take place, and the place of meeting for next year will be selected.

This afternoon the delegates are enjoying themselves at Rock Springs as the guests of Wedgwood lodge and this evening a banquet will be held there. The attendance is large and great interest is shown in the athletic contests. Members of Pittsburg lodges and their families to the number of 600 came on a special Panhandle train this morning.

Making Steel Rails.

The rail mill presents many pictures that appeal strongly to lovers of the picturesque. Under ordinary circumstances the great strands of iron, each half as long as a city block, slide back and forth smoothly enough between the rolls that are stretching them and pressing them into the required shape, but a tiny obstacle may at any moment turn one of these cables of fire off the beaten track and twist it into a hopeless tangle or wind it like a squirming snake around some unfortunate workman.

When the rolling process has been completed, the piece of iron slides along to the great buzzsaws, which cut it up into the 30 foot rails known to the railway traveler. Every time the whirling circular saw clips off one of these lengths, sparks radiate in every direction, as though the biggest pyrotechnical playwheel ever devised had been suddenly set in motion.

When the rail has been cooled and holes have been drilled in it, it is ready to start for any part of the world. The evolution of bars or beams or sheets from the big steel slabs is gained by the same general method of procedure. It is the size and shape of the grooves in the rolls which determine the form to be ultimately assumed by the steel in their clutches.—Century Magazine.

Absolute Zero.

By "absolute zero" is meant the lowest temperature compatible with heat—that point of temperature, in fact, at which a body would be wholly deprived of heat and at which the particles whose motion constitutes heat would be at rest. This temperature is supposed to be about 274 degrees C. or 461 degrees F.

The term "heat" is here used in its scientific sense, for as men use the word in everyday language its significance depends on the temperature of the human body. Men call "warm" everything with a temperature higher than their own and "cold" all those objects which have less heat than they. In reality, however, the coldest body known to man is far from being utterly without heat. Ice, for example, has heat, only in a degree so much below man's temperature that one can scarcely imagine it to be anything but "cold," a term which actually implies a comparatively low degree of heat.

Accordingly the zero of thermometers is only a conventional point marking a certain degree of heat. There seems to be a point, however, where heat ceases absolutely, and this point it is which is known in chemistry as the "absolute zero."

Kaffir Banking.

The Kaffirs have a simple method of banking. Before setting out to trade they select one of their number as their banker and put all their money in his bag. When an article is purchased by any of those who are in this combine, the price is taken by the banker from the bag, counted several times and then paid to the seller, after which all the bank depositors cry out to the banker in the presence of two witnesses selected, "You owe me so much." This is then repeated by the witnesses. The general accounting comes between the banker and his several depositors when all the purchases have been made, after which all the natives go home.

Varying Values of Food.

Fortune oysters are equal to only one egg. Pea soup is nutritious, but to live on it you would need a daily supply of 24 platefuls. A purely vegetable diet is too bulky, yet it may be good for the stout and the obese. It is true that the Scottish peasantry, their country's pride, are nurtured on oatmeal, but it is liberally supplemented by milk. Rational life is a compromise. You want the happy mean "between the tiger pacing its cage and the cow lying upon the grass."—Dr. Hutchinson's "Dietetics."

The Passions.

We say of a man who has no will mastery. "He is ruled by his passions." They govern him, not he them. Centuries ago an Arab wrote, "Passion is a tyrant which slays those whom it governs." It is like fire, which once thoroughly kindled can scarcely be quenched, or like the torrent, which when it is swollen can no longer be restrained by its banks. Call him not a prisoner who has been put in fetters by his enemy, but rather him whose own passions overpower him to destruction.

A Puzzler.

Tibbetts—So you do not believe in the emancipation of woman?
Burton—Well, it is just here. Man is the superior being. But how is he going to show his superiority if woman is his equal? That's what I want to know.—Boston Transcript.

CHESTER PLANT A BUSY SPOT

The Work of Renovation and Enlargement Progressing Rapidly.

REBUILDING THE FURNACES

Excavation for the New Addition to the Mill Now Going On—Work on the Tin House to Start Soon—Important Changes.

Busy scenes are those witnessed at the Chester plant of the American Tin Plate company. All sorts of workmen are employed there, including bricklayers, carpenters, engineers, both steam and civil, laborers and machinists. A reporter visited the big works yesterday afternoon and the work now being done there was indeed a revelation. While much has been written and said about the changes that will be made to the mill before it is placed in operation more is yet to be told.

One of the most important changes that will be made, and that by the railroad company, is the removal of switch No. 1 from its present location to a considerable distance east and elevating the tracks in such a manner that coal can be dropped from "hopper" cars. This elevation will start at producer No. 1 and will continue to the northern part of the east side of the old mill. This change, it is said, will cost several hundred dollars. Before the work can be done, however, a deep ravine is to be filled in. The filling to be used here will be furnished by the railroad company. At present all coal that is used at the furnace is shoveled from the cars into the engine room by laborers. Yesterday two cars of coal were unloaded here.

The matter of converting the old warehouse into a machine shop will likely be finished this week. This large building has been converted into several departments—blacksmith shop, machine shop, stock room and ware room. Nothing will be stored in either ware or stock rooms except materials to be used in and about the mill machinery. Already a large lathe and drill press has been received, which will be set in position as soon as the work on the dividing walls is finished. Stored in this building is also a 30-horse power dynamo, which will be placed in another part of the mill, probably in the engine room.

Excavating for the pillars for the new addition to the mill proper, which will extend from the southern end of the mill to the old galvanizing building, was commenced yesterday. Three car loads of structural iron were received yesterday morning for this new addition. There will be six to nine cold rolls in this end of the mill, which will greatly increase the capacity of the works. These rolls will be set in tandem style. Portions of this building which will not be occupied by the rolls will be used for finishing of tin under the new patent process, recently adopted by the tin plate company. The excavating for the switch, which will parallel the new tin house, has been completed, and next week the tracks will be laid. Work will also commence next week, it is said, upon the erection of the tin house, which will be built on the west side of the present mill.

For several days the big engine in the mill building has been running, but at a very slow speed, not more than 75 revolutions a minute being made. Of course this ponderous piece of machinery operates stiffly, but within a few days it will be all right, according to the statements of the engineer.

The company will install another engine in the new addition, but of a smaller horse-power. It is said that probably an engine of 1,000 horse-power will be installed in the old galvanizing building.

Work rebuilding the furnaces in the old mill is progressing rapidly, and much building material is received daily. The wareroom of the machine shop is almost full of cement and lime. It will require nearly twice as much more cement as is now in stock to complete the work.

The old frame building that stood on the river bank back of the mill was removed to the east side of the mill yesterday afternoon. This was done to make more room for the extension that will be made to the mill from the north side to the pump station.

PAINTER'S CONTRACT

For the Chester Mill Let to Albert Dinerstein, of East Liverpool.

The contract for painting the Chester mill has been let to Albert Diner-stein, of East Liverpool, and he has already begun work.

IN THE RIVER

LANDED BALLOON, PARACHUTE AND PROF. KINCADE.

The Aeronaut's First Voyage With His New Balloon Ends Unhappily.

Prof. T. H. Kinkade received another ducking last night. The balloon, which is a new one, did not ascend very high and it was impossible for him to make the parachute leap. He struck with the balloon in the river a short distance from the West Virginia shore and near the island. Kinkade made his way to shore and the balloon was captured and brought to land. There was excitement among the spectators, but the aeronaut was cool enough, and also unhurt.

FAINTED AT THE PARK

Young Lady From McDonald Carried to the Train Unconscious.

A young lady whose name could not be learned but who was from McDonald, Pa., fainted at Rock Springs about 6:30 o'clock last evening. Officer Finley rushed to her assistance, a physician was summoned, and she was carried to the train, but when it left at 8 o'clock she was still unconscious.

Back From the West.

The Misses Blanche and Nellie Ramsey, daughters of F. R. Ramsey, of Hookstown, returned home yesterday after an extended visit in the west. The young ladies spent almost a year in Davenport, Ia., then visited Portland and San Francisco, on the Pacific coast, and on their trip homeward passed through Texas and the south. Their many friends are pleased to welcome them home again.

In the 2:30 Class.

Councilman George Arner, of Chester, has entered his horse, "Lady Chester," in the free-for-all race at the Hookstown fair tomorrow. The horse is in charge of J. B. Pierce, and is expected to obtain a mark of 2:30 or better.

McDonald Picnic.

Three trains carrying out 2,500 people arrived in Chester yesterday from McDonald, Pa. They enjoyed themselves during the day, and the first section left at 5 o'clock and the other two at 8 p. m.

A Son Born.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy, who reside near Mechanic's Hall, are rejoicing over the birth of a son.

CHESTER NEWS NOTES.

Hon. W. F. Brown, of Brownsdale, W. Va., was in Chester yesterday on business.

George Roach, of Carpenter's Run, has moved his family into the house of Homer McCready, Virginia avenue.

Mrs. Ben Williamson, who was adjudged insane last week, has been taken to the hospital at West Newton, W. Va.

The contract for the erection of the new building of C. T. McCutcheon, on Virginia avenue, has been let to A. O. Crail. The excavation for the foundation was commenced this morning. The building will be used for a drug store will be rushed to completion.

Artistic.

"An artistic girl," said the painting teacher, "is one who will pin blush roses upon a sky blue frock. An in-artistic girl is one who will wear blue ribbon with a pink frock. Some eyes might not see any difference between the two combinations, but there's all the difference in the world. One girl has no warrant for what she does. The other has all nature for her authority."

TO GET ALL THE NEWS

Buy the Evening News Review—List of Those Who Sell It.

Job R. Manley's,
Cor. Sixth and Franklin Streets
Pierce & Cartwright's,
276 Eighth Street.
John H. Peake's,
304 Eighth Street.
Bagley's,
153 Second Street.
Bagley's,
285 East Market Street.
Hotel Lake,
Second Street.
John Peake's,
Market and Second Streets.
Ryan Bros.,
289 East Market Street.
Wilson's,
Fifth Street.
Rose's Cigar Store,
Washington Street.
Gill's Grocery,
Calcutta Road.
Harrison News Stand,
143 Mulberry St., East End.
C. T. McCutcheon,
Drug Store, Southside.
E. J. Driscoll's Confectionary Store,
West Market Street.
Marshall News Stand,
First St., Chester, W. Va.

A DRUG ON THE MARKET

Are the Doubtful Labor Outlook and Questionable Position of U. S. Steel Stocks.

New York, Aug. 21.—The stock market was somewhat broader and more active Tuesday, but there was still no evidence of any large participation in the market by the general public or by great financial interests on a large scale. The questionable position of the United States Steel stocks and the doubtful outlook for the labor situation are still a drag on the general market, although the market for the United States Steel stocks themselves and their price movement are narrow. The market guardians of the stocks show themselves amply able to take charge of all the stock offered, showing that the company's shares have come to be closely held. But the supporters of the stocks are inclined to take profits on holdings thus acquired upon any advance in price, and they bid up the prices when anything like an outside demand develops for the stocks. Under these artificial conditions the movement of the stocks has little significance. The general list showed a disposition on Tuesday to ignore the Steel stocks. The railroads concerned in the Northern Pacific settlement and others allied by identical ownership or otherwise, resumed the leadership of the market Tuesday. This may have been based upon a published report of a prolonged conference Monday at Bar Harbor between the three financiers who conducted the Northern Pacific contest and its settlement. The Morgan and Harriman roads were generally affected in sympathy, including Illinois Central, Chicago and Alton, Southern Railway and Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville. The anthracite carriers manifested some strength and the bituminous coal carriers made gains, although Norfolk and Western and Chesapeake and Ohio suffered from profit taking. A sharp decrease in earnings of Norfolk and Western for the second week in August seemed to emphasize this disposition. Some large individual blocks of Southern Pacific and St. Paul were taken in the last hour and those stocks rose 1 1/2—1 3/4 over Monday night. The stock market continued to show sensitiveness to developments in the money and exchange markets. A sharp recovery in sterling Tuesday morning led to some reaction from opening strength. Offerings of wheat bills were reported smaller in connection with reports of small seaboard wheat clearings, which caused a reaction in the wheat market. But this influence was largely offset by the large receipts on account of Australian gold deposited at San Francisco. The market closed rather heavy under the influence of profit taking on the day's rise.

Railroad bonds continued very dull and with no movement of significance. Total sales, par value, $1,145,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Advertising in these columns brings returns every time.

THE CRITERION DINING ROOM

having been removed to No. 176 Washington street, postoffice building, we are prepared to serve our patrons better and quicker than ever. The best meal in the city for the money.

W. E. LYTLE.

Banquets and Suppers a Specialty.

All parties desiring help, such as colored male and female cooks, butlers, nurses, maids and laborers for public works can be supplied by applying to
GEO. W. RISON, 119 Market St., Duaneville Va.
Quick service guaranteed.

YOUR BANKING!

No matter how small,
No matter how large,

The Potters

National Bank

Will give it careful attention. This message applies to the men and the women alike.

OFFICERS:

Wm. Brunt, Pres.
N. A. Frederick, V. Pres.
R. W. Patterson, Cashier.

Mason Jars

Extra Gums and Lids.
Stone Jars and Cocks
of all kinds at

Edwin Oppelts,

Both Phones 134.
No. 160 Fifth Street.

Notice.

Our wagons will continue collecting as heretofore.
SANITARY REDUCTION CO.
Bell Phone 373.

W. W. WILLIAMSON

UNION
BARBER
SHOP

201 Fifth Street.

No More Gray Hair.

Ladies, do you know you can get the latest transformation Pompadour which can be used as a covering for gray hair or can take the place of the old fashioned wig? Made of natural curly hair, only weighs one ounce and a half. Can be made in any style desired to suit face. Hair Switches $1 up, over 100 to select from.

New York Hair Parlor,
174 Sixth Street.

A man with a good solid bank account is always regarded with respect and confidence. No successful business can afford to be without one. We have taken every precaution for the safety of the funds entrusted to us; we are also insured against robbery, and our employees are heavily bonded, thus insuring our depositors absolute security. All transactions with this bank will be held strictly confidential.

Citizens' National Bank
East Liverpool, Ohio.

Veal Has to be Just Right

or it is no good. We make a specialty of veal, personally selecting all the animals, thereby being certain that the age and health is correct.

THE VEAL CUTLETS

that we sell you at the regular price, are the very fine ones for which many markets will charge you an advanced price. Many people, who for reasons of their own buy other meat elsewhere come to us for veal. What other guarantee can we offer?

CHAS. A. TRAINER,

274-2 East Market, 273 Broad way,
Col. 203, Bell 334-2.

Atlantic Tea Co.

The fruit crop of 1901 promises to be a record breaker. You will need Glass Jars, Extra Caps, Gum Rings, Tin Cans, Sealing Wax, Jelly Glasses and Finished Tumblers. We have them of the best makes and all sizes to suit your wants. Remember our price for Sugar is always the lowest.

PRICE LIST.

Per Doz.
Pint Mason Jars.....60 cts
Quart Mason Jars.....60 cts
Mason Caps and Rings.....25 cts
Gum Rings.....5 cts
Extra Heavy Tin Cans.....45 cts
Half-pint Jelly Glasses (Covered) 25 cts
Finished Tumblers.....25 cts
Sealing Wax.....2 pkgs. 5 cts
Standard Granulated Sugar.....17 lbs. for $1.00
Light Brown Sugar.....20 lbs. for $1.00
Standard Package Coffee.....10c per lb
For Iced Tea Get Pek-on.

ATLANTIC TEA CO.

We lead, let those who can, follow.

Woodbine Hotel

Facing Buffalo
Park, Buffalo

Is the best location of any of Buffalo's permanent hotels. All rooms face to the park; no court rooms. Cool because of air space about it and covered with woodbine. Send for illustrated booklet and maps.

OPENING GUN OF CAMPAIGN

Will Be Fired by Republicans at Delaware on Saturday, Sept. 21.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Held a Meeting Yesterday And Received Encouraging Reports—Party Leaders Certain of Victory in the State.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, Aug. 21.—At the meeting of the Republican executive committee yesterday afternoon Delaware was selected as the place for the opening meeting of the campaign and Saturday, September 21, as the date. Present at the meeting were Chairman Dick, Secretary Malloy, Treasurer Burdell and many members. Governor Nash, Judge J. B. Price, nominee for supreme judge, and Hon. I. B. Cameron, candidate for state treasurer, were in attendance. Letters were received from Republicans at Elyria, Findlay and Fostoria, each asking for the meeting. After an exchange of views it was decided to recognize the claim of Delaware.

Hon. Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati, was, by a unanimous vote, added to the membership of the state executive committee, and the following committee on finance, selected from the executive committee, was appointed: W. F. Burdell, of Columbus; Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland; Charles W. Hogg, of Cadiz, and John H. Fitch, of Youngstown. Mr. Hogg is an ex-senator, having at one time represented the Twentieth-Twenty-second joint district, composed of Columbiana, Jefferson, Belmont and Harrison counties. Chairman Dick reported the progress made to date in the work of organization, the report showing that organizations have been received from 61 of the 88 counties. Out of 33 senators to be elected, the Republicans have made 20 nominations. There will be 110 representatives elected and 75 Republican candidates have been nominated.

The list of names submitted by Chairman Dick for chiefs of the various departments were approved. It presents a strong personnel. The work of organization will be under Chairman Dick and Secretary Malloy, assisted by W. E. Marsh, of Akron, chief headquarters clerk. Senator S. L. Patterson, of Pike county, a member of the committee, was made chairman of the speakers' bureau and given authority to select his own assistants. Jere A. Brown, of Cleveland, also a member of the committee, will be at the head of the colored bureau. Jesse H. Weirick, of Columbus, was appointed cashier, while Col. W. L. Curry, of Columbus, will have charge of the soldiers' bureau. Walter E. Hysell will be chief of the document and shipping department. The chairmanship of the literary bureau has been tendered to Editor S. S. Knabshue, of the Toledo Blade, who filled this position acceptably a year ago, but he has not given the committee an answer.

The Republicans of Ohio are certain of success this fall. The outlook was never more promising. Nowadays to insure victory an organization is an absolute necessity, and the report of Chairman Dick shows that nothing is being left undone in this particular by the party managers throughout the state. The Republicans will present a solid front—one which will be invincible. The Democrats have nothing tangible upon which to base hopes for success. It does seem that Chairman Daugherty, of the Democratic executive committee, is entering into his campaign work in a half-hearted fashion. The Democracy is torn by inward dissension. Tom Johnson, of Cleveland, has little love for Kilbourne, and John R. McLean does not care the snap of his finger whether he wins or loses the governorship. The indifferent attitude of these leaders forces the conviction that their followers will be lukewarm in their support of the Democratic candidate.

Senators Archer and Patterson were callers at Republican headquarters yesterday and announced their candidacy for president pro tem of the senate. T. M. Bates, of Cleveland, Republican nominee in Cuyahoga county, also expects to be a candidate for the honor.

GEORGE T. BLAKE.

Stealing Pears the Charge.

A charge of stealing pears from an orchard owned by Henry Heverly has been filed against Charles Daley in Justice McLean's court. The case was to have been heard this afternoon.

GRAND OFFICERS INSTALLED

(Continued from First Page.)

sion was devoted to discussing amendments to the supreme constitution. This work was not finished when the noon adjournment occurred and will be taken up again Thursday morning.

At the session tomorrow morning nomination of officers will take place, and the place of meeting for next year will be selected.

This afternoon the delegates are enjoying themselves at Rock Springs as the guests of Wedgwood lodge and this evening a banquet will be held there. The attendance is large and great interest is shown in the athletic contests. Members of Pittsburgh lodges and their families to the number of 600 came on a special Panhandle train this morning.

Making Steel Rails.

The rail mill presents many pictures that appeal strongly to lovers of the picturesque. Under ordinary circumstances the great strands of iron, each half as long as a city block, slide back and forth smoothly enough between the rolls that are stretching them and pressing them into the required shape, but a tiny obstacle may at any moment turn one of these cables of fire off the beaten track and twist it into a hopeless tangle or wind it like a squirming snake around some unfortunate workman.

When the rolling process has been completed, the piece of iron slides along to the great buzzsaws, which cut it up into the 30 foot rails known to the railway traveler. Every time the whirling circular saw clips off one of these lengths, sparks radiate in every direction, as though the biggest pyrotechnical pinwheel ever devised had been suddenly set in motion.

When the rail has been cooled and holes have been drilled in it, it is ready to start for any part of the world. The evolution of bars or beams or sheets from the big steel slabs is gained by the same general method of procedure. It is the size and shape of the grooves in the rolls which determine the form to be ultimately assumed by the steel in their clutches.—Century Magazine.

Absolute Zero.

By "absolute zero" is meant the lowest temperature compatible with heat—that point of temperature, in fact, at which a body would be wholly deprived of heat and at which the particles whose motion constitutes heat would be at rest. This temperature is supposed to be about 273 degrees C. or 461 degrees F.

The term "heat" is here used in its scientific sense, for as men use the word in everyday language its significance depends on the temperature of the human body. Men call "warm" everything with a temperature higher than their own and "cold" all those objects which have less heat than they. In reality, however, the coldest body known to man is far from being utterly without heat. Ice, for example, has heat, only in a degree so much below man's temperature that one can scarcely imagine it to be anything but "cold," a term which actually implies a comparatively low degree of heat.

Accordingly the zero of thermometers is only a conventional point marking a certain degree of heat. There seems to be a point, however, where heat ceases absolutely, and this point it is which is known in chemistry as the "absolute zero."

Kafir Banking.

The Kafirs have a simple method of banking. Before setting out to trade they select one of their number as their banker and put all their money in his bag. When an article is purchased by any of those who are in this combine, the price is taken by the banker from the bag, counted several times and then paid to the seller, after which all the bank depositors cry out to the banker in the presence of two witnesses selected, "You owe me so much." This is then repeated by the witnesses. The general accounting comes between the banker and his several depositors when all the purchases have been made, after which all the natives go home.

Varying Values of Food.

Fourteen oysters are equal to only one egg. Pea soup is nutritious, but to live on it you would need a daily supply of 24 platefuls. A purely vegetable diet is too bulky, yet it may be good for the gouty and the obese. It is true that the Scottish peasantry, their country's pride, are nurtured on oatmeal, but it is liberally supplemented by milk. Rational life is a compromise. You want the happy mean "between the tiger pacing its cage and the cow lying upon the grass."—Dr. Hutchinson's "Dietetics."

The Passions.

We say of a man who has no will mastery. "He is ruled by his passions." They govern him, not he them. Centuries ago an Arab wrote, "Passion is a tyrant which slays those whom it governs." It is like fire, which once thoroughly kindled can scarcely be quenched, or like the torrent, which when it is swollen can no longer be restrained with its banks. Call him not a prisoner who has been put in fetters by his enemy, but rather him whose own passions overpower him to destruction.

A Puzzler.

Tibbets—So you do not believe in the emancipation of woman? Burton—Well, it is just here. Man is the superior being. But how is he going to show his superiority if woman is his equal? That's what I want to know.—Boston Transcript.

CHESTER PLANT A BUSY SPOT

The Work of Renovation and Enlargement Progressing Rapidly.

REBUILDING THE FURNACES

Excavation for the New Addition to the Mill Now Going On—Work on the Tin House to Start Soon—Important Changes.

Busy scenes are those witnessed at the Chester plant of the American Tin Plate company. All sorts of workmen are employed there, including bricklayers, carpenters, engineers, both steam and civil, laborers and machinists. A reporter visited the big works yesterday afternoon and the work now being done there was indeed a revelation. While much has been written and said about the changes that will be made to the mill before it is placed in operation more is yet to be told.

One of the most important changes that will be made, and that by the railroad company, is the removal of switch No. 1 from its present location to a considerable distance east and elevating the tracks in such a manner that coal can be dropped from "hopper" cars. This elevation will start at producer No. 1 and will continue to the northern part of the east side of the old mill. This change, it is said, will cost several hundred dollars. Before the work can be done, however, a deep ravine is to be filled in. The filling to be used here will be furnished by the railroad company. At present all coal that is used at the furnace is shoveled from the cars into the engine room by laborers. Yesterday two cars of coal were unloaded here.

The matter of converting the old warehouse into a machine shop will likely be finished this week. This large building has been converted into several departments—blacksmith shop, machine shop, stock room and ware room. Nothing will be stored in either ware or stock rooms except materials to be used in and about the mill machinery. Already a large lathe and drill press has been received, which will be set in position as soon as the work on the dividing walls is finished. Stored in this building is also a 30-horse power dynamo, which will be placed in another part of the mill, probably in the engine room.

Excavating for the pillars for the new addition to the mill proper, which will extend from the southern end of the mill to the old galvanizing building, was commenced yesterday. Three car loads of structural iron were received yesterday morning for this new addition. There will be six to nine cold rolls in this end of the mill, which will greatly increase the capacity of the works. These rolls will be set in tandem style. Portions of this building which will not be occupied by the rolls will be used for finishing of tin under the new patent process, recently adopted by the tin plate company.

The excavating for the switch, which will parallel the new tin house, has been completed, and next week the tracks will be laid. Work will also commence next week, it is said, upon the erection of the tin house, which will be built on the west side of the present mill.

For several days the big engine in the mill building has been running, but at a very slow speed, not more than 75 revolutions a minute being made. Of course this ponderous piece of machinery operates stiffly, but within a few days it will be all right, according to the statements of the engineer.

The company will install another engine in the new addition, but of a smaller horse-power. It is said that probably an engine of 1,000 horse-power will be installed in the old galvanizing building.

Work rebuilding the furnaces in the old mill is progressing rapidly, and much building material is received daily. The wareroom of the machine shop is almost full of cement and lime. It will require nearly twice as much more cement as is now in stock to complete the work.

The old frame building that stood on the river bank back of the mill was removed to the east side of the mill yesterday afternoon. This was done to make more room for the extension that will be made to the mill from the north side to the pump station.

PAINTER'S CONTRACT

For the Chester Mill Let to Albert Dinerstein, of East Liverpool.

The contract for painting the Chester mill has been let to Albert Diner-stein, of East Liverpool, and he has already begun work.

IN THE RIVER

LANDED BALLOON, PARACHUTE AND PROF. KINKADE.

The Aeronaut's First Voyage With His New Balloon Ends Unhappily.

Prof. T. H. Kinkade received another ducking last night. The balloon, which is a new one, did not ascend very high and it was impossible for him to make the parachute leap. He struck with the balloon in the river a short distance from the West Virginia shore and near the island. Kinkade made his way to shore and the balloon was captured and brought to land. There was excitement among the spectators, but the aeronaut was cool enough, and also unhurt.

FAINTED AT THE PARK

Young Lady From McDonald Carried to the Train Unconscious.

A young lady whose name could not be learned but who was from McDonald, Pa., fainted at Rock Springs about 6:30 o'clock last evening. Officer Finley rushed to her assistance, a physician was summoned, and she was carried to the train, but when it left at 8 o'clock she was still unconscious.

Back From the West.

The Misses Blanche and Nellie Ramsey, daughters of F. R. Ramsey, of Hookstown, returned home yesterday after an extended visit in the west. The young ladies spent almost a year in Davenport, Ia., then visited Portland and San Francisco, on the Pacific coast, and on their trip homeward passed through Texas and the south. Their many friends are pleased to welcome them home again.

In the 2:30 Class.

Councilman George Arner, of Chester, has entered his horse, "Lady Chester," in the free-for-all race at the Hookstown fair tomorrow. The horse is in charge of J. B. Pierce, and is expected to obtain a mark of 2:30 or better.

McDonald Picnic.

Three trains carrying out 2,500 people arrived in Chester yesterday from McDonald, Pa. They enjoyed themselves during the day, and the first section left at 5 o'clock and the other two at 8 p. m.

A Son Born.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy, who reside near Mechanic's Hall, are rejoicing over the birth of a son.

CHESTER NEWS NOTES.

Hon. W. F. Brown, of Brownsdale, W. Va., was in Chester yesterday on business.

George Roach, of Carpenter's Run, has moved his family into the house of Homer McCready, Virginia avenue.

Mrs. Ben Williamson, who was adjudged insane last week, has been taken to the hospital at West Newton, W. Va.

The contract for the erection of the new building of C. T. McCutcheon, on Virginia avenue, has been let to A. O. Crail. The excavation for the foundation was commenced this morning. The building will be used for a drug store will be rushed to completion.

Artistic.

"An artistic girl," said the painting teacher, "is one who will pin blush roses upon a sky blue frock. An artistic girl is one who will wear blue ribbon with a pink frock. Some eyes might not see any difference between the two combinations, but there's all the difference in the world. One girl has no warrant for what she does. The other has all nature for her authority."

TO GET ALL THE NEWS

Buy the Evening News Review—List of Those Who Sell It.

Job R. Maney's, Cor. Sixth and Franklin Streets

Pierce & Cartwright's, 276 Eighth Street.

John H. Peake's, 304 Eighth Street.

Bagley's, 153 Second Street.

Bagley's, 285 East Market Street.

Hotel Lakel, Second Street.

John Peake's, Market and Second Streets.

Ryan Bros., 289 East Market Street.

Wilson's, Fifth Street.

Rose's Cigar Store, Washington Street.

Gill's Grocery, Calcutta Road.

Harrison News Stand, 143 Mulberry St., East End.

C. T. McCutcheon, Drug Store, Southside.

E. J. Driscoll's Confectionary Store, West Market Street.

Marshall News Stand, First St., Chester, W. Va.

A DRUG ON THE MARKET

Are the Doubtful Labor Outlook and Questionable Position of U. S. Steel Stocks.

New York, Aug. 21.—The stock market was somewhat broader and more active Tuesday, but there was still no evidence of any large participation in the market by the general public or by great financial interests on a large scale. The questionable position of the United States Steel stocks and the doubtful outlook for the labor situation are still a drag on the general market, although the market for the United States Steel stocks themselves and their price movement are narrow. The market guardians of the stocks show themselves amply able to take charge of all the stock offered, showing that the company's shares have come to be closely held. But the supporters of the stocks are inclined to take profits on holdings thus acquired upon any advance in price, and they bid up the prices when anything like an outside demand develops for the stocks. Under these artificial conditions the movement of the stocks has little significance. The general list showed a disposition on Tuesday to ignore the Steel stocks. The railroads concerned in the Northern Pacific settlement and others allied by identical ownership or otherwise, resumed the leadership of the market Tuesday. This may have been based upon a published report of a prolonged conference Monday at Bar Harbor between the three financiers who conducted the Northern Pacific contest and its settlement. The Morgan and Harriman roads were generally affected in sympathy, including Illinois Central, Chicago and Alton, Southern Railway and Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville. The anthracite carriers manifested some strength and the bituminous coal carriers made gains, although Norfolk and Western and Chesapeake and Ohio suffered from profit taking. A sharp decrease in earnings of Norfolk and Western for the second week in August seemed to emphasize this disposition. Some large individual blocks of Southern Pacific and St. Paul were taken in the last hour and those stocks rose 1 1/2—1 3/4 over Monday night. The stock market continued to show sensitiveness to developments in the money and exchange markets. A sharp recovery in sterling Tuesday morning led to some reaction from opening strength. Offerings of wheat bills were reported smaller in connection with reports of small seaboard wheat clearings, which caused a reaction in the wheat market. But this influence was largely offset by the large receipts on account of Australian gold deposited at San Francisco. The market closed rather heavy under the influence of profit taking on the day's rise.

Railroad bonds continued very dull and with no movement of significance. Total sales, par value, $1,145,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Advertising in these columns brings returns every time.

THE CRITERION DINING ROOM

having been removed to No. 176 Washington street, postoffice building, we are prepared to serve our patrons better and quicker than ever. The best meal in the city for the money.

W. E. LYTLE.

Banquets and Suppers a Specialty.

All parties desiring help, such as colored male and female cooks, butlers, nurses, maids and laborers for public works can be supplied by applying to
GEO. W. RISON, 119 Market St., Danville Va.
Quick service guaranteed.

YOUR BANKING!

No matter how small,
No matter how large,

The Potters

National Bank

Will give it careful attention. This message applies to the men and the women alike.

OFFICERS:

Wm. Brunt, Pres.
N. A. Frederick, V. Pres.
R. W. Patterson, Cashier.

Mason Jars

Extra Gums and Lids.
Stone Jars and Cocks
of all kinds at

Edwin Oppelts,

Both Phones 134.
No. 160 Fifth Street.

Notice.

Our wagons will continue collecting as heretofore.

SANITARY REDUCTION CO.
Bell Phone 373.

W. W. WILLIAMSON

UNION
BARBER
SHOP

201 Fifth Street.

No More Gray Hair.

Ladies, do you know you can get the latest transformation Pompadour which can be used as a covering for gray hair or can take the place of the old fashioned wig? Made of natural curly hair, only weighs one ounce and a half. Can be made in any style desired to suit face. Hair Switches $7 up, over 100 to select from.

New York Hair Parlor,

174 Sixth Street.

A man with a good solid bank account is always regarded with respect and confidence. No successful business can afford to be without one. We have taken every precaution for the safety of the funds entrusted to us; we are also insured against robbery, and our employees are heavily bonded, thus insuring our depositors absolute security. All transactions with this bank will be held strictly confidential.

Citizens' National Bank
East Liverpool, Ohio.

Veal Has to be Just Right

or it is no good. We make a specialty of veal, personally selecting all the animals, thereby being certain that the age and health is correct.

THE VEAL CUTLETS

that we sell you at the regular price, are the very fine ones for which many markets will charge you an advanced price. Many people, who for reasons of their own buy other meat elsewhere come to us for veal. What other guarantee can we offer?

CHAS. A. TRAINER,

274-2 East Market, 273 Broad way,
Col. 203. Bell 334-2.

Atlantic Tea Co.

The fruit crop of 1901 promises to be a record breaker. You will need Glass Jars, Extra Caps, Gum Rings, Tin Cans, Sealing Wax, Jelly Glasses and Finished Tumblers. We have them of the best makes and all sizes to suit your wants. Remember our price for Sugar is always the lowest.

PRICE LIST.

	Per Doz.
Pint Mason Jars.....	60 cts
Quart Mason Jars.....	60 cts
Mason Caps and Rings.....	25 cts
Gum Rings.....	5 cts
Extra Heavy Tin Cans.....	45 cts
Half-pint Jelly Glasses (Covered) 25 cts
Finished Tumblers.....	25 cts
Sealing Wax.....	2 pkgs. 5 cts
Standard Granulated Sugar.....	17 lbs. for $1.00
Light Brown Sugar.....	20 lbs. for $1.00
Standard Package Coffee.....	10c per lb

For Iced Tea use Pek-on.

ATLANTIC TEA CO.

We lead, let those who can, follow.

Woodbine Hotel

Facing Johnson
Park, Buffalo

Is the best location of any of Buffalo's permanent hotels. All rooms face to the park; no court rooms. Cool because of air space about it and covered with woodbine. Send for illustrated booklet and maps.

THE LADY OF LYNN

By SIR WALTER BESANT

Copyright, 1900, by Sir Walter Besant

CHAPTER XII.—Continued.

No one else had yet arrived at the Crown. The vicar laid both letters before me. Then, as when one strikes a spark in the tinder and the match ignites, flaming up, and the darkness vanishes, so did the scheme of villainy unfold itself; not all at once—one does not at one glance comprehend a conspiracy so vile—but part, I said, I did understand.

"Sir," I gasped, "this is more opportune than you suspect. Tomorrow morning at 6 at St. Nicholas' church they are to be married secretly. Oh, a gambler, a rake, one who has wasted his patrimony, to marry Molly—our Molly! Sir, you will interfere. You will do something. It is the villain, Sam; he was always a liar, a cur, a villain!"

"Steady, boy, steady," said my father. "It helps not to call names."

"It is partly revenge. He dared to make love to Molly three years ago. The captain cudgeled him handsomely, and I was there to see. It is revenge in part. He hath brought down this noble lord to marry an heiress, knowing the misery he is preparing for her. Oh, Sam, if I had been there!"

"Steady, boy," said my father again. "Who spread abroad the many virtues of this noble villain? Sam Semple—in his service, a most base and dishonorable service. Mr. Purden, the man who writes ribald verses—I thought of the Lady Anastasia, but refrained. She at least had nothing to do with this marriage. So far, however, there was much explained."

"What shall we do?"

"We must prevent the marriage of tomorrow. The captain knows nothing of it. Lord Fyldingdale persuaded Molly. He cannot marry her publicly, because he cannot join a wedding feast with people so much below him. Molly shall not keep that engagement if I have to lock the door and keep the key."

"Better than that, Jack," said the vicar. "Take these two letters. Show them to Molly and ask her to wait while the captain makes inquiries. If Lord Fyldingdale is an honorable man, he will court inquiry. If not, then we are well rid of a noble knave."

I took the letters and ran across the empty market place. On my way I saw the captain. He was walking toward the Crown, with hanging head.

Let us first deal with the captain. He entered the room, hung up his hat on the usual peg and put his stick in its accustomed corner. Then he took his seat and looked round.

"I am glad," he said, "that there is none present except you two. My friends, I am heavy at heart."

"So are we," said the vicar. "But go on, captain."

"You have heard, perhaps, a rumor of what has been arranged?"

"There are rumors of many kinds. The place is full of rumors. It is rumored that a certain Colonel Layton is a sharper. It is also rumored that Sam Semple is a villain. It is further rumored that the Rev. Benjamin Purden is a disgrace to the cloth, and there is yet another rumor. What is your rumor, captain?"

"Lord Fyldingdale proposes to marry Molly, and I have accepted, and she has accepted, but it was to be a profound secret."

"It is so profound a secret that the company at the gardens this evening are talking about nothing else."

"The captain grinned. 'I have received a letter,' he said. 'I do not believe it, but the contents are disquieting. There is no signature. Read it.'"

The vicar read it: "Captain Crowle—Sir, you are a very simple old man. You are so ignorant of London and of the fashionable world that you do not even know that Lord Fyldingdale, to whom you are about to give your ward, is the most notorious gambler, rake and profligate in the whole of that quarter where the people of fashion and of quality carry on their profligate lives. In the interests of innocence and virtue make some inquiry into the truth of this statement before laying your lovely ward in the arms of the villain who has come to Lynn with no other object than to secure her fortune."

"It is an anonymous letter," said the vicar, "but there is something to be said in support of it. From what source did you derive your belief in the virtues of this young nobleman?"

"From Sam Semple."

"Who is in the service of his lordship. I know not what he does for him, but if he is turned out of that service he will infallibly be clapped into a debtor's prison."

"There is also that grave and reverend divine—"

"The man Purden. He is notorious for writing ribald verses and for leading a life that is a disgrace to his profession."

"There is also the Lady Anastasia."

"I know nothing about her ladyship except that she keeps the bank, as they call it, every evening and that the gambling table allures many to their destruction."

"My friends," said the captain, "what am I to do?"

"You must make inquiry. You must tell Lord Fyldingdale that things have been brought to you; that you cannot believe them if, as is possible, you do not, but that you must make inquiries before trusting your ward to his protection. You are her guardian, captain."

"I am more than her guardian. I love her better than if she was my own child."

"We know you do, captain. Therefore write a letter to him. Tell him these things. Say that you must have time to make these inquiries. I will help you with the letter. And tell him as well that you must have time to draw up settlements. If he is honest, he will consent to this investigation into his private character. If he wants Molly and not her money bag, he will at once agree to the settlement of her fortune upon herself."

"I am an old fool, I suppose," said the captain. "I have believed everything and everybody. Yet I cannot—no, my friends, I cannot think that this man, so proud, so brave, who risked his life for Molly, is what this letter says."

"Other letters say the same thing. Now, captain, let us write."

The letter which was dictated by the vicar was duly written, signed and sealed. Then it was sent up stairs to his lordship's private room.

CHAPTER XIII.

A RESPIRE.

WAS as one who carries a respite for a man already in the cart and on his way to Tyburn, or I was as one who himself receives a respite on the way to Tyburn, for if the charges in those letters were true there could be no doubt as to the result of an inquiry. Nor could there be any doubt that Lord Fyldingdale in such a case would refuse an inquiry. I ran, therefore, as if everything depended on my speed, and I arrived breathless.

Molly was alone, walking about the garden restlessly. The sun was now set, but the glow of the sky lingered, and her face was flushed in the western light. "Jack," she cried, "I thought we had parted this afternoon! What has happened? You have been running. What is it?"

"A good deal has happened, Molly. For one thing, you will not be married tomorrow morning."

"Why not? Is my lord ill?"

"Not that I know of, but you will not be married tomorrow morning."

"You talk in riddles, Jack."

"Would you like to put off the wedding, Molly?"

"Alas, if I could put it off altogether! I am downhearted over it, Jack. It weighs me down like lead. But there is no escape."

"I think I have in my pocket a means of escape—a respite at least—unless there are worse liars in the world than those we have at Lynn."

"Liars at Lynn, Jack? Who are they? Oh, Jack, what has happened?"

I sat down on a garden bench. "Molly," I said, "you hold the private character of Lord Fyldingdale in the highest esteem, do you not?"

"There is no better man living. This makes me ashamed of being so loath to marry him."

"Well, but, Molly, consider. Who has bestowed this fine character upon his lordship?"

"Everybody who knows him—Sam Semple for one. He is never weary of singing the praises of his patron."

"He is a grateful soul and, on his own account, a pillar of religion. I will show you presently what an ornament he is to religion. Who else?"

"The Rev. Benjamin Purden, once his tutor. Surely he ought to know."

"Surely. Nobody ought to know better. I will show you presently how admirable a witness to character this reverend divine must be esteemed."

"There is Sir Harry Malyns, who assured us that his lordship is thought to be too virtuous for the world of fashion."

"He is himself, like the parson, a fine judge of character. Is that all?"

"No. The Lady Anastasia herself spoke to me of his nobility."

"She has also spoken to me—of other things. See here, Molly," I dug out the two letters. "What I have here contain the characters of all these excellent persons—the latest scandals about them, their reputations and their practices."

"But, Jack, what scandals? What reputations?"

"You shall see, Molly. Oh, the allegations may be false, one and all. For what I know Sam may have the wings of an archangel, and Mr. Purden may be already overripe for the new Jerusalem. But you shall read."

I offered her the letters. "No," she said. "Read them yourself."

"The first, then, is from my father's first cousin, Zackary Pentecost, a bookseller in Little Britain, which is a part of London. He is, I believe, a respectable, God-fearing man. You will observe that he does not vouch for the truth of his information."

I then read at length the letter which you have already heard.

"What do you think, Molly?"

"I don't know what to think. Is the world so wicked?"

"Here is another letter, concerning the Rev. Benjamin Purden. Observe that this is another and an independent witness." So I read the second letter, which you have also heard.

"Oh, Jack, I am overwhelmed! Tell me more, what it means!"

"It means, my dear, that a ruined gambler thought to find an heiress who would know nothing of his tarnished reputation. She must be rich. All he wanted was her money. She must not have her money tied up; it must be all in his own hands, to do with it what he chose—that is to say, to dissipate and waste it in riot and raking and gambling."

"Lord Fyldingdale? Jack, think of his face, think of his manners. Are they such as you would expect in a rake?"

"There are perhaps different kinds of rakes. Tom Rising would spend the night drinking and bawling songs. Another kind would practice wickedness as eagerly, but with more politeness. What do I know of such men? Certain I am that Lord Fyldingdale would not scour the streets and play the Mohawk, but that he has found other vices more pleasant and more, apparently, polite is quite possible."

"I don't understand, Jack. All the gentlemen like Mr. Rising drink and sing. Do all gentlemen who do not drink practice other vices?"

"Well, Molly, you have seen the vicar taste a glass of wine. He will roll it in the glass; he will hold it to the light, admiring the color; he will inhale the fragrance; he will drink it slowly, little by little, sipping the contents, and he will not take more than a single glass or two at the most. In the same time Tom Rising would have gulped down a whole bottle. One man wants to gratify many senses; the other seeks only to get drunk as quickly as he can. So, I take it, with the forbidden pleasures of the world. One man may cultivate his taste; the other may be satisfied with the coarse and plentiful debauchery. This is not, however, talk for honest folk like you and me."

"Go on with your story, Jack. Never mind the different ways of wickedness."

"Well, he heard of an heiress. She belonged to a town remote from fashion—a town of simple merchants and sailors. She was very rich; much richer than he at first believed."

"Who told him about this heiress?"

"A creature called Sam Semple, whom the captain once cudgeled. Why, Molly, it was revenge. In return for the cudgeled he would place you and your fortune in the hands of a man who would bring misery upon you and ruin on your fortune. Heavens, how the thing works out! And it happened just in the nick of time that a spring was found in the town—a spring whose medicinal properties—Ha!" I jumped to my feet. "Molly, who found that spring? Sam Semple. Who wrote to the doctor about it? Sam Semple. Who spread abroad a report that the physicians of London were sending their patients to Lynn? Sam Semple. How many patients have come to us from London? None, save and except only the party of those who came secretly in his lordship's train to sing his praises and to work his wicked will. Why, Molly—I burst into a laugh, for now I understood, as one sometimes does understand, suddenly and without proof other than the rapid conclusion, the full meaning of the whole. 'Molly, I say, there has never been any medicinal spring here at all. The doctor's well is but common spring water. There are no cures. The whole business is a plan, a bite, an invention of Sam Semple!'"

"Jack, have a care. How can that be when the doctor has a long list of cures?"

"I know it, but I do know that Sam Semple invented the spa in order to bring this invasion of sharpeners and gamblers and heiress hunters. Oh, what a liar he is! What revenge!"

What cunning! What signal service has this servant of the devil rendered to his master!"

"Truly I was carried out of myself by this discovery, which explained everything."

"So," I went on, "they came here all the way from London, their lying excuse that they were ordered here by their physicians, and we, poor, simple folk, fell into the snare. All the country-side fell into the snare, and we have been fooled into drinking common water and calling it what you please, and we have built gardens and engaged musicians and created a spa, and, oh, heavens, what a liar he is! What a liar! This comes, I suppose, of being a poet."

Then Molly laid her head upon my arm. "Jack," she said very seriously, "do you really believe this story? Only consider what it means to me." Molly was more concerned about Lord Fyldingdale than about Sam Semple.

"I believe every word of it, Molly. I believe that they have all joined in the conspiracy, more or less; that they have all got promises and that tomorrow morning, if you do not refuse to meet this man in St. Nicholas' church, you will bring upon yourself nothing but misery and ruin."

"I have promised to meet him. I must at least send him a message, if only to say that I shall not come."

"I should like to send him nothing, but you are right. It is best to be courteous. Well, you may send him a

"But afterward, Jack? What shall he do afterward? If he is innocent, he will take offense. If not?"

"If you were engaged to marry a young merchant, Molly, or to a skipper and you heard rumors of bankruptcy, drink or evil courses, what would you do?"

"I would tell him that I had heard such and such about him, and I should ask for explanations."

"Then do exactly the same with Lord Fyldingdale. He is accused of certain things. The captain must make inquiry. He is bound to inquire. Why, the vicar himself says that he would, if necessary, in order to ascertain the truth, travel all the way to London, there to learn the foundations, if any, for these charges, and afterward into Gloucestershire, where his country mansion stands, to learn on the spot what the tenants and the people of the country know of him."

"But suppose he refuses explanations. He is too proud to be called to account."

"Then send him packing. Lord or no lord, proud or humble, if he furnishes explanations, if these things are untrue, then—why, then you will consider what to do. But, Molly, I do not believe that any explanations will be forthcoming and that your noble lover will carry it off to the end with the same lofty pride and cold mien."

"Let us go into the parlor, Jack. There are the captain's writing materials. Help me to say what is proper. Oh, is it possible? Can I believe it? Are these things true? That proud man, raised above his fellows by his virtues and his rank and his principles! Jack, he risked his life for me!"

"Ask no more questions, Molly. We must have explanations. Let us write the letter."

It was Molly's first letter—the only letter, perhaps, that she will ever write in all her life. Certainly she had never written one before, nor has she ever written one since. Like most housewives, her writing is only wanted for household accounts, recipes for puddings and pies and the labeling of her bottles and jars. I have the letter before me at this moment. It is written in a large, sprawling hand, and the spelling is not such as would satisfy my father.

Naturally she looked to me for advice. I had written many letters to my owners and to foreign merchants about cargoes, and the like, and was therefore able to advise the composition of a letter which should be justly expressed and to the point:

"Honored Lord—This is from me at the present moment in my guardian's parlor—writing parlor when I am mate of the ship should have written port or harbor. 'It is to inform you that intelligence has been brought by letters from London and Cambridge. Touching the matters referred to in these letters, I have to report for your satisfaction that they call your lordship in round terms a gambler and a ruined rake and your companions at the spa—viz. Sam Semple, the parson, the rickety old bean and the colonel—simple rogues, common cheats and sharpeners. Shall not, therefore, meet your lordship at the church tomorrow morning as instructed. Awaiting your lordship's explanations and commands, your most obedient, humble servant,

"MOLLY."

This letter I folded, sealed, addressed and dropped into my pocket. Then I bade Molly good night, entreated her to be thankful for her escape and so left her with a light heart. Verily it seemed as if the sadness of the last two months had been wholly and suddenly lifted, and on my way back to the Crown I passed the Lady Anastasia's lodging just as her chair was brought to the house. I opened the door for her and stood hat in hand.

"Why, it is Jack!" she cried. "It is the sailor Jack, the constant lover. Have you anything more to tell me?"

"Only that Molly will not keep that appointment of tomorrow evening."

"Oh, that interesting appointment in St. Nicholas' church. May a body ask why the ceremony has been postponed?"

"Things have been disclosed at the last moment, fortunately in time."

"What things, and by whom?"

"By letter. It is stated as a fact well known that Lord Fyldingdale is nothing better than a ruined rake and a notorious gambler."

"Indeed! The excellent Lord Fyldingdale! Impossible! Quite impossible! The illustrious example of so many virtues! The explanations will be, I am sure, complete and satisfactory. Ruined; a rake; a notorious gambler! What next will the world say? Does his lordship know of this discovery? Not yet? You said it was a discovery, did you not? Well, my friend, I am much obliged to you for telling me. You are quite sure Molly will not be there? Very good of you to tell me. For my own part I start for London quite early—at 5 o'clock. Goodbye, Jack!"

Then I went into the Crown, where I learned that the captain had been reading another letter containing accusations as bad as those in the other two.

So we fell to talking over the business, and it was resolved that the captain should demand explanations by letter, that he should refuse to receive the villain Sam Semple or his lordship and that the vicar should, if necessary, proceed to London and there learn what he could concerning the past history and the present reputation of the noble suitor. Meantime I said no more about the intended marriage at St. Nicholas' church and the abandonment of the plan. As things turned out, would have been far better had I to the captain and had we both plant ourselves as sentinels at the door, so to be quite sure that Molly did not forth at 6 in the morning.

That evening, after leaving the Crown, I myself take it to the Crown."

"But afterward, Jack? What shall he do afterward? If he is innocent, he will take offense. If not?"

"If you were engaged to marry a young merchant, Molly, or to a skipper and you heard rumors of bankruptcy, drink or evil courses, what would you do?"

"I would tell him that I had heard such and such about him, and I should ask for explanations."

"Then do exactly the same with Lord Fyldingdale. He is accused of certain things. The captain must make inquiry. He is bound to inquire. Why, the vicar himself says that he would, if necessary, in order to ascertain the truth, travel all the way to London, there to learn the foundations, if any, for these charges, and afterward into Gloucestershire, where his country mansion stands, to learn on the spot what the tenants and the people of the country know of him."

"But suppose he refuses explanations. He is too proud to be called to account."

"Then send him packing. Lord or no lord, proud or humble, if he furnishes explanations, if these things are untrue, then—why, then you will consider what to do. But, Molly, I do not believe that any explanations will be forthcoming and that your noble lover will carry it off to the end with the same lofty pride and cold mien."

"Let us go into the parlor, Jack. There are the captain's writing materials. Help me to say what is proper. Oh, is it possible? Can I believe it? Are these things true? That proud man, raised above his fellows by his virtues and his rank and his principles! Jack, he risked his life for me!"

"Ask no more questions, Molly. We must have explanations. Let us write the letter."

It was Molly's first letter—the only letter, perhaps, that she will ever write in all her life. Certainly she had never written one before, nor has she ever written one since. Like most housewives, her writing is only wanted for household accounts, recipes for puddings and pies and the labeling of her bottles and jars. I have the letter before me at this moment. It is written in a large, sprawling hand, and the spelling is not such as would satisfy my father.

Naturally she looked to me for advice. I had written many letters to my owners and to foreign merchants about cargoes, and the like, and was therefore able to advise the composition of a letter which should be justly expressed and to the point:

"Honored Lord—This is from me at the present moment in my guardian's parlor—writing parlor when I am mate of the ship should have written port or harbor. 'It is to inform you that intelligence has been brought by letters from London and Cambridge. Touching the matters referred to in these letters, I have to report for your satisfaction that they call your lordship in round terms a gambler and a ruined rake and your companions at the spa—viz. Sam Semple, the parson, the rickety old bean and the colonel—simple rogues, common cheats and sharpeners. Shall not, therefore, meet your lordship at the church tomorrow morning as instructed. Awaiting your lordship's explanations and commands, your most obedient, humble servant,

"MOLLY."

This letter I folded, sealed, addressed and dropped into my pocket. Then I bade Molly good night, entreated her to be thankful for her escape and so left her with a light heart. Verily it seemed as if the sadness of the last two months had been wholly and suddenly lifted, and on my way back to the Crown I passed the Lady Anastasia's lodging just as her chair was brought to the house. I opened the door for her and stood hat in hand.

"Why, it is Jack!" she cried. "It is the sailor Jack, the constant lover. Have you anything more to tell me?"

"Only that Molly will not keep that appointment of tomorrow evening."

"Oh, that interesting appointment in St. Nicholas' church. May a body ask why the ceremony has been postponed?"

"Things have been disclosed at the last moment, fortunately in time."

"What things, and by whom?"

"By letter. It is stated as a fact well known that Lord Fyldingdale is nothing better than a ruined rake and a notorious gambler."

"Indeed! The excellent Lord Fyldingdale! Impossible! Quite impossible! The illustrious example of so many virtues! The explanations will be, I am sure, complete and satisfactory. Ruined; a rake; a notorious gambler! What next will the world say? Does his lordship know of this discovery? Not yet? You said it was a discovery, did you not? Well, my friend, I am much obliged to you for telling me. You are quite sure Molly will not be there? Very good of you to tell me. For my own part I start for London quite early—at 5 o'clock. Goodbye, Jack!"

Then I went into the Crown, where I learned that the captain had been reading another letter containing accusations as bad as those in the other two.

So we fell to talking over the business, and it was resolved that the captain should demand explanations by letter, that he should refuse to receive the villain Sam Semple or his lordship and that the vicar should, if necessary, proceed to London and there learn what he could concerning the past history and the present reputation of the noble suitor. Meantime I said no more about the intended marriage at St. Nicholas' church and the abandonment of the plan. As things turned out, would have been far better had I to the captain and had we both plant ourselves as sentinels at the door, so to be quite sure that Molly did not forth at 6 in the morning.

That evening, after leaving

the Crown, I myself take it to the Crown."

"But afterward, Jack? What shall he do afterward? If he is innocent, he will take offense. If not?"

"If you were engaged to marry a young merchant, Molly, or to a skipper and you heard rumors of bankruptcy, drink or evil courses, what would you do?"

"I would tell him that I had heard such and such about him, and I should ask for explanations."

"Then do exactly the same with Lord Fyldingdale. He is accused of certain things. The captain must make inquiry. He is bound to inquire. Why, the vicar himself says that he would, if necessary, in order to ascertain the truth, travel all the way to London, there to learn the foundations, if any, for these charges, and afterward into Gloucestershire, where his country mansion stands, to learn on the spot what the tenants and the people of the country know of him."

"But suppose he refuses explanations. He is too proud to be called to account."

"Then send him packing. Lord or no lord, proud or humble, if he furnishes explanations, if these things are untrue, then—why, then you will consider what to do. But, Molly, I do not believe that any explanations will be forthcoming and that your noble lover will carry it off to the end with the same lofty pride and cold mien."

"Let us go into the parlor, Jack. There are the captain's writing materials. Help me to say what is proper. Oh, is it possible? Can I believe it? Are these things true? That proud man, raised above his fellows by his virtues and his rank and his principles! Jack, he risked his life for me!"

"Ask no more questions, Molly. We must have explanations. Let us write the letter."

It was Molly's first letter—the only letter, perhaps, that she will ever write in all her life. Certainly she had never written one before, nor has she ever written one since. Like most housewives, her writing is only wanted for household accounts, recipes for puddings and pies and the labeling of her bottles and jars. I have the letter before me at this moment. It is written in a large, sprawling hand, and the spelling is not such as would satisfy my father.

Naturally she looked to me for advice. I had written many letters to my owners and to foreign merchants about cargoes, and the like, and was therefore able to advise the composition of a letter which should be justly expressed and to the point:

"Honored Lord—This is from me at the present moment in my guardian's parlor—writing parlor when I am mate of the ship should have written port or harbor. 'It is to inform you that intelligence has been brought by letters from London and Cambridge. Touching the matters referred to in these letters, I have to report for your satisfaction that they call your lordship in round terms a gambler and a ruined rake and your companions at the spa—viz. Sam Semple, the parson, the rickety old bean and the colonel—simple rogues, common cheats and sharpeners. Shall not, therefore, meet your lordship at the church tomorrow morning as instructed. Awaiting your lordship's explanations and commands, your most obedient, humble servant,

"MOLLY."

This letter I folded, sealed, addressed and dropped into my pocket. Then I bade Molly good night, entreated her to be thankful for her escape and so left her with a light heart. Verily it seemed as if the sadness of the last two months had been wholly and suddenly lifted, and on my way back to the Crown I passed the Lady Anastasia's lodging just as her chair was brought to the house. I opened the door for her and stood hat in hand.

"Why, it is Jack!" she cried. "It is the sailor Jack, the constant lover. Have you anything more to tell me?"

"Only that Molly will not keep that appointment of tomorrow evening."

"Oh, that interesting appointment in St. Nicholas' church. May a body ask why the ceremony has been postponed?"

"Things have been disclosed at the last moment, fortunately in time."

"What things, and by whom?"

"By letter. It is stated as a fact well known that Lord Fyldingdale is nothing better than a ruined rake and a notorious gambler."

"Indeed! The excellent Lord Fyldingdale! Impossible! Quite impossible! The illustrious example of so many virtues! The explanations will be, I am sure, complete and satisfactory. Ruined; a rake; a notorious gambler! What next will the world say? Does his lordship know of this discovery? Not yet? You said it was a discovery, did you not? Well, my friend, I am much obliged to you for telling me. You are quite sure Molly will not be there? Very good of you to tell me. For my own part I start for London quite early—at 5 o'clock. Goodbye, Jack!"

Then I went into the Crown, where I learned that the captain had been reading another letter containing accusations as bad as those in the other two.

So we fell to talking over the business, and it was resolved that the captain should demand explanations by letter, that he should refuse to receive the villain Sam Semple or his lordship and that the vicar should, if necessary, proceed to London and there learn what he could concerning the past history and the present reputation of the noble suitor. Meantime I said no more about the intended marriage at St. Nicholas' church and the abandonment of the plan. As things turned out, would have been far better had I to the captain and had we both plant ourselves as sentinels at the door, so to be quite sure that Molly did not forth at 6 in the morning.

That evening, after leaving

the Crown, I myself take it to the Crown."

"But afterward, Jack? What shall he do afterward? If he is innocent, he will take offense. If not?"

"If you were engaged to marry a young merchant, Molly, or to a skipper and you heard rumors of bankruptcy, drink or evil courses, what would you do?"

"I would tell him that I had heard such and such about him, and I should ask for explanations."

"Then do exactly the same with Lord Fyldingdale. He is accused of certain things. The captain must make inquiry. He is bound to inquire. Why, the vicar himself says that he would, if necessary, in order to ascertain the truth, travel all the way to London, there to learn the foundations, if any, for these charges, and afterward into Gloucestershire, where his country mansion stands, to learn on the spot what the tenants and the people of the country know of him."

"But suppose he refuses explanations. He is too proud to be called to account."

"Then send him packing. Lord or no lord, proud or humble, if he furnishes explanations

THE LADY OF LYNN

By SIR WALTER BESANT

Copyright, 1900, by Sir Walter Besant

CHAPTER XII.—Continued.

No one else had yet arrived at the Crown. The vicar laid both letters before me. Then, as when one strikes a spark in the tinder and the match ignites, flaming up, and the darkness vanishes, so did the scheme of villainy unfold itself; not all at once—one does not at one glance comprehend a conspiracy so vile—but part, I say, I did understand.

"Sir," I gasped, "this is more opportune than you suspect. Tomorrow morning at 6 at St. Nicholas' church they are to be married secretly. Oh, a gambler, a rake, one who has wasted his patrimony, to marry Molly—our Molly! Sir, you will interfere. You will do something. It is the villain. Sam; he was always a liar, a cur, a villain!"

"Steady, boy, steady," said my father. "It helps not to call names."

"It is partly revenge. He dared to make love to Molly three years ago. The captain eulogized him handsomely, and I was there to see. It is revenge in part. He hath brought down this noble lord to marry an heiress, knowing the misery he is preparing for her. Oh, Sam, if I had been there!"

"Steady, boy," said my father again. "Who spread abroad the many virtues of this noble villain? Sam Semple—in his service, a most base and dishonorable service. Mr. Purden, the man who writes ribald verses"—I thought of the Lady Anastasia! but refrained. She at least had nothing to do with this marriage. So far, however, there was much explained.

"What shall we do?"

"We must prevent the marriage of tomorrow. The captain knows nothing of it. Lord Fylingdale persuaded Molly. He cannot marry her publicly, because he cannot join a wedding feast with people so much below him. Molly shall not keep that engagement if I have to lock the door and keep the key."

"Better than that, Jack," said the vicar. "Take these two letters. Show them to Molly and ask her to wait while the captain makes inquiries. If Lord Fylingdale is an honorable man, he will court inquiry. If not, then we are well rid of a noble knave."

I took the letters and ran across the empty market place. On my way I saw the captain, with hanging head.

Let us first deal with the captain. He entered the room, hung up his hat on the usual peg and put his stick in its accustomed corner. Then he took his seat and looked round.

"I am glad," he said, "that there is none present except you two. My friends, I am heavy at heart."

"So are we," said the vicar. "But go on, captain."

"You have heard, perhaps, a rumor of what has been arranged?"

"There are rumors of many kinds. The place is full of rumors. It is rumored that a certain Colonel Layton is a sharper. It is also rumored that Sam Semple is a villain. It is further rumored that the Rev. Benjamin Purden is a disgrace to the cloth, and there is yet another rumor. What is your rumor, captain?"

"Lord Fylingdale proposes to marry Molly, and I have accepted, and she has accepted, but it was to be a profound secret."

"It is so profound a secret that the company at the gardens this evening are talking about nothing else."

"The captain gasped. 'I have received a letter,' he said. 'I do not believe it, but the contents are disgusting. There is no signature. Read it.'"

The vicar read it: "Captain Crowle—Sir, you are a very simple old man. You are so ignorant of London and of the fashionable world that you do not even know that Lord Fylingdale, to whom you are about to give your ward, is the most notorious gambler, rake and profligate in the whole of that quarter where the people of fashion and of quality carry on their profligate lives. In the interests of innocence and virtue make some inquiry into the truth of this statement before laying your lovely ward in the arms of the villain who has come to Lynn with no other object than to secure her fortune."

"It is an anonymous letter," said the vicar, "but there is something to be said in support of it. From what source did you derive your belief in the virtues of this young nobleman?"

"From Sam Semple."

"Who is in the service of his lordship. I know not what he does for him, but if he is turned out of that service he will infallibly be clapped into a debtor's prison."

"There is also that grave and reverend divine!"

"The man Purden. He is notorious for writing ribald verses and for leading a life that is a disgrace to his profession."

"There is also the Lady Anastasia."

"I know nothing about her ladyship except that she keeps the bank, as they call it, every evening and that the gambling table allures many to their destruction."

"My friends," said the captain, "what am I to do?"

"You must tell Lord Fylingdale that things have been brought to you; that you cannot believe them if, as is possible, you do not, but that you must make inquiries before trusting your ward to his protection. You are her guardian, captain."

"I am more than her guardian. I love her better than if she was my own child."

"We know you do, captain. Therefore write a letter to him. Tell him these things. Say that you must have time to make these inquiries. I will help you with the letter. And tell him as well that you must have time to draw up settlements. If he is honest, he will consent to this investigation into his private character. If he wants Molly and not her money bag, he will at once agree to the settlement of her fortune upon herself."

"I am an old fool, I suppose," said the captain. "I have believed everything and everybody. Yet I cannot—no, my friends, I cannot think that this man, so proud, so brave, who risked his life for Molly, is what this letter says."

"Other letters say the same thing. Now, captain, let us write."

The letter which was dictated by the vicar was duly written, signed and sealed. Then it was sent up stairs to his lordship's private room.

CHAPTER XIII. A RESPIRE.

WAS as one who carries a respite for a man already in the cart and on his way to Tyburn, or I was as one who himself receives a respite on the way to Tyburn, for if the charges in those letters were true there could be no doubt as to the result of an inquiry. Nor could there be any doubt that Lord Fylingdale in such a case would refuse an inquiry. I ran, therefore, as if everything depended on my speed, and I arrived breathless.

Molly was alone, walking about the garden restlessly. The sun was now set, but the glow of the sky lingered, and her face was flushed in the western light. "Jack," she cried, "I thought we had parted this afternoon! What has happened? You have been running. What is it?"

"A good deal has happened, Molly. For one thing, you will not be married tomorrow morning."

"Why not? Is my lord ill?"

"Not that I know of, but you will not be married tomorrow morning."

"You talk in riddles, Jack."

"Would you like to put off the wedding, Molly?"

"Alas, if I could put it off altogether! I am downhearted over it, Jack. It weighs me down like lead. But there is no escape."

"I think I have in my pocket a means of escape—a respite at least—unless there are worse liars in the world than those we have at Lynn."

"Liars at Lynn, Jack? Who are they? Oh, Jack, what has happened?"

I sat down on a garden bench. "Molly," I said, "you hold the private character of Lord Fylingdale in the highest esteem, do you not?"

"There is no better man living. This makes me ashamed of being so loath to marry him."

"Well, but, Molly, consider. Who has bestowed this fine character upon his lordship?"

"Everybody who knows him—Sam Semple for one. He is never weary of singing the praises of his patron."

"He is a grateful soul and, on his own account, a pillar of religion. I will show you presently what an ornament he is to religion. Who else?"

"The Rev. Benjamin Purden, once his tutor. Surely he ought to know."

"Surely. Nobody ought to know better. I will show you presently how admirable a witness to character this reverend divine must be esteemed."

"There is Sir Harry Malynes, who assured us that his lordship is thought to be too virtuous for the world of fashion."

"He is himself, like the parson, a fine judge of character. Is that all?"

"No. The Lady Anastasia herself spoke to me of his nobility."

"She has also spoken to me—of other things. See here, Molly," I luggered out the two letters. "What I have here contain the characters of all these excellent persons—the latest scandals about them, their reputations and their practices."

"But, Jack, what scandals? What reputations?"

"You shall see, Molly. Oh, the allegations may be false, one and all. For what I know Sam may have the wings of an archangel, and Mr. Purden may be already overripe for the new Jerusalem. But you shall read."

I offered her the letters. "No," she said. "Read them yourself."

"The first, then, is from my father's first cousin, Zackary Pentecost, a bookseller in Little Britain, which is a part of London. He is, I believe, a respectable, God-fearing man. You will observe that he does not vouch for the truth of his information."

I then read at length the letter which you have already heard.

"What do you think, Molly?"

"I don't know what to think. Is the world so wicked?"

"Here is another letter, concerning the Rev. Benjamin Purden. Observe that this is another and an independent witness." So I read the second letter, which you have also heard.

gentleman, Molly?"

"Oh, Jack, I am overwhelmed! Tell me more, what it means!"

"It means, my dear, that a ruined gambler thought to find an heiress who would know nothing of his tarnished reputation. She must be rich. All he wanted was her money. She must not have her money tied up; it must be all in his own hands, to do with it what he chose—that is to say, to dissipate and waste it in riot and raking and gambling!"

"Lord Fylingdale? Jack, think of his face, think of his manners. Are they such as you would expect in a rake?"

"There are perhaps different kinds of rakes. Tom Rising would spend the night drinking and bawling songs. Another kind would practice wickedness as eagerly, but with more politeness. What do I know of such men? Certain I am that Lord Fylingdale would not secure the streets and play the Mohawk, but that he has found other vices more pleasant and more, apparently, polite is quite possible."

"I don't understand, Jack. All the gentlemen like Mr. Rising drink and sing. Do all gentlemen who do not drink practice other vices?"

"Well, Molly, you have seen the vicar taste a glass of wine. He will roll it in the glass; he will hold it to the light, admiring the color; he will inhale the fragrance; he will drink it slowly, little by little, sipping the contents, and he will not take more than a single glass or two at the most. In the same time Tom Rising would have gulped down a whole bottle. One man wants to gratify many senses; the other seeks only to get drunk as quickly as he can. So, I take it, with the forbidden pleasures of the world. One man may cultivate his taste; the other may be satisfied with the coarse and plentiful debauchery. This is not, however, talk for honest folk like you and me."

"Go on with your story, Jack. Never mind the different ways of wickedness."

"Well, he heard of an heiress. She belonged to a town remote from fashion—a town of simple merchants and sailors. She was very rich; much richer than he at first believed!"

"Who told him about this heiress?"

"A creature called Sam Semple, whom the captain once eulogized. Why, Molly, it was revenge. In return for the eulogizing he would place you and your fortune in the hands of a man who would bring misery upon you and ruin on your fortune. Heavens, how the thing works out! And it happened just in the nick of time that a spring was found in the town—a spring whose medicinal properties—Ha!" I jumped to my feet. "Molly, who found that spring? Sam Semple. Who wrote to the doctor about it? Sam Semple. Who spread abroad a report that the physicians of London were sending their patients to Lynn? Sam Semple. How many patients have come to us from London? None, save and except only the party of those who came secretly in his lordship's train to sing his praises and to work his wicked will. Why, Molly—I burst into a laugh, for now I understood, as one sometimes does understand, suddenly and without proof other than the rapid conclusion, the full meaning of the whole. 'Molly, I say, there has never been any medicinal spring here at all. The doctor's well is but common spring water. There are no cures. The whole business is a plan, a bite, an invention of Sam Semple!'"

"Jack, have a care. How can that be when the doctor has a long list of cures?"

"I know it, but I do know that Sam Semple invented the spa in order to bring this invasion of sharpeners and gamblers and heiress hunters. Oh, what a liar he is! What revenge!"

What cunning! What signal service has this servant of the devil rendered to his master!"

Truly I was carried out of myself by this discovery, which explained everything.

"So," I went on, "they came here all the way from London, their lying excuse that they were ordered here by their physicians, and we, poor, simple folk, fell into the snare. All the countryside fell into the snare, and we have been fooled into drinking common water and calling it what you please, and we have built gardens and engaged musicians and created a spa, and, oh, heavens, what a liar he is! What a liar! This comes, I suppose, of being a poet."

Then Molly laid her head upon my arm. "Jack," she said very seriously, "do you really believe this story? Only consider what it means to me!" Molly was more concerned about Lord Fylingdale than about Sam Semple.

"I believe every word of it, Molly. I believe that they have all joined in the conspiracy, more or less; that they have all got promises and that tomorrow morning, if you do not refuse to meet this man in St. Nicholas' church, you will bring upon yourself nothing but misery and ruin."

"I have promised to meet him. I must at least send him a message, if only to say that I shall not come."

"I should like to send him nothing, but you are right. It is best to be courteous. Well, you may send him a letter. I will myself take it to the Crown."

"But afterward, Jack? What shall we do afterward? If he is innocent, he will take offense, if not!"

"If you were engaged to marry a young merchant, Molly, or to a skipper and you heard rumors of bankruptcy, drink or evil courses, what would you do?"

"I would tell him that I had heard such and such about him, and I should ask for explanations."

"Then do exactly the same with Lord Fylingdale. He is accused of certain things. The captain must make inquiry. He is bound to inquire. Why, the vicar himself says that he would, if necessary, in order to ascertain the truth, travel all the way to London, there to learn the foundations, if any, for these charges, and afterward into Gloucestershire, where his country mansion stands, to learn on the spot what the tenants and the people of the country know of him."

"But suppose he refuses explanations. He is too proud to be called to account."

"Then send him packing. Lord or no lord, proud or humble, if he furnishes explanations, if these things are untrue, then—why, then you will consider what to do. But, Molly, I do not believe that any explanations will be forthcoming and that your noble lover will carry it off to the end with the same lofty pride and cold mien."

"Let us go into the parlor, Jack. There are the captain's writing materials. Help me to say what is proper. Oh, is it possible? Can I believe it? Are these things true? That proud man, raised above his fellows by his virtues and his rank and his principles! Jack, he risked his life for me."

"Ask no more questions, Molly. We must have explanations. Let us write the letter."

It was Molly's first letter—the only letter, perhaps, that she will ever write in all her life. Certainly she had never written one before, nor has she ever written one since. Like most housewives, her writing is only wanted for household accounts, recipes for puddings and pies and the labeling of her bottles and jars. I have the letter before me at this moment. It is written in a large, sprawling hand, and the spelling is not such as would satisfy my father.

Naturally she looked to me for advice. I had written many letters to my owners and to foreign merchants about cargoes, and the like, and was therefore able to advise the composition of a letter which should be justly expressed and to the point:

"Honored Lord—This is from me at the present moment in my guardian's parlor—writing parlor when I am mate of the ship should have written port or harbor. 'It is to inform you that intelligence has been brought by letters from London and Cambridge. Touching the matters referred to in these letters, I have to report for your satisfaction that they call your lordship in round terms a gambler and a ruined rake and your companions at the spe—viz, Sam Semple, the parson, the rickety old bean and the colonel—simple rogues, common cheats and sharpeners. Shall not, therefore, meet your lordship at the church tomorrow morning as instructed. Awaiting your lordship's explanations and commands, your most obedient, humble servant,

"MOLLY."

This letter I folded, sealed, addressed and dropped into my pocket. Then I bade Molly good night, entreated her to be thankful for her escape and so left her with a light heart. Verily it seemed as if the sadness of the last two months had been wholly and suddenly lifted, and on my way back to the Crown I passed the Lady Anastasia's lodging just as her chair was brought to the house. I opened the door for her and stood hat in hand.

"Why, it is Jack!" she cried. "It is the sailor Jack, the constant lover. Have you anything more to tell me?"

"Only that Molly will not keep that appointment of tomorrow evening!"

"Oh, that interesting appointment in St. Nicholas' church. May a body ask why the ceremony has been postponed?"

"Things have been disclosed at the last moment, fortunately in time."

"What things, and by whom?"

"By letter. It is stated as a fact well known that Lord Fylingdale is nothing better than a ruined rake and a notorious gambler."

"Indeed! The excellent Lord Fylingdale! Impossible! Quite impossible! The illustrious example of so many virtues! The explanations will be, I am sure, complete and satisfactory. Ruined; a rake; a notorious gambler! What next will the world say? Does his lordship know of this discovery? Not yet? You said it was a discovery, did you not? Well, my friend, I am much obliged to you for telling me. You are quite sure Molly will not be there? Very good of you to tell me. For my own part I start for London quite early—at 5 o'clock. Goodbye, Jack!"

Then I went into the Crown, where I learned that the captain had been reading another letter containing accusations as bad as those in the other two.

So we fell to talking over the business, and it was resolved that the captain should demand explanations by letter, that he should refuse to receive the villain Sam Semple or his lordship and that the vicar should, if necessary, proceed to London and there learn what he could concerning the past history and the present reputation of the noble suitor. Meantime I said no more about the intended marriage at St. Nicholas' church and the abandonment of the plan. As things turned out, would have been far better had I to the captain and had we both planned ourselves as sentinels at the door, so to be quite sure that Molly did not forth at 6 in the morning.

That evening, after leaving

Anastasia sent a note to Lord Fylingdale. "I am leaving Lynn early tomorrow morning. I expect to be in London in two days. Shall write to Molly."

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

GOWNS OF THE DAY.

Stiff Neck Fixings Entirely Out of It. Other Smart Notions.

A very noticeable feature of summer dress is the simplicity of color, or, rather, the predominating use of neutral colors in delicate shades of gray and beige, besides every possible tint of white. Even the foulards are delicate in coloring and are toned down still more by the use of stitched bands of cloth or taffeta in the predominating color of the silk.

In all the summer gowns, whether they are of silk, muslin or linen, the collar bands and the chemisettes are as transparent as it is possible to make them and have them keep in place at all. Stiff neck fixings of any sort are entirely out of it this season, and many gowns have no choker collar at all, being cut out just below the collar line in a round neck, a mode so becoming to the exceptional style of beauty and so unbecoming to the average woman. However, this is an inevitable mode with the latest style of hairdressing, the low coil in the nape of the neck, one being a pretty accompaniment for the other.

This low neck and elbow sleeves are shown in the illustration from the New York Sun, which is authority also for these items of fashion. The gown is a white organdie with a lattice-work design in black lace insertion. A flower design in applique lace is added in the front of the skirt and bodice.

Another feature which is a natural outcome of the low dressed hair is the bow of ribbon or fall of lace at the back of the hat, filling in the space which otherwise would make an ugly line. The brims droop somewhat, of course, but the bow is necessary to soften the effect.

ORGANDIE GOWN WITH LOW NECK.

The Louis XV period in dress is more and more in evidence all the time. Flowered effects, generally in silks, muslins and trimmings, are convincing proof that this one page of time has been turned back for inspiration. Brocaded silk insertions and motifs are set into lace gowns, and striped and plain muslins are trimmed with medallions of cretonne flowers set inside shaped designs of lace.

All the dressy gowns are long and very fluffy, with gauzy ruffles around the feet. The one idea in the finish at the hem is to give as much of the diaphanous effect as possible, and we see a series of chiffon ruffles around the hem of a foulard gown.

A new and very smart idea in trimming is the use of taffeta bands on white batiste. They may be straight or waved on the edges and dotted over with French dots of embroidered polka dots. The silk may be white or some pale color, as you fancy, but in either case the effect is stunning.

This idea of using silk on thin muslin is seen again in satin ribbon two inches wide on a white organdie. Three rows of this, with spaces between, are sewed around the skirt, and the yoke is of alternate bands of ribbon and lace insertion, with tiny bows at the end of each band.

Men's Styles.

Light homespun suits are good looking, besides being cool and comfortable for summer, but there is one objection to the material; it is liable to get out of shape unless very carefully worn and looked after.

Dark blue serge is a light and cool material for summer wear, and it seems to be again coming into vogue among the larger number of well-dressed men. Though made both single and double breasted, the latter cut goes extremely well with white or light dannel trousers and carries with it a suggestion of the sea, blue serge and white dannel being pre-eminently yachting materials.

If one does not care for the double breasted or ordinary type of single breasted coat, that cut with only one row of buttons, but straight and square in front, is a good style for blue serge. The lapels may be of the usual sack coat shape or broader and peaked as one desires, and the pockets may be either patched or of the ordinary type with flaps.—Vogue.

Cries of Animals.

The roar of a lion can be heard farther than the sound of any other living creature. Next comes the cry of a hyena, and then the hoot of the owl. After these the panther and the jackal. The donkey can be heard 50 times farther than the horse and the cat ten times farther than the dog. Strange as it may seem, the cry of a hare can be heard farther than that of either the cat or the dog.

They Never Fail.

An Invalid

of the weakest type can take

Clinic

Headache Wafers.

They are absolutely harmless, easy to take, speedy and sure—a true heart tonic. All druggists. 10 cents.

CLINIC PHARMACAL CO.

TORONTO, OHIO.

Can and Can't

Where there is a job to be done secure the services of a

Plumber

who will do that job successfully. One that will overcome any and all difficulties and use the best material. Don't employ a firm that can't do skillfully everything pertaining to its line. If you desire satisfactory work employ

ARBUTHNOT BROS.,

Practical Plumbers,

Corner Broadway and Fifth St.

THE FIRST NATIONAL....

BANK

OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

President—David Boyce.

Vice President—J. M. Kelly.

Cashier—N. G. Macrum.

Asst. Cashier—Thos. H. Fisher.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

David Boyce, W. L. Thompson;

J. M. Kelly, O. C. Volrey;

B. C. Simms, Jno. C. Thompson

Jas. N. Volrey.

CAPITAL - - $100,000

SURPLUS - - $100,000

General Banking Business.

Invites Business and Personal Accounts

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES FOR RENT.

193 Washington Street.

When

You want any job in the BUILDING

LINE

done well and quick. Come to us as our reputation is established.

J. C. CAIN & CO.,

Telephone "Bell" 293 and 357.

FURNISHED ROOMS FOR RENT.

WITH USE OF BATH.

THE ANDERSON HOUSE

Cor. Walnut and Robinson Sts.

New Era Restaurant,

Billiard Hall and Cafe,

J. C. WALSH, Prop.

110 and 112 Sixth Street,

East Liverpool, O.

Tobacco and Cigar department stocked with the finest cigars and Tobacco in the market. Dining room up to date. Table d'hôte meals 25c. Banquets a specialty. Best furnished billiard and pool room in the state. Lighted with electric lights. Bar open from 7 a. m. to 11 p. m.

FARES TO BUFFALO

Over Pennsylvania Lines for Pan-American Exposition

Excursion tickets to Buffalo for the Pan-American Exposition are now on sale at ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Lines. Fares from East Liverpool are as follows: Tickets good returning ten days, $7.70. Tickets good returning fifteen days, $8.05. Season tickets with return limit until Oct. 31st, $10.75. Special coach excursion tickets good leaving Buffalo up to midnight of Thursday following date of sale will be sold Tuesdays at $1.65. Tourist tickets at special fares may also be obtained for trips via Buffalo to resorts in Canada. Such tickets will be good for stop over at Buffalo to see the Pan-American Exposition, by payment of $1 extra at Buffalo. For time tables and further information apply to ADAM HILL, Ticket Agent, Pennsylvania Lines, East Liverpool, O. e-o-d 755

Your Summer Outing Now.

The floating palaces of the Detroit and Cleveland Navigation Company are more beautiful than ever this season and have many added conveniences. The parlors and staterooms are newly furnished, and traveling is made delightful over this popular route. Their service has been improved and now makes good connections with all railroads at each of their ports. Send 2c. stamp for illustrated pamphlet. Address A. A. SHANTZ, G. P. A. DETROIT, MICH. 2-e-o-d-ft

If Necessary—One of the Attorneys
For the Arbuckles, Said an Offer
Was Made to Them to Secure a Verdict For Defendant.

July and August. Direct connections will be made with C & B. Line on night and day trips. Apply for Special Rates.

If Necessary—One of the Attorneys
For the Arbuckles, Said an Offer
Was Made to Them to Secure a Verdict For Defendant.

made with C & D. line on night and day trips. Apply for Special Rates.

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,
Cor. 6th and Washington Sts.,
Second Floor Grand Building.

Sale List No. 11. Call for previous lists.

- (91) Seventh st., 8 room frame slate roof house; hall cellar, portico, city water, two lots, making 60 feet front and 130 feet deep. Price $2,750.
- (92) Seventh st., 8 room frame slate roof house. Very substantially built; cellar, front portico, good stable, lot 46 foot front and 130 feet deep. Level and situated in best residence portion. Owner desirous of selling. Price low.
- (93) Second st., 6 room frame slate roof house, lately remodeled and in good repair, sewer, bath and city water. Lot 30x130. Well located. Price $3,200.
- (94) Avondale st., 6 room frame slate roof house. Lot 45 feet front, extending through to Oak street. Price $1,600.
- (95) Sunnyside, West End, 3 room house with 3 lots 30x100 each. Set out in trees and vines. Pleasant and in good order. Price $1,400.
- (96) Edgewood avenue. Head of May street. Vacant lot 40x100. Fine view obtained. Will sell lot in halves. Will build house to suit purchaser. Twenty-five per cent down, balance in monthly payments. Price of lot $500.
- (97) Trentvale st., four room slate roof house, front portico; city water, street paved. Price $1,000.
- (98) Thompson hill. Fine residence of 12 rooms. Modern conveniences complete. Large lawn, good view; free from smoke and dirt. Only 5 minutes walk from business center. Owner anxious to sell. Inquire for price.
- (99) Vine st., Liverpool Land Co., addition. One well located vacant lot. Streets paved and sewer; gas main laid. Will sell cheap. Nothing better in improved lots offered in the city at price. Several new residences under way and plans out for others.
- (100) Avondale st., fine modern cottage of 6 rooms in excellent repair. Street paved. Lot 40 feet wide; corners on alley and street. Price $2,100.
- Properties, vacant and improved, business and residential, to sell on every street and addition in the city at prices that make them sell. Terms to suit your capital and income. See us about them. Our time is at your disposal.

EAST END PROPERTIES.

- (101) Etruria st., 7 room modern, new house. In best of order and repair; gas, city water and sewer. Lot 98x120. Well situated and located. Lles level, green and pretty. Fine view of the Ohio. A beautiful place. Price $3,000.
- (102) First avenue. Four room house of two stories. Slate roof, gas and water. Lot 35x100. Price $1,550.
- (103) Klondike, near pottery. Vacant lot 30x100 with foundation for a house. Price $200.
- (104) St. George st. Five room, 2 story frame slate roof house. Gas water, furnace, cellar, side porch, lot lies level. Price upon inquiry.
- (105) High st. Two story, frame 6 room slate roof house. Well water, good cellar; easy of access. Overlooks lower East End. Above the fog line. Lot 40x125. Price upon inquiry.
- (106) Globe st. Oakland addition. Two story frame, slate roof house of 6 rooms. Stable on lot. Lot 30x100. Price $1,650.
- (107) Calhoun addition, opposite Loop—5 room 2-story frame slate roof house. Lot 33x106. Price $1,200.
- (108) Calhoun addition, opposite loop. Four room slate roof house, lot 30x100. Price $950.
- (109) Erie st. Two story frame, slate roof new house. Lot 30x100. House conveniently arranged and pleasantly located. Price $2,000.
- (110) Pennsylvania avenue. Eight room brick, frame slate roof modern house. Hot and cold water, bath, gas; in best of order. Lot 30x100. Price $3,100.

CHESTER, W. VA.

- (111) Several residence sites as fine as may be found on the Ohio river. Situate on the terrace just east of the Chester and Liverpool bridge. Lots run 200 to 250 feet in depth; 150 feet available for building purposes. Can give you width of 33 feet, 66 feet, 100 feet or 200 feet frontage. Convenient to the bridge; elegant, reserved and handsome. Let us show you them and quote you prices. They are reasonable.
- (112) Virginia avenue. Lot No. 52, fronts 32 feet. Passed by street car line. Suitable for business or residence. Price $750.
- (113) Pennsylvania avenue. Lot No. 119, 40x120. Residence site. Price $400.
- (114) Carolina avenue. Lot No. 94, 40x130. Good residence site. Price $400.
- (115) Carolina avenue. Lot No. 247, 40x140. Business or residence site. Price $600.
- Office open from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

Shipped Away—The household goods of S. Bourne have been shipped to Zanesville.

A Daughter Born—A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Evans, May street.

Moved to Sebring—The household goods of Harvey Carr, of East End, were this morning shipped to Sebring.

River Rising—The river continues to rise and the marks at the wharf this morning registered 6 feet. Very little more water is expected by rivermen. The Fallie passed up yesterday afternoon with a tow of empties.

Pythians Memorial Service—At a meeting of the K. of P. in their hall last evening it was decided to observe the annual memorial service in the Pythian hall on the evening of August 30. This service will be preceded by a parade by the Uniform Rank early in the evening.

Cases Postponed—The case of J. F. Billingsley vs. Neill & Ellingham, of Wheeling, to recover about $8, which was to be heard before Justice McCarron Thursday, has been deferred until next Monday. In the same court the decision in the case of Townley vs. Simpson was withheld until Thursday.

An Anecdote of General Jackson.

General Jackson, while on one of his journeys to Tennessee about the time of the nullification excitement, arrived at a Virginian village in a very impatient state of mind, both with public affairs and with the state of the roads. The president was entertained as a guest at the house of a lady in the village, and, although he tried to be polite, the state of vexation which he was in affected him visibly.

His hostess, at the supper table, was much alarmed to see the general swallowing with great rapidity a cup of almost boiling hot tea.

"Wait—wait, general!" exclaimed the lady; "let me give you some cold water."

"No, thank you, ma'am," said the general, continuing to drink.

"But I don't see how you can drink that boiling hot tea without scalding yourself."

"No wonder you can't, ma'am," said Jackson. "I am scalding myself."

"But, sir, why do you?"

"Good gracious, ma'am!" exclaimed the general, "don't you see that I want to scald myself?"

The lady refrained from making any further suggestions as to her distinguished guest's comfort.

What We Most Remember.

Memory is for the most part "a trivial fond record" of the affairs of everyday life, and our intense desire not to lose the remembrance of these unimportant everyday matters is one of the greatest testimonies to the predominance of happiness over unhappiness in the world. Do we not feel sorry for our hearts for any one who has lost such an infinitely precious possession without even wondering whether or not there was anything in their past lives worth recollecting? After all, how few are the hours which any of us would blot out of our lives! Those perhaps during which we have witnessed or suffered acute physical or mental pain, the moment when we engendered the worm of remorse which dieth not or those few minutes of humiliation which, whether we trace them to fault or fate, remain in our minds to "vex us like a thing that is raw." But how small is the part we would have taken away compared to the part we would retain!—London Spectator.

An Execution In China.

The poor wretches were made to dig a large square pit, and one by one they were made kneel at the edge with their hands tied behind their backs. A Japanese officer stepped forward and with the ordinary service sword drew it back and forward over the poor wretch's neck, and then with a swift blow it descended, cutting off the head.

The next one was as successful, and then came a terrible spectacle. The Japanese officer, after wiping his sword, drew the back to and fro over the poor wretch's neck three or four times before he struck the fatal blow. Down came the blade on the apex of the skull, cutting about two inches into the neck.

The poor wretch fell into the pit, the Japanese officer climbing down and sawing away at the neck until the head was severed. The heads were immediately carried over to the main road and strung up on poles as an object lesson to the large number of Chinese who were congregated around with blanched faces.—Canadian Magazine.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

WANTED—A dishwasher at the Criterion restaurant, Washington street. 57-r

WANTED—Situation by a young man of good education as bookkeeper; not afraid of work; desires employment in some line of business where he can make himself useful, not necessarily as bookkeeper; opportunity not salary the main consideration. Address "C." News Review office. 57-r

WANTED—10 good agents to sell a good thing; $2.50 per day guaranteed. Address David Simon, P. O. box 525, City. 57-r

ACTIVITY OF THIEVES

CAUSING EXPENSIVE LOSSES TO WEST END PEOPLE.

A Well Organized Gang Believed to Be Operating in That Vicinity. Recent Victims.

Thieves have been operating in the West End for some time, and a number of the residents are just now considering the wisdom of organizing a vigilance committee, unless the authorities manifest a little more interest in the numerous robberies which have taken place in that locality recently.

Among the first of these depredations was committed several weeks ago, the victim being N. M. Vail. Mr. Vail was robbed of $218 while he and the other members of his family slept. The matter was immediately reported to the police, but they have to the present failed to find a single clue. Mr. Vail asserts that he can put his hand on at least one man who he confidently believes had a hand in the robbery, but he has no positive proof of his guilt. He is of the opinion, however, that there is a well organized gang of the thieves, and that the parties who got his money are the same that have been operating in Wellsville for several weeks.

James Nolan, a resident of Pleasant street, the other evening lost a suit of clothes and two hats. The articles were taken early in the evening, the thief gaining access to a bedroom window by removing the screen. The gentleman did not report to the police, as he stated that it would do no good.

M. O. Fisher, who lives on Lisbon road, mourns the loss of two good bridles and a set of harness, which were carried off a few night ago. He has found no trace of the missing articles, and it is hardly probable he will ever recover them.

Bank Property, $742,194.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—An article published some time ago showed the valuation of taxable personal property in Columbiana county, and the taxable valuation of bank properties was given as $14,855. This is a great error, as the correct amount is $742,194. County Auditor J. F. Adams has had a number of inquiries on the subject and wishes this correction.

Probate Court Matters.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—The will of the late John Pitcairn has been filed for probate. His son, Charles, of Des Moines, Ia., was named as executor without bond and was appointed by Judge Boone.

Marriage licenses: Wm. W. Warden, of Jefferson county, and Katina Pearl Davis, of Pleasants county, W. Va.

Will Vote on Saloons.

The council of East Palestine by a vote of 4 to 2 decided to submit the question of local option to a vote of the people at a special election on Saturday, August 31.

Base Ball at Lisbon.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—The business men and the professional men played base ball yesterday. The business men won by a score of 16 to 15.

Leetonia Merchants' Picnic.

Leetonia, Aug. 21.—(Special)—The merchants of Leetonia are having an outing today. Two special trains left this morning for Idora park, Youngstown, for the day.

DOGS.

There are nearly 200 distinct varieties of dogs.

Foxhounds give cry, but deerhounds hunt in silence.

The greyhound is the only dog which hunts by sight.

A pure bred staghound never attacks the head of his quarry.

Only in the temperate zone is the dog found perfect in courage and speed.

The Italian greyhound is reputed to be the most symmetrical of all animals.

Skye terriers have been known to jump into the river and land hooked fish, which they take carefully by the back.

Eskimo dogs are capable of drawing a well laden sledge 60 miles in a day. Their harness is of the lightest, only a single trace and no reins.

Women Cannot Boss Each Other.

The old theory that woman is man's helper seems incorrigibly well founded, says E. S. Martin in McClure's Magazine. If the situation isn't satisfactory to her, there is no help for it, for the conditions it came out of seem to be eternal. Women may vote. They will be none the less man's helpers if they do. They never will band together to put man down and teach him his place. They will push him ahead if they can, they will pull him along when they must, they will influence him enormously, as they always have done, but they will never conspire together on any very great scale to make him play second fiddle. Some one has got to be master. Women in general will never agree to have women bosses so long as there are competent men for that use.

PRESENCE OF THE OFFICERS

(Continued from First Page.)

and made an application to join the union. Organizer Griffiths stated this morning that he was now better pleased with the outlook than at any other time previous. "The stand taken by Mayor Dennis," he said, "has been of the utmost assistance to us. Dozens of business men and prominent citizens who formerly deprecated the strike, have come to me the past few days and promised their influence and support in furthering our interests."

It was the intention of Organizers Griffiths and Evans to have injunction proceedings brought against the non-union appointees of Mayor Dennis as assistant police, but it is not likely this will be done. Mr. Griffiths expects to leave for Pittsburg tonight on a business mission.

Contrary to the general prediction in Wellsville the swearing in yesterday of non-union men at work in the mill as extra police did not cause the strikers any great concern, though the feeling toward Mayor Dennis, who, it is claimed, is directly responsible for the action, has been greatly intensified.

Organizer George D. Evans was at Pittsburg yesterday and matters were very quiet about the Amalgamated headquarters. Captain O'Connor remained at the headquarters until late last night in order to suppress any outbreak, as it was feared an attack would be made on the non-union men going to and from the mill.

The boldness of the strike breakers has become exasperating to the Amalgamated men and enhanced the possibility of an attack being made on them at any time. The most gratifying department to the strikers is the growing dissension among the men at work in the mill. The fight which took place yesterday morning is said to have caused several of the men to quit their jobs, and further trouble is expected.

Not only are the men dissatisfied with their work, but it is difficult for them to procure board and rooms. One of them paid five months' rent for a house on Eighth street, but later when the owner learned his prospective tenant's occupation the money was returned and the bargain declared off. Several of the boarding house proprietors who have been accommodating the men have refused longer to do so and consequently many of them are now forced to live back of the mill enclosure. This is one of the objectionable circumstances which the strike breakers are compelled to undergo and they are becoming tired of it.

Deputy Sheriff Bick remained about the Amalgamated headquarters during the day, as did also the police, but though several of the non-union men appeared on the streets with their dinner pails, no attempt was made to molest them and the officers were not given any trouble.

UNCLE SAM ACTS

HAS A MAN ARRESTED FOR DESTROYING MAIL BOXES.

Huber Treffinger, Near Lisbon, Arrested Charged With the Offense.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—Huber Treffinger, living near Lisbon, was arrested yesterday by Deputy U. S. Marshal F. M. Fanning, charged with tearing down mail boxes. Treffinger was taken to Cleveland for a hearing. Some weeks ago John Patterson, a neighbor of Treffinger, put up a mail box for the rural delivery carrier to deposit mail in. This box was torn down and Treffinger is accused.

Mr. Patterson notified the postoffice department and was told to place a regulation mail box in its stead, and the inference was given that it would be protected. The proper kind of box was then put up. In a few days it was found in the gutter, badly mutilated.

The government agent was notified and the arrest followed. Mr. Patterson and Ed F. Moore were summoned to appear against Treffinger and left for Cleveland today. Patterson lives a short distance back from the Wellsville road and has a right of way through Treffinger's land. It was on this private road that the box was torn down.

Notice.

In the absence of the superintendent during the present week George E. Whitaker will have charge of the Riverview cemetery. Any person wishing to purchase a lot will please call on A. T. Kelly at the First National bank, or G. E. Whitaker after 6:30 in the evenings. G. E. Whitaker will be at the cemetery each evening from 6:30 to 8 p. m.

M. WHITAKER, Superintendent Riverview Cemetery.

The handsomest and best local newspaper in Columbiana county is the East Liverpool News Review.

FOUND DEFECTIVE

TRENTVALE STREET PAVING DECLARED UNSATISFACTORY.

Councilmen Inspect It And Allege the Foundation Was Not Good.

Every member of the city council last evening met in the Diamond except Dr. R. J. Marshall. Carriages were taken for the purpose of viewing Trentvale street and other lately improved streets, provided the time could be spared. Trentvale street was the only place that was inspected.

This little jaunt will likely cause much talk at the next session of council, and if not then at the first meeting after Engineer Kelly returns home from his vacation.

The recent heavy rains have caused the newly laid pavement on this street to settle from one to 18 inches in various places, and the question that is now agitating the minds of the councilmen is the cause of this condition. The pavement that has settled is on the newly made ground.

Councilman Cripps, who was in the party, said:

"There is no question that some one is at fault in this work, and we desire to find why the pavement was not placed on a solid foundation. The grade of the street could have been changed some and a good foundation obtained. If it is found that the city is not at fault then the work must be made right before the street is accepted by the city."

About an hour was spent by the councilmen in viewing the street, and when they returned to the Diamond it was becoming dark. Half the councilmen left the party here and others went over the new Pennsylvania avenue road. It was so dark while making this trip that very little close inspection could be made.

Didn't Teach Him That Trick.

"That's a very knowing animal o' yours," said a cockney gentleman to the keeper of an elephant.

"Very," was the cool rejoinder.

"He performs strange tricks and antics, does he?" inquired the cockney, eying the animal through his glass.

"Surprisin!" retorted the keeper. "We've learned him to put money in that box you see up there. Try him with half a crown."

The cockney handed the elephant half a crown, and, sure enough, he took it in his trunk and placed it in a box high up out of reach.

"Well, that is very extraordinary—astonishing, truly!" said the green one, opening his eyes. "Now let's see him take it out and 'and it back."

"We never learned him that trick," retorted the keeper and then turned away to stir up the monkeys and punch the hyenas.—London Tit-Bits.

The Deserving One.

Hoyt, with a playwright friend, was once witnessing the production of a play—not his own—says the New York Clipper. The leading man was well known to be a poor "study," and this night was on very unfamiliar terms with his part. The voice of the prompter was continuously in evidence, though this was overlooked, for the actor was a great favorite.

Just before the end of the act Hoyt went out, but returned a moment later just as the curtain went down on deafening applause.

"Who are they calling for?" he asked of his friend, who answered by naming the leading man, whom, to spare his feelings, we will call X.

"—! (This stands for a little swear word.) I don't see what they want X for. I should think they would call for the prompter."

Just the Same.

Augustus Hare tells this story in his autobiography of a friend who in some ways was one of the most absentminded men in the world:

One day, meeting a friend, he said: "Hello, what a long time it is since I've seen you! How's your father?" "Oh, my father's dead." "God bless me! I'm very sorry."

The next year he met the same man again and had forgotten all about it, so began with: "Hello, what a long time since I've seen you! How's your father?" "Oh, my father's dead still."

Bulger's Pharmacy.

HALF A BOTTLE of medicine compounded from PURE, FRESH DRUGS is worth many a full bottle of that prepared from goods which have deteriorated through age or any other cause.

We use only drugs which possess all the qualities that make them effective.

Prescriptions filled here are done accurately. Quantity and quality are right.

We carry a full line of Proprietary Medicines.

BULGER'S PHARMACY

Amusements.

ROCK Springs Park

Week of Aug. 19th.

Monday—Jr. O. U. A. M., East Liverpool, O. Admission, 10c for men.

Tuesday—McDonald Merchants, McDonald, Pa.

Wednesday—Sons of St. George, East Liverpool, reunion and banquet.

Thursday—Knights of the Golden Eagle, East Liverpool. Admission, 10c.

McBougall's Dancing Class, at 9 a. m.

Friday—Presbyterian Sunday School, East Liverpool.

Saturday—Standard Gauge Steel Company and Keystone Driller Company, Beaver Falls, Pa.

Sunday, Aug. 25, return date of Harris Quartette and Ober-Ammergau Co's production of the "Passion Play," guaranteed to be the only reproduction of an actual performance. Harris Quartette will sing for them. In speaking of this performance the Philadelphia Ledger says:

"There was something so unearthly, so fascinating, so extraordinary in the strange silent pictures with their moving, yet voiceless crowds, that the absence of flesh and blood only made the conception more spiritual and relieved it from any touch of irreverence."

...GRAND...

Labor Day

Celebration

MONDAY, SEPT. 2.

ROCK SPRINGS PARK

The occasion will be observed in East Liverpool by the working people from Eastern Ohio.

Industrial parade at 9:30; athletic sports at the park 2 p. m.; base ball game Sebring vs. Eclipse 4 p. m.; balloon ascension 6:30; dancing afternoon and evening.

The parade will be the largest ever marshaled in East Liverpool.

Let nothing interfere with your arrangements to attend.

ADMISSION 10 cents.

BASE BALL!

East Liverpool vs. Canton, O.

Two Games.

Friday and Saturday,

August 23 and 24

West End Park.

Game Called at 4 p. m.

An

Elegant Line of

Toilet Soaps

Now on Display in Our Fifth St. and Broadway Window.

HODSON'S DRUG STORE.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.

As you learn of the serious accidents that are occurring so constantly in our midst, do you realize the need of an item of protection in the way of a policy of insurance, which in case YOU should be injured accidentally, will bring you a regular weekly income, or in case death should result from an accident, your estate would recover as many thousand dollars as you were insured for. BE WISE, and call on us for a sample copy of the contract. The cost of either an accident or sickness policy is nominal when the advantages are considered.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.,

Insurance and Real Estate.

Room 5, First National Bank Building. Both Phones 49.

ELIJAH W. HILL.

Real Estate Dealer,
Cor. 6th and Washington Sts.,
Second Floor Grand Building.

Sale List No. 11. Call for previous lists.

- (91) Seventh st., 8 room frame slate roof house; hall cellar, portico, city water, two lots, making 60 feet front and 130 feet deep. Price $2,550.
- (92) Seventh st., 8 room frame slate roof house. Very substantially built; cellar, front portico, good stable, lot 46 foot front and 130 feet deep. Level and situated in best residence portion. Owner desirous of selling. Price low.
- (93) Second st., 6 room frame slate roof house, lately remodeled and in good repair, sewer, bath and city water. Lot 30x130. Well located. Price $3,200.
- (94) Avondale st., 6 room frame slate roof house. Lot 45 feet front, extending through to Oak street. Price $1,600.
- (95) Sunnyside, West End, 3 room house with 3 lots 30x100 each. Set out in trees and vines. Pleasant and in good order. Price $1,400.
- (96) Edgewood avenue. Head of May street. Vacant lot 40x100. Fine view obtained. Will sell lot in halves. Will build house to suit purchaser. Twenty-five per cent down, balance in monthly payments. Price of lot $500.
- (97) Trentvale st., four room slate roof house, front portico; city water, street paved. Price $1,000.
- (98) Thompson hill. Fine residence of 12 rooms. Modern conveniences complete. Large lawn, good view; free from smoke and dirt. Only 5 minutes walk from business center. Owner anxious to sell. Inquire for price.
- (99) Vine st., Liverpool Land Co. addition. One well located vacant lot. Streets paved and sewer; gas main laid. Will sell cheap. Nothing better in improved lots offered in the city at price. Several new residences under way and plans out for others.
- (100) Avondale st., fine modern cottage of 6 rooms in excellent repair. Street paved. Lot 40 feet wide; corners on alley and street. Price $2,100.
- Properties, vacant and improved, business and resident, to sell on every street and addition in the city at prices that make them sell. Terms to suit your capital and income. See us about them. Our time is at your disposal.

EAST END PROPERTIES.

- (101) Etruria st., 7 room modern, new house. In best of order and repair; gas, city water and sewer. Lot 38x120. Well situated and located. Lles level, green and pretty. Fine view of the Ohio. A beautiful place. Price $3,000.
- (102) First avenue. Four room house of two stories. Slate roof, gas and water. Lot 35x100. Price $1,550.
- (103) Klondike, near pottery. Vacant lot 30x100 with foundation for a house. Price $200.
- (104) St. George st. Five room, 2 story frame slate roof house. Gas water, furnace, cellar, side porch, lot lies level. Price upon inquiry.
- (105) High st. Two story, frame 6 room slate roof house. Well water, good cellar; easy of access. Overlooks lower East End. Above the fog line. Lot 40x125. Price upon inquiry.
- (106) Globe st. Oakland addition. Two story frame, slate roof house of 6 rooms. Stable on lot. Lot 30x100. Price $1,650.
- (107) Calhoun addition, opposite Loop—5 room 2-story frame slate roof house. Lot 33x106. Price $1,200.
- (108) Calhoun addition, opposite loop. Four room slate roof house, lot 30x100. Price $950.
- (109) Erie st. Two story frame, slate roof new house. Lot 30x100. House conveniently arranged and pleasantly located. Price $2,000.
- (110) Pennsylvania avenue. Eight room brick, frame slate roof modern house. Hot and cold water, bath, gas; in best of order. Lot 30x100. Price $3,100.

CHESTER, W. VA.

- (111) Several residence sites as fine as may be found on the Ohio river. Situate on the terrace just east of the Chester and Liverpool bridge. Lots run 200 to 250 feet in depth; 150 feet available for building purposes. Can give you width of 33 feet, 66 feet, 100 feet or 200 feet frontage. Convenient to the bridge; elegant, reserved and heartsome. Let us show you them and quote you prices. They are reasonable.
- (112) Virginia avenue. Lot No. 52, fronts 32 feet. Passed by street car line. Suitable for business or residence. Price $750.
- (113) Pennsylvania avenue. Lot No. 119, 40x120. Residence site. Price $400.
- (114) Carolina avenue. Lot No. 94, 40x130. Good residence site. Price $400.
- (115) Carolina avenue. Lot No. 247, 40x140. Business or residence site. Price $600.
- Office open from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

Shipped Away—The household goods of S. Bourne have been shipped to Zanesville.

A Daughter Born—A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Evans, May street.

Moved to Sebring—The household goods of Harvey Carr, of East End, were this morning shipped to Sebring.

River Rising—The river continues to rise and the marks at the wharf this morning registered 6 feet. Very little more water is expected by rivermen. The Fallie passed up yesterday afternoon with a tow of empties.

Pythians Memorial Service—At a meeting of the K. of P. in their hall last evening it was decided to observe the annual memorial service in the Pythian hall on the evening of August 30. This service will be preceded by a parade by the Uniform Rank early in the evening.

Cases Postponed—The case of J. F. Billingsley vs. Neill & Ellingham, of Wheeling, to recover about $8, which was to be heard before Justice McCarron Thursday, has been deferred until next Monday. In the same court the decision in the case of Townley vs. Simpson was withheld until Thursday.

An Anecdote of General Jackson.

General Jackson, while on one of his journeys to Tennessee about the time of the nullification excitement, arrived at a Virginian village in a very impatient state of mind, both with public affairs and with the state of the roads. The president was entertained as a guest at the house of a lady in the village, and, although he tried to be polite, the state of vexation which he was in affected him visibly.

His hostess, at the supper table, was much alarmed to see the general swallowing with great rapidity a cup of almost boiling hot tea.

"Wait—wait, general!" exclaimed the lady; "let me give you some cold water."

"No, thank you, ma'am," said the general, continuing to drink.

"But I don't see how you can drink that boiling hot tea without scalding yourself."

"No wonder you can't, ma'am," said Jackson. "I am scalding myself."

"But, sir, why do you?"

"Good gracious, ma'am!" exclaimed the general, "don't you see that I want to scald myself?"

The lady refrained from making any further suggestions as to her distinguished guest's comfort.

What We Most Remember.

Memory is for the most part a "trivial fond record" of the affairs of everyday life, and our intense desire not to lose the remembrance of these unimportant everyday matters is one of the greatest testimonies to the predominance of happiness over unhappiness in the world. Do we not feel sorry from our hearts for any one who has lost such an infinitely precious possession without even wondering whether or no there was anything in their past lives worth recollecting? After all, how few are the hours which any of us would blot out of our lives! Those perhaps during which we have witnessed or suffered acute physical or mental pain, the moment when we engendered the worm of remorse which dieth not or those few minutes of humiliation which, whether we trace them to fault or fate, remain in our minds to "vex us like a thing that is raw." But how small is the part we would have taken away compared to the part we would retain!—London Spectator.

An Execution in China.

The poor wretches were made to dig a large square pit, and one by one they were made kneel at the edge with their hands tied behind their backs. A Japanese officer stepped forward and with the ordinary service sword drew it back and forward over the poor wretch's neck, and then with a swift blow it descended, cutting off the head.

The next one was as successful, and then came a terrible spectacle. The Japanese officer, after wiping his sword, drew the back to and fro over the poor wretch's neck three or four times before he struck the fatal blow. Down came the blade on the apex of the skull, cutting about two inches into the neck.

The poor wretch fell into the pit, the Japanese officer climbing down and sawing away at the neck until the head was severed. The heads were immediately carried over to the main road and strung up on poles as an object lesson to the large number of Chinese who were congregated around with blanched faces.—Canadian Magazine.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

WANTED—A dishwasher at the Criterion restaurant, Washington street. 57-r

WANTED—Situation by a young man of good education as bookkeeper; not afraid of work; desires employment in some line of business where he can make himself useful, not necessarily as bookkeeper; opportunity not salary the main consideration. Address "C." News Review office. 57-r

WANTED—10 good agents to sell a good thing; $250 per day guaranteed. Address David Simon, P. O. box 525. City. 57-r

ACTIVITY OF THIEVES

CAUSING EXPENSIVE LOSSES TO WEST END PEOPLE.

A Well Organized Gang Believed to Be Operating in That Vicinity. Recent Victims.

Thieves have been operating in the West End for some time, and a number of the residents are just now considering the wisdom of organizing a vigilance committee, unless the authorities manifest a little more interest in the numerous robberies which have taken place in that locality recently.

Among the first of these depredations was committed several weeks ago, the victim being N. M. Vail. Mr. Vail was robbed of $218 while he and the other members of his family slept. The matter was immediately reported to the police, but they have to the present failed to find a single clue. Mr. Vail asserts that he can put his hand on at least one man who he confidently believes had a hand in the robbery, but he has no positive proof of his guilt. He is of the opinion, however, that there is a well organized gang of the thieves, and that the parties who got his money are the same that have been operating in Wellsville for several weeks.

James Nolan, a resident of Pleasant street, the other evening lost a suit of clothes and two hats. The articles were taken early in the evening, the thief gaining access to a bedroom window by removing the screen. The gentleman did not report to the police, as he stated that it would do no good.

M. O. Fisher, who lives on Lisbon road, mourns the loss of two good bridles and a set of harness, which were carried off a few night ago. He has found no trace of the missing articles, and it is hardly probable he will ever recover them.

Bank Property, $742,194.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—An article published some time ago showed the valuation of taxable personal property in Columbiana county, and the taxable valuation of bank properties was given as $14,855. This is a great error, as the correct amount is $742,194. County Auditor J. F. Adams has had a number of inquiries on the subject and wishes this correction.

Probate Court Matters.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—The will of the late John Pitcairn has been filed for probate. His son, Charles, of Des Moines, Ia., was named as executor without bond and was appointed by Judge Boone.

Marriage licenses: Wm. W. Warden, of Jefferson county, and Katina Pearl Davis, of Pleasants county, W. Va.

Will Vote on Saloons.

The council of East Palestine by a vote of 4 to 2 decided to submit the question of local option to a vote of the people at a special election on Saturday, August 31.

Base Ball at Lisbon.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—The business men and the professional men played base ball yesterday. The business men won by a score of 16 to 15.

Leetonia Merchants' Picnic.

Leetonia, Aug. 21.—(Special)—The merchants of Leetonia are having an outing today. Two special trains left this morning for Idora park. Youngstown, for the day.

DOGS.

There are nearly 200 distinct varieties of dogs.

Foxhounds give cry, but deerhounds hunt in silence.

The greyhound is the only dog which hunts by sight.

A pure bred staghound never attacks the head of his quarry.

Only in the temperate zone is the dog found perfect in courage and speed.

The Italian greyhound is reputed to be the most symmetrical of all animals.

Slye terriers have been known to jump into the river and land hooked fish, which they take carefully by the back.

Eskimo dogs are capable of drawing a well laden sledge 60 miles in a day. Their harness is of the lightest, only a single trace and no reins.

Women Cannot Boss Each Other.

The old theory that woman is man's helper seems incorrigibly well founded, says E. S. Martin in McClure's Magazine. If the situation isn't satisfactory to her, there is no help for it, for the conditions it came out of seem to be eternal. Women may vote. They will be none the less man's helpers if they do. They never will band together to put man down and teach him his place. They will push him ahead if they can, they will pull him along when they must, they will influence him enormously, as they always have done, but they will never conspire together on any very great scale to make him play second fiddle. Some one has got to be master. Women in general will never agree to have women bosses so long as there are competent men for that use.

PRESENCE OF THE OFFICERS

(Continued from First Page.)

and made an application to join the union. Organizer Griffiths stated this morning that he was now better pleased with the outlook than at any other time previous. "The stand taken by Mayor Dennis," he said, "has been of the utmost assistance to us. Dozens of business men and prominent citizens who formerly deprecated the strike, have come to me the past few days and promised their influence and support in furthering our interests."

It was the intention of Organizers Griffiths and Evans to have injunction proceedings brought against the non-union appointees of Mayor Dennis as assistant police, but it is not likely this will be done. Mr. Griffiths expects to leave for Pittsburg tonight on a business mission.

Contrary to the general prediction in Wellsville the swearing in yesterday of non-union men at work in the mill as extra police did not cause the strikers any great concern, though the feeling toward Mayor Dennis, who, it is claimed, is directly responsible for the action, has been greatly intensified.

Organizer George D. Evans was at Pittsburg yesterday and matters were very quiet about the Amalgamated headquarters. Captain O'Connor remained at the headquarters until late last night in order to suppress any outbreak, as it was feared an attack would be made on the non-union men going to and from the mill.

The boldness of the strike breakers has become exasperating to the Amalgamated men and enhanced the possibility of an attack being made on them at any time. The most gratifying department to the strikers is the growing dissension among the men at work in the mill. The fight which took place yesterday morning is said to have caused several of the men to quit their jobs, and further trouble is expected.

Not only are the men dissatisfied with their work, but it is difficult for them to procure board and rooms. One of them paid five months' rent for a house on Eighth street, but later when the owner learned his prospective tenant's occupation the money was returned and the bargain declared off. Several of the boarding house proprietors who have been accommodating the men have refused longer to do so and consequently many of them are now forced to live back of the mill enclosure. This is one of the objectionable circumstances which the strike breakers are compelled to undergo and they are becoming tired of it.

Deputy Sheriff Bick remained about the Amalgamated headquarters during the day, as did also the police, but though several of the non-union men appeared on the streets with their dinner pails, no attempt was made to molest them and the officers were not given any trouble.

UNCLE SAM ACTS

HAS A MAN ARRESTED FOR DESTROYING MAIL BOXES.

Huber Treffinger, Near Lisbon, Arrested Charged With the Offense.

Lisbon, Aug. 21.—(Special)—Huber Treffinger, living near Lisbon, was arrested yesterday by Deputy U. S. Marshal F. M. Fanning, charged with tearing down mail boxes. Treffinger was taken to Cleveland for a hearing. Some weeks ago John Patterson, a neighbor of Treffinger, put up a mail box for the rural delivery carrier to deposit mail in. This box was torn down and Treffinger is accused.

Mr. Patterson notified the postoffice department and was told to place a regulation mail box in its stead, and the inference was given that it would be protected. The proper kind of box was then put up. In a few days it was found in the gutter, badly mutilated.

The government agent was notified and the arrest followed. Mr. Patterson and Ed F. Moore were summoned to appear against Treffinger and left for Cleveland today. Patterson lives a short distance back from the Wellsville road and has a right of way through Treffinger's land. It was on this private road that the box was torn down.

Notice.

In the absence of the superintendent during the present week George E. Whitaker will have charge of the Riverview cemetery. Any person wishing to purchase a lot will please call on A. T. Kelly at the First National bank, or G. E. Whitaker after 6:30 in the evenings. G. E. Whitaker will be at the cemetery each evening from 6:30 to 8 p. m.

M. WHITAKER.

The handsomest and best local newspaper in Columbiana county is the East Liverpool News Review.

FOUND DEFECTIVE

TRENTVALE STREET PAVING DECLARED UNSATISFACTORY.

Councilmen Inspect It And Allege the Foundation Was Not Good.

Every member of the city council last evening met in the Diamond except Dr. R. J. Marshall. Carriages were taken for the purpose of viewing Trentvale street and other lately improved streets, provided the time could be spared. Trentvale street was the only place that was inspected. This little jaunt will likely cause much talk at the next session of council, and if not then at the first meeting after Engineer Kelly returns home from his vacation.

The recent heavy rains have caused the newly laid pavement on this street to settle from one to 18 inches in various places, and the question that is now agitating the minds of the councilmen is the cause of this condition. The pavement that has settled is on the newly made ground.

Councilman Cripps, who was in the party, said:

"There is no question that some one is at fault in this work, and we desire to find why the pavement was not placed on a solid foundation. The grade of the street could have been changed some and a good foundation obtained. If it is found that the city is not at fault then the work must be made right before the street is accepted by the city."

About an hour was spent by the councilmen in viewing the street, and when they returned to the Diamond it was becoming dark. Half the councilmen left the party here and others went over the new Pennsylvania avenue road. It was so dark while making this trip that very little close inspection could be made.

Didn't Teach Him That Trick.

"That's a werry knowing animal o' yours," said a cockney gentleman to the keeper of an elephant.

"Very," was the cool rejoinder.

"He performs strange tricks and antics, does he?" inquired the cockney, eying the animal through his glass.

"Surprisin'," retorted the keeper. "We've learned him to put money in that box you see up there. Try him with half a crown."

The cockney handed the elephant half a crown, and, sure enough, he took it in his trunk and placed it in a box high up out of reach.

"Well, that is very hextraordinary—hastoinshing, truly!" said the green one, opening his eyes. "Now let's see him take it out and 'and it back.'"

"We never learned him that trick," retorted the keeper and then turned away to stir up the monkeys and punch the hyenas.—London Tit-Bits.

The Deserving One.

Hoyt, with a playwright friend, was once witnessing the production of a play—not his own—says the New York Clipper. The leading man was well known to be a poor "study," and this night was on very unfamiliar terms with his part. The voice of the prompter was continuously in evidence, though this was overlooked, for the actor was a great favorite.

Just before the end of the act Hoyt went out, but returned a moment later just as the curtain went down on deafening applause.

"Who are they calling for?" he asked of his friend, who answered by naming the leading man, whom, to spare his feelings, we will call X.

"—! (This stands for a little swear word.) I don't see what they want X for. I should think they would call for the prompter."

Just the Same.

Augustus Hare tells this story in his autobiography of a friend who in some ways was one of the most absentminded men in the world:

One day, meeting a friend, he said: "Hello, what a long time it is since I've seen you! How's your father?" "Oh, my father's dead." "God bless me! I'm very sorry."

The next year he met the same man again and had forgotten all about it, so began with: "Hello, what a long time since I've seen you! How's your father?" "Oh, my father's dead still."

Bulger's Pharmacy.

HALF A BOTTLE of medicine compounded from PURE, FRESH DRUGS is worth many a full bottle of that prepared from goods which have deteriorated through age or any other cause. We use only drugs which possess all the qualities that make them effective.

Prescriptions

filled here are done accurately. Quantity and quality are right. We carry a full line of Proprietary Medicines.

BULGER'S PHARMACY

Amusements.

ROCK SPRINGS PARK

Week of Aug. 19th.

Monday—Jr. O. U. A. M., East Liverpool, O. Admission, 10c for men.

Tuesday—McDonald Merchants, McDonald, Pa.

Wednesday—Sons of St. George, East Liverpool, reunion and banquet.

Thursday—Knights of the Golden Eagle, East Liverpool. Admission, 10c.

Friday—Presbyterian Sunday School, East Liverpool.

Saturday—Standard Guage Steel Company and Keystone Driller Company, Beaver Falls, Pa.

Sunday, Aug. 25, return date of Harris Quartette and Ober-Ammergau Co's production of the "Passion Play," guaranteed to be the only reproduction of an actual performance. Harris Quartette will sing for them. In speaking of this performance the Philadelphia Ledger says:

"There was something so unearthly, so fascinating, so extraordinary in the strange silent pictures with their moving, yet voiceless crowds, that the absence of flesh and blood only made the conception more spiritual and relieved it from any touch of irreverence."

...GRAND...

Labor Day Celebration

MONDAY, SEPT. 2.

ROCK SPRINGS PARK

The occasion will be observed in East Liverpool by the working people from Eastern Ohio.

Industrial parade at 9:30; athletic sports at the park 2 p. m.; base ball game Sebring vs. Eclipse 4 p. m.; balloon ascension 6:30; dancing afternoon and evening.

The parade will be the largest ever marshaled in East Liverpool. Let nothing interfere with your arrangements to attend.

ADMISSION 10 cents.

BASE BALL!

East Liverpool vs. Canton, O. Two Games.

Friday and Saturday, August 23 and 24

West End Park.

Game Called at 4 p. m.

An

Elegant Line of Toilet Soaps

Now on Display in Our Fifth St. and Broadway Window.

HODSON'S DRUG STORE.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.

AS you learn of the serious accidents that are occurring so constantly in our midst, do you realize the need of an item of protection in the way of a policy of insurance, which in case YOU should be injured accidentally, will bring you a regular weekly income, or in case death should result from an accident, your estate would recover as many thousand dollars as you were insured for. BE WISE, and call on us for a sample copy of the contract. The cost of either an accident or sickness policy is nominal when the advantages are considered.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.,

Insurance and Real Estate.

Room 5, First National Bank Building. Both Phones 49.

HARD'S

"THE BIG STORE"

Will Fit up your Home

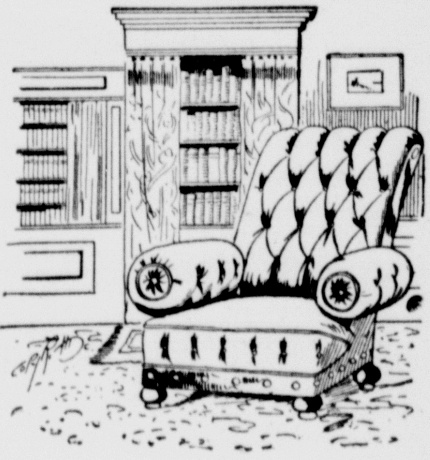

like this

or this or any other way

you desire with

or this

Furniture, Bedding, Carpets, Curtains and Pictures.

We'll sell you goods

For Cash

or

we'll sell them to you

for a

Payment Down

and the balance to be paid

A LITTLE AT A TIME

so you'll never notice the cost and you'll have the use
of them all the time you're paying for them.

You might as well enjoy yourself while you live

For when you die
you'll be dead a long time.

East Liverpool's BIG STORE

is the

PRIDE OF THE VALLEY.

HARD'S

"THE BIG STORE"

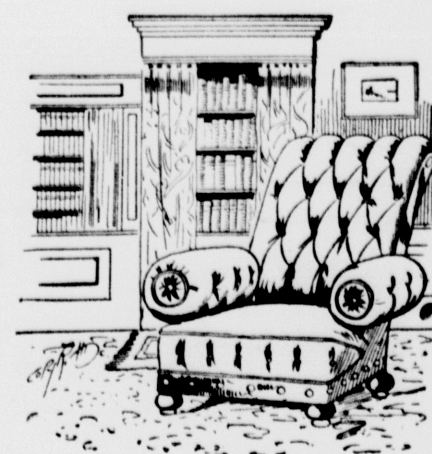

Will Fit up your Home

like this

or this

or this

or any other way
you desire with

Furniture, Bedding, Carpets, Curtains and Pictures.

We'll sell you goods

For Cash

or

we'll sell them to you

for a

Payment Down

and the balance to be paid

A LITTLE AT A TIME

so you'll never notice the cost and you'll have the use
of them all the time you're paying for them.

You might as well enjoy
yourself while you live

For when you die
you'll be dead a long time.

East Liverpool's BIG STORE

is the

PRIDE OF THE VALLEY.

GEO. H. OWEN & CO. AGENTS

Offices: First National Bank Building, East Liverpool, Ohio, and immediately opposite the Rock Springs Park Entrance, Chester, W. Va. Both Phones No. 49.

The Prices on the unimproved Lots
on the Plat
herewith are from

$100
each upward.

The Lots with elegant modern dwellings
ready for occupancy
are from

$1650
up to $2900

All of these Properties on small payments
and easy terms.

You do not have to wait in an isolated, hard
to reach pasture lot for some improvement
to be made about your home.

No, for in these Lots you have a property
with
Paved Streets, Sewer,
Water,
Gas and Trolley Cars.

Call for a plat.

GEO. H. OWEN & CO. AGENTS

Offices: First National Bank Building, East Liverpool, Ohio, and immediately opposite the Rock Springs Park Entrance, Chester, W. Va. Both Phones No. 49.

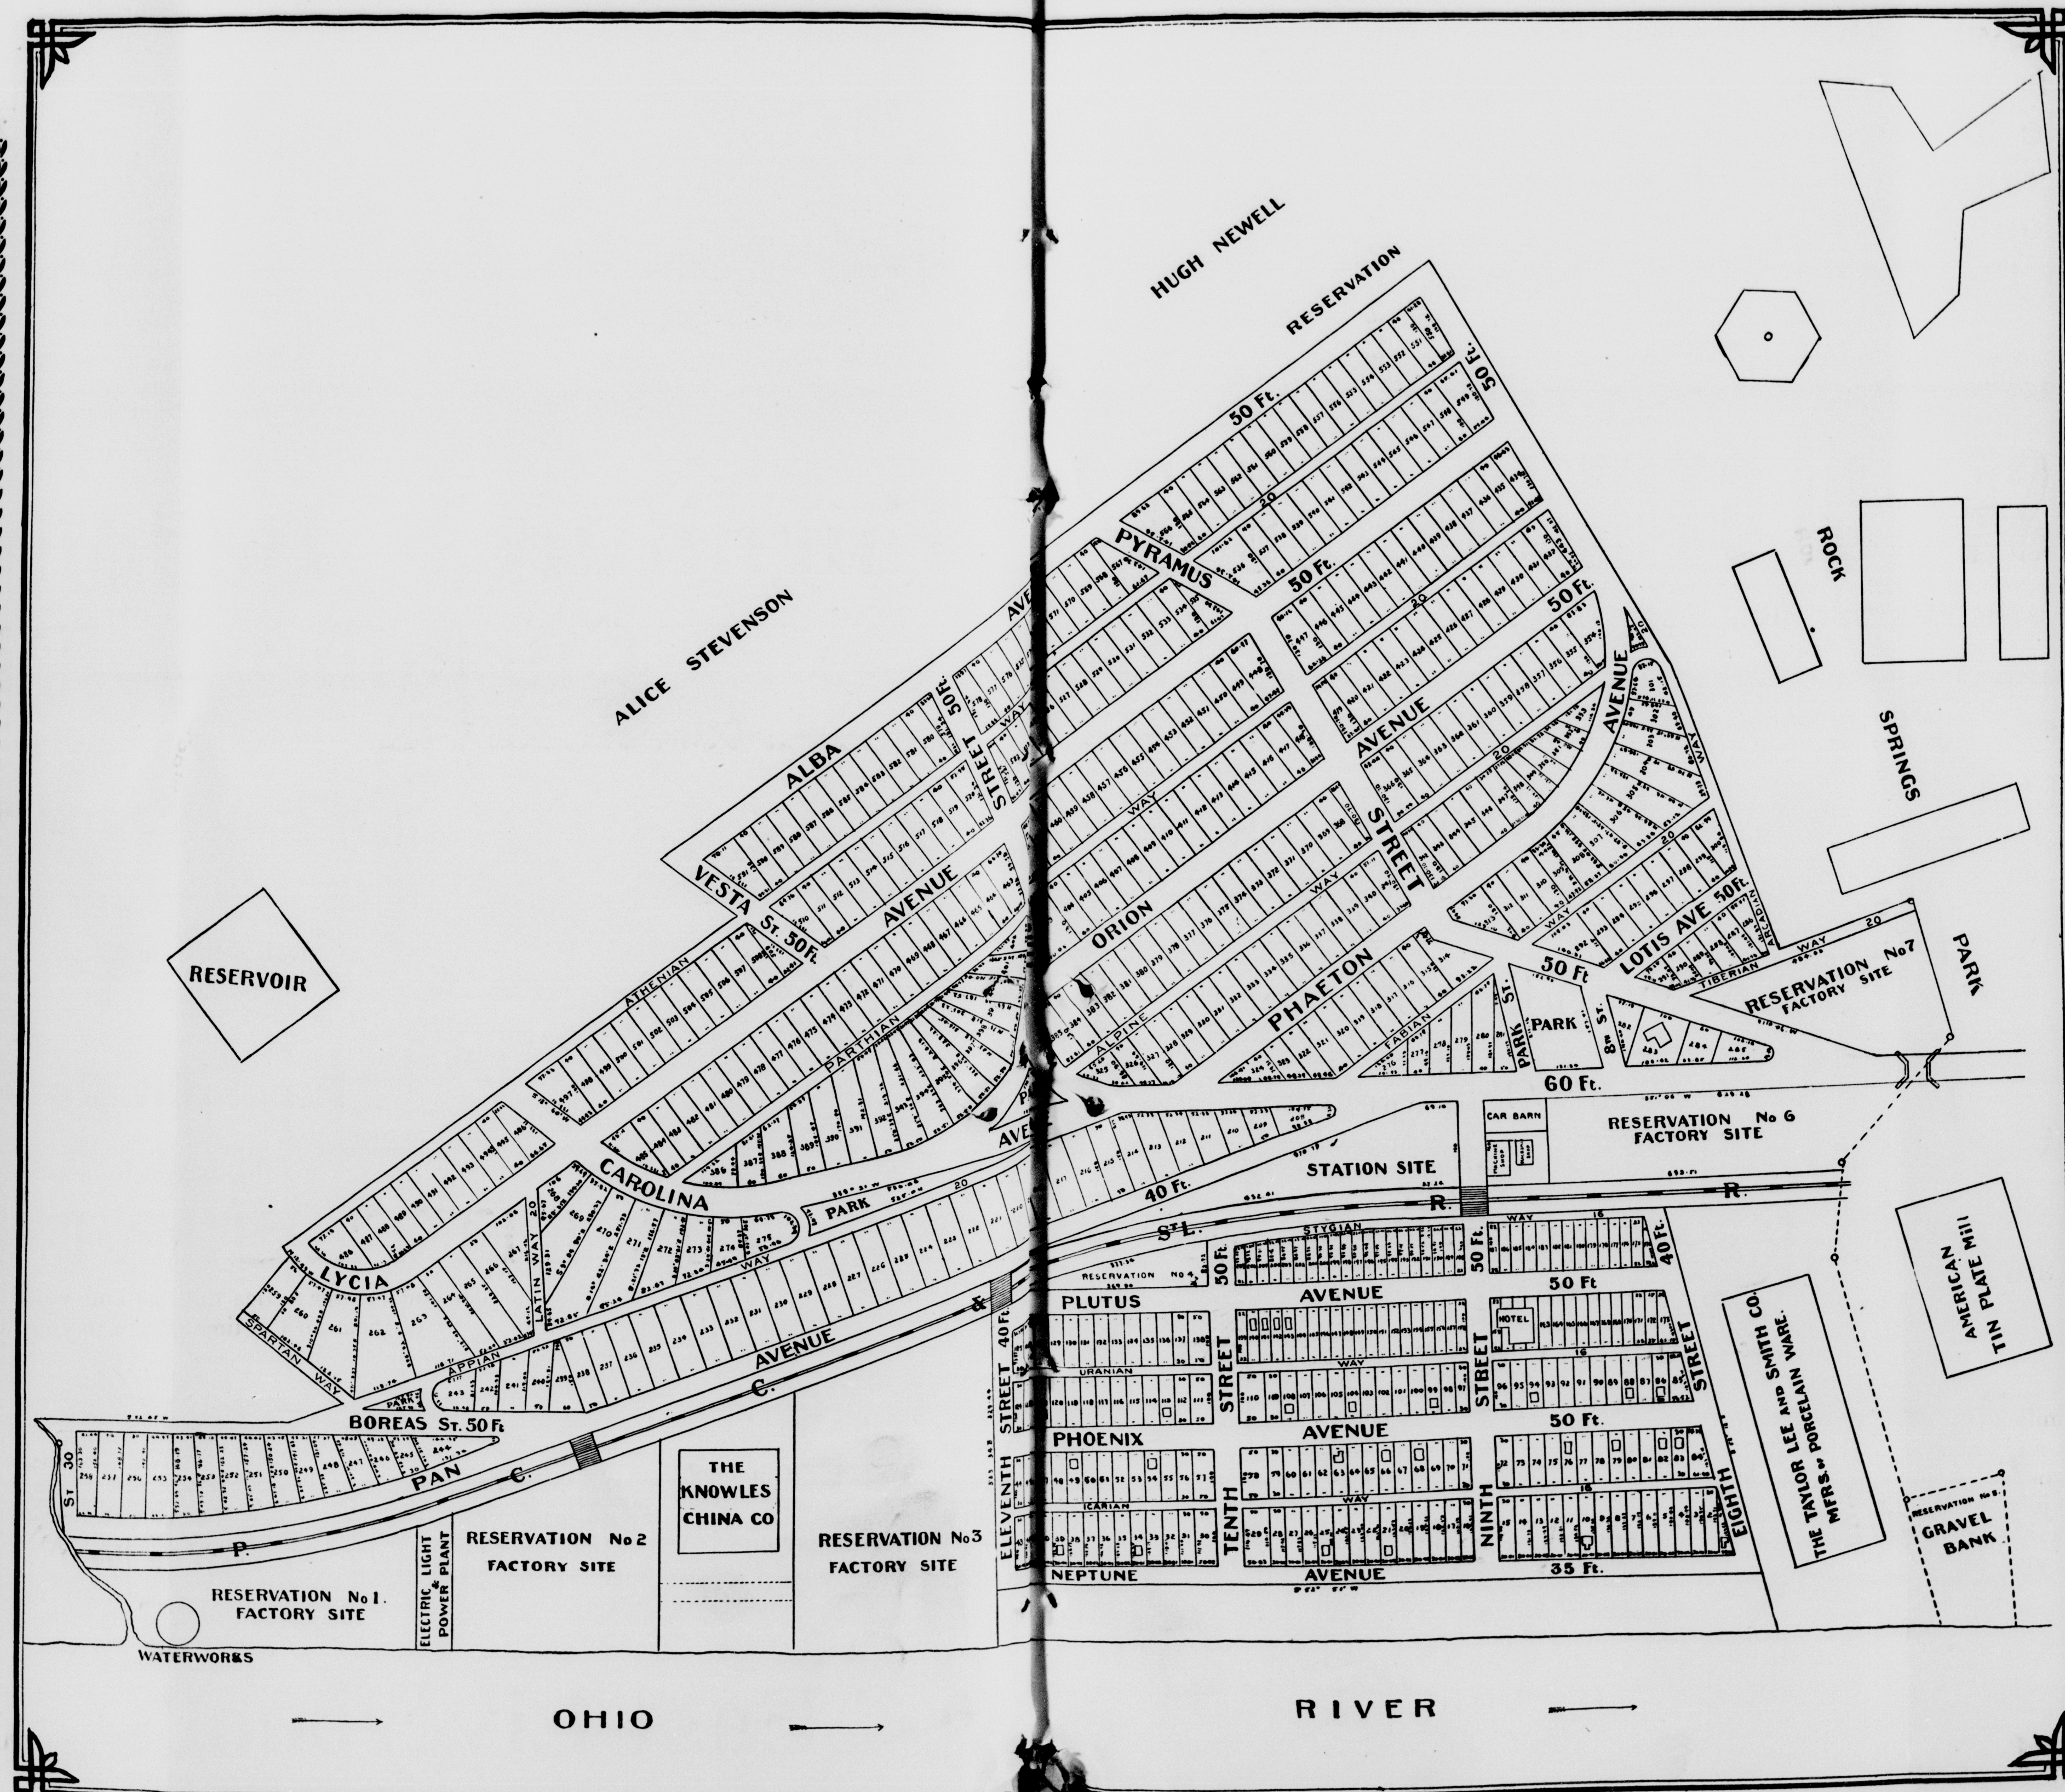

The Prices on
the unimproved Lots
on the Plat
herewith are from

$100
each upward.

The Lots with elegant modern dwellings
ready for occupancy
are from

$1650
up to $2900

All of these Properties on small payments
and easy terms.

You do not
have to wait in an isolated, hard
to reach
pasture lot for some improvement
to be made
about your home.

No, for in these Lots you
have a property
with
Paved Streets, Sewer,
Water, Gas and Trolley Cars.

Call for a plat.

YOUR BOYS' SUIT

For school will soon require your attention
We want to supply the coming men of our city with Clothes because we hope to furnish them when they are men.

We have a great many medium weight suits suitable for this kind of weather and also heavy enough for fall. Come and see them while our CLOTHING SALE is going on and reap the benefit of our Reduced Prices.

THE SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE

CLOTHIERS, HATTERS AND FURNISHERS. EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

We are Clearing Up a Lot of Odds
and Ends in

Shoes

Ladies' $2.50 $3, and $3.50 Tans
at 98c to $1.48.

SOME good black ones too at similar prices. Some children's tans and blacks at 48c to 98c that are worth double that price. They are not cheap jobs
but our own brand of staple and reliable shoes. They are worth looking after if you would economize in shoes.

R. W. Sample & Co.

A Beautiful Present

For a lady or gent.

A Wedding Present.

A Gift for any Occasion at any Time

AN ELEGANT
ASSORTMENT.

A GREAT VARIETY.

QUALITY ALWAYS GOOD

PRICES ALWAYS LOW at

The Wade
Jewelry
Co.

Opera House Block, Sixth Street.

YOUR BOYS' SUIT

For school will soon require your attention
We want to supply the coming men of
our city with Clothes because we hope to furnish them when they are men.

We have a great many medium weight
suits suitable for this kind of weather and also heavy enough for fall. Come and see them while our CLOTHING SALE is going on and reap the benefit of our Reduced Prices.

THE SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE

CLOTHIERS, HATTERS AND FURNISHERS. EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

We are Clearing Up a Lot of Odds
and Ends in

Shoes

Ladies' $2.50 $3, and $3.50 Tans
at 98c to $1.48.

SOME good black ones too at similar prices. Some children's tans and blacks at 48c to 98c that are worth double that price. They are not cheap jobs
but our own brand of staple and reliable
shoes. They are worth looking after if you would economize in shoes.

R. W. Sample & Co.

A Beautiful Present

For a lady or gent.

A Wedding Present.

A Gift for any Occasion at any Time

AN ELEGANT ASSORTMENT.

A GREAT VARIETY.

QUALITY ALWAYS GOOD PRICES ALWAYS LOW at

The Wade
Jewelry
Co.

Opera House Block, Sixth Street.